

NEW WITNESS SAYS HE SAW WOMAN FIRE INTO DOCTOR'S OFFICE

She Wore Dark Skirt and White Shirtwaist, He Testifies on Stand

HIS TESTIMONY IMPORTANT

Previous Witnesses Said Mrs. Carman Was Garbed as Latest Witness Described

Freepport, N. Y., July 8.—The inquest into the death of Mrs. Louisa Bailey, mysteriously murdered on the night of Tuesday, June 20, in the office of Dr. Edwin Carman, a practicing physician in this village, was closed shortly before noon today. No verdict was immediately announced, but one was expected later in the day.

Elliswood Bards, a new witness, testified just before the hearing closed that he had seen a woman he was unable to identify, running away from the doctor's office shortly after the shot which killed Mrs. Bailey was fired.

In this contention Mrs. Carman was borne out on the stand today by her young daughter, Elizabeth.

The district attorney informed the coroner after the inquest that he believed a woman should immediately be arrested and held for the murder. The coroner answered that he would receive the testimony taken at today's inquest and might order an arrest before night.

Gaston Boissonault, manager of the detective division of a company which manufactures telephone devices to record conversations, was the first witness called today at the resumption of the inquest.

It was Boissonault's company that installed a telephone device in Dr. Carman's office some time before the murder at the order of Mrs. Carman. The witness told today the first call of Mrs. Carman at his office. She first said she was a dressmaker, then admitted her identity, adding that she had many domestic troubles and wanted to hear what went on in her husband's office.

On the same day Mrs. Carman made plans to take him away for two days while the instrument was being installed.

The witness said Mrs. Carman had told him about seeing a nurse kiss Dr. Carman. "She said she was so mad," he went on, "when she saw that kiss that she almost broke the window by knocking on it."

Mrs. Carman told him further, he said, that she knew her husband met many women both in his home and outside and she was the witness whether he could furnish detectives.

To-day's conference had been arranged as the second of a series of talks which President Wilson plans to have with captains of industry and finance to learn their views and give his own on business conditions as well as measures pending in Congress.

To-morrow the president has an engagement with Henry Ford, the Detroit manufacturer.

DEMOCRATIC STEAM ROLLER HIT BONNIEWELL

Went Over Him on 12 to 1 Scale When He Protested Against Invasion of Rights

MACHINE IN GOOD SHAPE

Palmer and McCormick See the New Democratic Division Committee Operate It

The Palmer-McCormick steam roller flattened out Judge Eugene C. Bonniwell, member of the Democratic executive committee from Philadelphia, when he protested in the meeting of the committee today against invasion of the rights of the Philadelphia city committee by the State organization.

The committee met for its summer conference on the campaign and to hear what Bosses Palmer and McCormick had to say about the way they wanted the campaign run. The men who were turned down in their effort to slide into the city committee in Philadelphia, which is controlled by the Old Guard, promptly took advantage of the occasion to present contests of the election of ward chairmen and city committeemen from two wards.

When the contests from Philadelphia were uncovered by State Chairman Morris the judge pointed out that they were local affairs involving membership in local committees and that the State organization had nothing to do with it.

COL. DENNY LOSES HIS LIFE IN FALL OVER BALUSTRADE

Family Believes He Was Seized With an Attack of Vertigo During Night

Washington, July 8.—Colonel Frank L. Denny, retired, of the Marine Corps, was almost instantly killed early today when he fell over a balustrade in his home to the floor below. The report to the police said he was walking in his sleep.

Colonel Denny's family believe he was seized with an attack of vertigo with which he was subject and fell while moving about the house. He struck his head upon a marble top table on the lower floor of his house, crushing his skull. When a physician arrived he was beyond help.

Colonel Denny was one of the storm centers in a row in the marine corps three years ago, in which it was charged that a number of staff officers in Washington were controlling the corps.

Colonel Denny was prominent in the social and club life of the capital.

