Sunbury, will have charge of the troops and direct the active maneuvers of the citizen soldiers. The Governor's Troop, of Harrisburg, under command of Captain Jack, ar-rived here this morning and imme-diately went to their quarters, which are located on high ground. This morning the Camp of Instruc-tion, as it is known, was formally opened. The flag was run to the tip of the flagpole in front of brigade head-quarters while the Ninth Regiment Band played the "Star Spangled Ban-ner." The lack of form in opening camp gave the men a hint of the fact that the camp this year is to be one of real hard work. Heretofore, the troops were paraded in front of headquarters and several hours were taken up with the formality of raising the flag. Governor Tener and his staff will be here to review the troops on Wed-nesday, July 22. On that day the vari-ous commands will also be inspected. To-morrow at 4 p. m. a review will be 95 % 21 % 77
