Harrisburg Elks Go to Grand Lodge Sessions

Harrisburg lodge, No. 12, Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, will have three representatives in the grand lodge sessions at Denver, next week. The Harrisburg Elks leave to-night and will return from Denver one week from Saturday. In the party will be:

Past Exalted Ruler Percy L. Grubb, who is the representative; Past Exalted Ruler John H. Maloney, alternate, and District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler V. Hummel Breckenridge.

 Past Exalted Ruler Maloney is of the earlier herd of Elks. He was exalted ruler of the old Harrisburg lodge, and later was a member of Lebanon lodge. He has attended every grand lodge session for the past twenty-five years.

Charles T. Jones, a member of Harrisburg lodge, left at noon to-day. He was joined at the Harrisburg station by Elks from Allentown, York, Hanover and Chambersburg.

TINTED EYE-GLASSES
 The glare of the sun, in summer is injurious to eyes sensitive to strong light and prevents the full enjoyment of outdoor sports. We will make your tinted eye-glasses from your present optical prescription or test your eyes for lenses best suited for you. Ralph L. Pratt, eye-sight specialist, 807 North Third street.

To-morrow a Day of Powerful Values Here

Your money will enjoy bigger purchasing power here to-morrow than we have ever before made possible, and that is equivalent to saying "that it has ever enjoyed anywhere." This store maintains a policy of the quick turning of merchandise into money and this necessitates volume of sales to make the business profitable. Hence, we must UNDERSELL—we have no choice in the matter—and the following items for to-morrow's selling will exemplify the manner in which we carry out our policy.