MANNING WILL PLAN COMPREHENSIVE PARK SYSTEM AT STEELTON

That Steelton, before many years, will have a comprehensive public park system, developed along lines similar to that of Harrisburg and laid out so that they eventually may become a part of the Harrisburg parks, is now practically certain.

Plans are now being developed by Warren H. Manning, the landscape artist who planned the parks of the city, for a system of parks for Steelton. At a recent meeting of the borough council a committee from the Municipal League requested that some steps be taken towards the development of the Luther R. Kelker park east of the borough.

Mr. Manning has already looked over the Kelker plot and also the plot of ground surrounding the reservoir at the end of Swatara street. In this latter tract there are about ten acres of high ground that could be developed into a beautiful park.

It is the plan of the joint committee to have Mr. Manning suggest a plan for developing these two tracts so that they may ultimately be joined into a single park. This proposed park will join with the Harrisburg parks somewhere near Paxtang by a driveway.

The committees in charge of the project hope to be able to have the plans drawn and everything in shape so that the driveways may be marked out and trees planted some time in October.

STILT KING HAS ONLY 1994 MILES TO 'FRISCO

Washington, D. C., July 8.—Moses Friedman, who volunteered his resignation as superintendent of the Carlisle Indian school after an investigation by the special congressional committee, is said here to be presupposing too much in his statement in Philadelphia. In the first place, the Department of Justice has not satisfied itself that the statute of limitation has run on all of Mr. Friedman's alleged acts of misconduct, and prosecution is still imminent.

Mr. Friedman sent his resignation to Commissioner Sells three days after the congressional committee had begun its inquiry into charges preferred by the Indian Rights Association of Philadelphia. All of the charges were preferred by this association. In accepting the resignation Commissioner Sells said in a statement issued at the time that it did not absolve the accused superintendent from any action that might be taken by the Department of Justice.

Officials connected with the Indian Bureau say the statement of Mr. Friedman does not merit a reply. However, Commissioner Sells said he might have something to say to-morrow.

TWO MEN FOUND DEAD UNDER WRECKED AUTO

Patchogue, L. I., July 8.—Edwin Bailey, a former State Senator, and John Brooks, both of this place, were found dead today under the hood of Bailey's wrecked automobile on the outskirts of the village. Apparently they were driving toward town when the automobile skidded and turned over. Bailey was a prominent Democrat in Suffolk county and was a deputy State conservation commissioner at the time of his death.

CLEAN UP THE RIVER DEMAND BOATMEN WANT ROCKS REMOVED

"Clean Up the River" is the slogan that is now heard from the boat clubs and owners of river craft, who believe that the approaching completion of the river dam demands the immediate consideration of some means for clearing the channel of dangerous rocks and obstructions.

While some little headway was made in this direction last year, there is still considerable to be done before the river shall have been cleared of dangerous rocks. Many of these most dangerous obstructions are around the pier of the Harrisburg Bridge Company, which will probably be requested to remove the rocks before the dam shall have been completed.

Some blasting will be necessary here and there, but it is thought that most of the obstructions can be removed without serious difficulty.

An invitation has been extended to members of all transportation brotherhoods to attend the meeting.

Previous to the meeting which is scheduled for 7:30 o'clock there will be a parade. The meeting will be addressed by W. H. Pierce, president of the federated body, who returned to Harrisburg last evening; and by J. F. McDevitt, vice-president. The meeting is for the purpose of bringing about concerted action by the brotherhood all over the Pennsylvania system.

President Pierce has been in Washington in consultation with the members of the Inter-state Commerce Commission. It is understood Pierce will outline his campaign plans this evening. President Pierce announced today that he would have many important suggestions to make.

ALLENTOWN GETS INTO CONTEST FOR C. E. CONVENTION

Unlontown, Pa., July 8.—Great throngs of endeavorers gathered in the Central Christian Church at the first evening's session of the State Christian Endeavor convention at this place.

The Rev. W. A. Jones, D. D., president Pennsylvania Christian Endeavor Union, Pittsburgh, presided.

