Bathe Your Blood Along With Skin Unsightly Skin Troubles Will Soon Disappear

Along with a tub bath use S. S. S. for the blood. It bathes your blood, washes out impurities, gets deposits out of joints and muscles, converts impurities into a substance easily expelled. The skin responds quickly. All sore spots dry, a firm, dry scale or scab forms, new skin grows beneath, the scale falls off and you are rid of eczema, psoriasis, acne, tetter, boils, carbuncles, pimples or any other skin affliction. S. S. S. has a wonderful action in the network of fine blood vessels in the skin and if you would understand this better write to The Swift Specific Co., 112 Swift Bldg. for a valuable book "What the Mirror Tells." It will tell you how the skin is but a fine network of blood vessels and why S. S. S. has such a wonderful influence. Get a bottle of S. S. S. today of any drugist but do not be talked into a substitute. Beware of cheap imitations each bottle is an illustrated circular suggesting how you may obtain valuable medical advice absolutely free. Get a bottle of S. S. S. today.

LOCAL SUFFRAGIST HOLDS UP TRAFFIC

Pittsburgh Business Men Crowd to Hear Miss Hall Speaking From Soap Box

MISS LOUISE HALL

Miss Louise Hall, the well-known Harrisburg suffragist, yesterday created quite a sensation in Pittsburgh when, balanced on a candy bucket on top of a soap box, she harangued a crowd of business men in front of the Colonial Trust Company. Traffic was held up and the street was blocked off by the great numbers of men who crowded to hear her. A Pittsburgh dispatch says:

"Miss Hall, hair damp and voice harsh from oratory, snapped out sentences akin to epigram which flicked the mental faculties of the men audience like a whip lash. The curb meeting is one of the campaign features planned for this summer by the Equal Franchise Federation of Pittsburgh.

"Combination garbage and milk wagons," said Miss Hall, in one part of her speech, referring to the woman's fight for clean milk for her babies, "is what a Colorado friend of mine said when she came to this state where women have no voice and saw the way your men look after the health of those who are affected by their vote.

"It is the woman's business to look after the milk supply. Civic conditions which were good enough for our great-grandmothers are not good enough for us to-day. Men have moved forward. We will move forward. We must have a voice with the men in making the laws. Take the milk problem in Colorado.

"There women have a voice in the matter and there are laws which forbid the peddling of milk or bottling by persons who have been or are sick. Save the children.

WOMAN RENDERED POWERLESS BY STROKE OF LIGHTNING

Columbia, Pa., July 17.—Mrs. John Eicher, while sitting in her store at the Millin Park, at the eastern end of town, was stunned by a bolt of lightning that struck near a barn where two men and a boy were sitting, a square away, and shocked them. The woman's limbs were rendered powerless by the bolt and she had to be carried home. It required eight men to carry the woman, who is unusually large and heavy. The bolt struck the ground near the barn and the force was so great as to render the men helpless by the shock. A neighbor a square away gave the alarm, having witnessed the column of fire caused by the bolt, and other neighbors went to their assistance.

HIGH FIGURES IN RATINGS OF GUARD

Company M of Eighteenth Regiment, Pittsburgh, Not Far From Perfect Record

Results of the inspection made of the National Guard of Pennsylvania during the winter and Spring are made public in a general order issued from National Guard headquarters last night. As a rule the various regiments and auxiliary organizations are found to be in good condition and the only criticisms are that there is not more drilling and that more attention should be given to discipline. Criticism is also made of attendance, which, while better, is not what it should be. The Fourth Regiment paraded four companies with the required number for
