

2ND BAPTIST CHURCH NOT 45 YEARS OLD

Washington Preacher Will Deliver Anniversary Address Sunday Afternoon

The forty-fifth anniversary of the Second Baptist Church, Cameron street, and the seventh anniversary of the pastor, the Rev. Albert J. Greene, will be observed next Sunday.

At a meeting of the neighborhood committee of the St. Johns evangelistic campaign in Pine Street Presbyterian Church last night Miss Caroline Keefe was chosen chairman.

Frenchman Is Favored in Heavyweight Fight

London, July 15.—Boxing experts here show a remarkably even division of opinion as to the chances of "Gunboat" Smith, the American heavyweight and George Carpentier, the French heavyweight champion in their twenty round match to be fought at Olympia to-morrow night.

PRESIDENT ACTIVELY TAKES UP FIGHT

After a night of quiet, the President today took up the fight against the White House nomination of Senator Jones for the White House.

Reports reaching the White House tonight were to the effect that four Democratic Senators, Hitchcock, Reed, Vandaman and O'Gorman are opposing Mr. Jones, and that three Republicans, Senators Sherman, Stephenson and Burton are for his confirmation.

REALTY TRANSFERS

Real estate transfers of yesterday are recorded as follows: 450 Crescent street, F. H. Bomgardner to James C. Graham; Twelfth street near Hill avenue; H. Schudennange to Elizabeth Haines; 210 E. Second street, Mabel R. Murray to John G. Gabriel; 2228 North Fourth street, J. W. Orlan to J. C. Crumrine; Lykens, P. O. Miels's heirs to O. Platter, $1,200; Edgemont, Isadore Lippman to Harvey Clark, $55.

Deaths and Funerals

HEARS OF BROTHER'S DEATH. Miss Mary Currand, of 508 North street, yesterday received word of the death of her brother, William T. Currand at Los Angeles, California. Mr. Currand was a former resident of this city and five years ago was employed in the local machine shops of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

INDIAN BRAVES TO PARADE ON FRIDAY

Hundreds of Redmen Will Celebrate Elevation of Charles E. Pass to Sachemship

All arrangements are completed for the big parade to be held on Friday night in honor of the election of Charles E. Pass, of this city, to the highest office in the Improved Order of Red Men in Pennsylvania.

COUNTY AUDITORS MAY GO OVER 1913 BOOKS

Continued From First Page. The following organizations from this city will participate: Allequippa Tribe, No. 57; Coplanter Tribe, No. 61; Eshankone Tribe, No. 22; Octarora Tribe, No. 91; Octarora Haymakers Association, No. 90 1/2; Pokoson Tribe, No. 331; Pokoson Council, No. 66; Warrior Eagle Tribe, No. 340; Wauwassem Tribe, No. 381; Octarora Council, No. 50; Warrior Eagle Council, No. 63.

SHAMROCK IV IS READY FOR TRIP ACROSS OCEAN

Washington, D. C., July 15.—High above the towering steps of the east portico on the House wing of the Capitol to-day was hung the figure of a woman with a rope around her neck, while the plunger of the scullery, Paul Bartlett, shouted directions. A sightseer asked what the figure typified.

Karl Steward Gets First Appointment as Viewer

Karl Steward, recently named by the Dauphin county court as one of the general board of viewers to serve in Dauphin county, got his first appointment to-day, when a President Judge George Kunkel included him in the board to view the grading of Brown street from Seventeenth to Eighteenth.

15-Year-Old Girl Says Sister Took Her Clothes

At a special session of Juvenile Court conducted this morning by Additional Judge McCarell, pretty 15-year-old Elizabeth Boyer was arraigned to answer a charge of incorrigibility preferred by her father, Charles Boyer.

WRITE DEMAND OF 55,000 ENGINEERS

Continued From First Page. Relations between the engineers and the general managers' committee approached the breaking point when the men's representatives prepared to present a final ultimatum on wages and working conditions. The managers' committee declared yesterday that the demands could not be agreed to.

DEMOCRATS TALK OF FUSION DEALS

Democratic leaders from a number of central counties talked about appointments to jobs, campaign plans, finances and possibilities and impossibilities of fusion with State Chairman Morris and some of the Democratic candidates to-day. They also had lunch.

NEW STATUE IS BEING PLACED IN POSITION

Washington, D. C., July 15.—High above the towering steps of the east portico on the House wing of the Capitol to-day was hung the figure of a woman with a rope around her neck, while the plunger of the scullery, Paul Bartlett, shouted directions.

THOUSANDS ON WAY TO INSANE HOSPITAL

Chicago, Ill., July 15.—"A feeble-minded man and a feeble-minded woman can produce none but feeble-minded children," whether it is right to let such reproduce their kind is a question so new that we have as yet not come to a decision that is either ethical or moral.

1914 TAX RECEIPTS 26 THOUSAND MORE

Harrisburg's holdings in horseflesh is gradually lessening, however: It is the latest sign of the automobile times, the clerks in the County Commissioners' office say. According to the report, there are only 809 horses in the city today, as against 834 in 1913.

HEAR ARGUMENT ON INSURANCE CASE

Argument was heard to-day by the Dauphin county court on the question of exceptions to the report of Frank B. Wickersham, auditor for the receivers of the Guardian Fire Insurance Company of Pittsburgh.