One of the pleasant features of the convention is the music. A mass choir under the direction of E. T. Chamberlain, which has been rehearsing for several weeks in preparation for the convention, is making things lively. It is said that the chorus is one of the greatest musical gatherings ever assembled in this place.

Three sessions were held in First Methodist Episcopal Church, Great Bethel Baptist and Central Christian Church this morning. Christian Endeavor institutes and sectional conferences were held. Among the speakers were Dr. Clarence H. Chain, Philadelphia, junior work; Samuel Diller, Philadelphia, intermediate work; Dr. B. W. Swase, Allentown, citizenship and temperance; Miss Grace D. Reinger, Easton, missionary and tenth legion; the Rev. T. W. Dickert, Reading, evangelism and quiet hour; Miss Carrie M. Rhoads, Reading, introducing activities; and the Rev. William F. Klein, Reading, prison work; Walter M. Lewis, Philadelphia, floating endeavor.

Allentown is in the contest for the State convention in 1916. Harrisburg endeavorers are hustling with the distribution of literature and claim that they have captured the convention. Every delegate attending State conventions should want to go to the Capital City, which has ninety-two churches, of all denominations, and gives it religious prominence in Central Pennsylvania.

Four more societies of the Harrisburg Union, making the total forty-six instead of forty-two, are in favor of the State convention, 1916. It is said that the remaining ten societies will likely favor the convention when they hold their business sessions.

THIRTY-TWO MEETINGS HELD BY EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

St. Paul, Minn., July 8.—With harmony in the ranks of the National Education assured as a result of the withdrawal from the presidential race last night of Dr. David B. Johnson, of Rickley, S. C., and L. R. Alderman, Portland, Oregon, in favor of Dr. David Starr Jordan, the convention today put aside political activity and held thirty-two meetings for the discussion of different phases of the present system of education. Moving pictures were endorsed by the educators.

PRESIDENT TRIES TO DEFEND HIS NOMINEES AND "BIG BUSINESS"

Unfair to Regard Democratic Party and Senate as Enemies, He Says

WANTS MR. JONES CONFIRMED

Also Earnestly Hopes That Mr. Warburg Will Reconsider His Decision

Washington, D. C., July 8.—Declaring it would be unfair to regard the Democratic party as the enemy of big or little business, President Wilson today gave out a statement in support of Paul Warburg of New York and Thomas D. Jones, of Chicago, his nominees for the Federal Reserve Board.

President Wilson's statement follows: "It would be particularly unfair to the Democratic party and to the Senate itself to regard it as the enemy of big or little business, big or little business, big or little business, it does not regard a man as an object of suspicion merely because he has been connected with great business enterprises. It knows that the business of the country has been chiefly promoted in recent years by enterprises organized on a great scale and that the vast majority of the men connected with what we have come to call big business are honest, incorruptible and patriotic. The country may be certain that it is clear to members of the Senate as it is clear to service of the men that those who have tried to make big business what it ought to be are the men to be encouraged and honored when they respond without reserve to the call of public service."

Setting an Example

"I predict with the greatest confidence that nothing done by the Democratic majority of the Senate of the United States will be of a sort to throw suspicion upon such men as Mr. Jones and Mr. Warburg, in manifesting their willingness to make personal sacrifices and put their great experience and ability at the service of the government, without thought of personal advantage, in the organization of a great reform which promises to be so serviceable to the nation, are setting an example of patriotism and of public spirit which the whole country admires. It is the obvious business of the State at this turning point in our development to recognize ability and character wherever it has been displayed and unite every force for the upbuilding of legitimate business along the new lines which are now clearly indicated for the future."

The President said today he earnestly hoped Mr. Warburg would reconsider his decision to accept the nomination and that he was urging him to do so. He expressed confidence that Mr. Jones would be confirmed.

FIREPROOF FAN HOUSES WANTED IN MINE DISTRICT

Charleston, W. Va., July 8.—The asphyxiation of five men in a mine of the Sycamore Coal company, near Williamson last week, has prompted Early Henry, chief of the West Virginia Mining Department, to move for the construction of fireproof fan houses.
