Supreme Court Again Sustains President Judge George Kunkel

Records from the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania filed with Prothonotary H. F. Holler to-day relative to the affirmation of President Judge George Kunkel's decision in the Barrett Manufacturing Company's tax appeal case, decided by the State's highest court in agreement with District Judge Kunkel, judge, practically quoted from the opinion of the lower court.

The Barrett case involved the question of whether a company whose officers, including the treasurer, resided outside the State, whose money was handled outside the State, who transacted all of its business outside the State, but who distributed its dividends within the State boundaries, could be liable for State tax on its interest coupons.

The case was submitted to President Judge Kunkel months ago by the Attorney General's Department. The State authorities based its claim for States taxes on the ground that the interest was paid within the State, that the money was sent to a Philadelphia trust company and thence paid to the stockholders. Judge Kunkel held that the company was not liable in that the business was all handled outside the State, and that the Philadelphia trust company served only as a distributing point, the money having been sent there from the New York headquarters' office.

Ziegler is chairman of the committee on program and entertainment and the other members include Colonel H. C. Demming, Frank J. Roth and Edward E. Jauss.

Some notable stenographers are in attendance at the convention, including H. H. Peachin, Philadelphia, who was the stenographer for the famous Capitol investigation commission, William H. Faries, Sunbury, and William M. Clift, Philadelphia, are secretary and treasurer, respectively.

SAID "NO" FOR SAKE OF ECONOMY

Taylor Explains Why He Wanted Council to Purchase La France Equipment

In the contract for Harrisburg's first motor fire apparatus City Commissioner M. Harvey Taylor, superintendent of parks and public property will stipulate specifically that the machines must be completed on or before September 30 so that they may be here in time to have a place in the firemen's parade during the State firemen's convention week.

The contract for one of the American La France combination chemicals and for one of the Morton truck and tractor machines will be signed within a day or two.

When the vote on the award of the contracts was taken yesterday in City Council Mr. Taylor was the only member who voted "no." When asked his reasons to-day Mr. Taylor said:

"My idea in recommending the purchase of two standard American La France combination chemicals was first and last, to give Harrisburg what I believed to be the best possible apparatus for the money. And that, too, is what Fire Chief Kinder, Assistant Chief Halbert and other well-known fire fighters thought.

"If one wishes to get a good suit of clothes does he go to some one who calls himself a tailor but who has never made any clothes? Or, does he pay the required price for what he thinks is the best product he can obtain?"

"To my mind the question of local pride or sentiment should not be considered in a matter of this kind. The only question is that of efficiency and economy and these terms are synonymous when the problem of the better product even at a higher price is at issue.

Made Careful Investigation
"This is why in my opinion Council yesterday did not award the contract for the city's first motor driven apparatus on its merits. My recommendation for the American La France company was made after careful study and investigation of the best makes of apparatus. I went to the factories and to the cities wherein the different motor fire machines were in service. The American La France plant is the largest in the world; it makes only fire apparatus; it has millions of dollars invested; it has a reputation long established; it must maintain its reputation; it cannot afford to do other than turn out the best product; all this Harrisburg would have benefited by.

"Within six or seven years, according to the way Harrisburg has started to buy its motor apparatus, there will be no uniformity or standard under which the fire department will be equipped with motor apparatus. There will be half a dozen different makes of apparatus. I concluded the head of the city's fire department, 'are a few of the reasons why I voted 'no' against the award of the contracts by City Council."

PLAN POLYCLINIC HOSPITAL ERECTION

Sale of Plot Provides Money Necessary For Start of Work

The sale of yesterday of a little more than half the plot at Fourth and Emerald street bought three years ago by several physicians and laymen with a view to the erection of a hospital building, to be known as the Polyclinic Hospital, will in all probability hasten the erection of a substantial hospital building on the remaining plot of ground.

Redecker Brinser, proprietor of the Harrisburg News Agency was the purchaser. The price paid was $6,300 and this will form the nucleus of the directorate of the Polyclinic hospital includes: W. R. Houser, president; W. T. Douglass, vice-president; Charles F. Hoover, treasurer; Harry D. Delmont, secretary; the Rev. W. S. Harris, the Rev. B. F. Hart, Dr. Samuel Z. Shope, Dr. W. D. Witter, Dr. R. E. Holmes, Dr. M. M. Ritchie, B. H. Blough, Dr. H. H. Gross, Harry F. Miller and Alexander Miller.

The withdrawal several months ago of Dr. E. L. Shope who conducted a hospital that was used as the Polyclinic up to that time led the board to discuss the advisability of raising funds for the immediate erection of a hospital. The sale of a little more than one-half the original plot of 280 by 127 at Front and Emerald will leave about a 125 foot front for the hospital building. The plot was bought three years ago from John Hargest. Mr. Brinser said he was uncertain as yet what disposition he would make of the plot.
