Denver, Colo., July 14.—Politics was brought into the 28th annual relunion of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, and the Golden jubilee of the grand lodge to-day. The fiftieth session of the grand lodge began its three-day secret session. Among other things it will consider charges made by Grand Exalted Ruler Edward Leach in his annual report upon a tendency of some lodges to develop the social or "club" feature of a lodge to the extent in prohibition localities, that they have become subterfuges for selling liquor. Five thousand child delinquents have come under the guardianship of 308,083 Elks in 1901 lodges in 48 States and four parishions—Guam. Alaska, Hawaii and Porto Rico—since the Rochester inauguration of the Elks' "big brother" movement in 1913. An approprlation of $10,000 to continue their work, the publication of a periodical upon the movement and the incorporation of the big brother committee into the grand lodge are urged by that committee in a report to the grand lodge.