BOY SWEEP OVER DAM

Norristown, Pa., July 15.—John Davis, 17 years old of Pottstown, was swept over a dam and drowned to-day in the Perkiomen creek at Collegeville, near here.

HEAR THE ANGELS

Compare it with any and all other player plans, you'll be more than satisfied to pay the difference for an Angelus. J. H. Troup Music House, 15 South Market Square.—Advertisement.

CATHOLICS OPPOSE RACE AND RING DANCES

Spread of Immoral Literature, Postcards and Picture Films Condemned. Special to The Telegraph. Erie, Pa., July 15.—The 12th annual convention of the Federation of Catholic Societies of Pennsylvania came to an end with the adoption of resolutions which oppose the tango and "other animal dances."

THOUSANDS ON WAY TO INSANE HOSPITAL

Chicago, Ill., July 15.—"A feeble-minded man and a feeble-minded woman can produce none but feeble-minded children," whether it is right to let such reproduce their kind is a question so new that we have as yet not come to a decision that is either ethical or moral.

1914 TAX RECEIPTS 26 THOUSAND MORE

Harrisburg's holdings in horseflesh is gradually lessening, however: It is the latest sign of the automobile times, the clerks in the County Commissioners' office say. According to the report, there are only 809 horses in the city today, as against 834 in 1913.

HEAR ARGUMENT ON INSURANCE CASE

Argument was heard to-day by the Dauphin county court on the question of exceptions to the report of Frank B. Wickersham, auditor for the receivers of the Guardian Fire Insurance Company of Pittsburgh.

BOY SWEEP OVER DAM

Norristown, Pa., July 15.—John Davis, 17 years old of Pottstown, was swept over a dam and drowned to-day in the Perkiomen creek at Collegeville, near here.

HEAR THE ANGELS

Compare it with any and all other player plans, you'll be more than satisfied to pay the difference for an Angelus. J. H. Troup Music House, 15 South Market Square.—Advertisement.

"PRETTIEST GIRL IN THE WORLD" HOME AGAIN

FROM LEFT TO RIGHT, MISS MARIE TELLER AND MISS NOEL JOHNSTON

New York, July 15.—The liner Olympia arrived here from Southampton bringing as one of her passengers "the most beautiful girl in the world."

THOUSANDS ON WAY TO INSANE HOSPITAL

Chicago, Ill., July 15.—"A feeble-minded man and a feeble-minded woman can produce none but feeble-minded children," whether it is right to let such reproduce their kind is a question so new that we have as yet not come to a decision that is either ethical or moral.

1914 TAX RECEIPTS 26 THOUSAND MORE

Harrisburg's holdings in horseflesh is gradually lessening, however: It is the latest sign of the automobile times, the clerks in the County Commissioners' office say. According to the report, there are only 809 horses in the city today, as against 834 in 1913.

HEAR ARGUMENT ON INSURANCE CASE

Argument was heard to-day by the Dauphin county court on the question of exceptions to the report of Frank B. Wickersham, auditor for the receivers of the Guardian Fire Insurance Company of Pittsburgh.

BOY SWEEP OVER DAM

Norristown, Pa., July 15.—John Davis, 17 years old of Pottstown, was swept over a dam and drowned to-day in the Perkiomen creek at Collegeville, near here.

HEAR THE ANGELS

Compare it with any and all other player plans, you'll be more than satisfied to pay the difference for an Angelus. J. H. Troup Music House, 15 South Market Square.—Advertisement.

FIREMEN'S UNION HEARS GOOD REPORTS

Liberal Contributions Being Made Says Finance Committee Chairman. Responses from many out-of-town companies to invitations to participate in the state convention were read at a meeting of the Firemen's Union last night.

CONGRESSMAN DECLARES WILSON AIDED REBELS

Washington, July 15.—A bitter attack on the administration's Mexican policy was made in the House late yesterday by Representative Mondell, a Wyoming Republican. He asserted that the administration has gone out of its way to aid the revolutionists and that its policy throughout has been one of hypocrisy.

THOUSANDS ON WAY TO INSANE HOSPITAL

Chicago, Ill., July 15.—"A feeble-minded man and a feeble-minded woman can produce none but feeble-minded children," whether it is right to let such reproduce their kind is a question so new that we have as yet not come to a decision that is either ethical or moral.

1914 TAX RECEIPTS 26 THOUSAND MORE

Harrisburg's holdings in horseflesh is gradually lessening, however: It is the latest sign of the automobile times, the clerks in the County Commissioners' office say. According to the report, there are only 809 horses in the city today, as against 834 in 1913.

HEAR ARGUMENT ON INSURANCE CASE

Argument was heard to-day by the Dauphin county court on the question of exceptions to the report of Frank B. Wickersham, auditor for the receivers of the Guardian Fire Insurance Company of Pittsburgh.

BOY SWEEP OVER DAM

Norristown, Pa., July 15.—John Davis, 17 years old of Pottstown, was swept over a dam and drowned to-day in the Perkiomen creek at Collegeville, near here.

HEAR THE ANGELS

Compare it with any and all other player plans, you'll be more than satisfied to pay the difference for an Angelus. J. H. Troup Music House, 15 South Market Square.—Advertisement.

THE MILLION DOLLAR MYSTERY. What Became of the $1,000,000? THE MILLION DOLLAR MYSTERY.