

NEW SCHOOLS IN WESTSTONE STATE

State Reports Show That Western Counties Are Building More Than Eastern

WORKING FOR FARMERS Movable Schools Will Be Held in Seven Counties During Coming Winter

Reports made to the State Board of Education by its architectural bureau for the year ending July 1 show that 22 new school houses were erected or authorized and 107 re-constructions begun.

A number of the small and agricultural counties will have movable schools under State supervision during the coming winter, these schools being supplementary to the farmers' institutes work conducted by the Department of Agriculture.

Movable Schools.—Seven counties of the State will have movable schools under State supervision during the coming winter, these schools being supplementary to the farmers' institutes work conducted by the Department of Agriculture.

State Charters.—State charters have been issued as follows: Terre Hill Hosley Co., Terre Hill, Lancaster county, capital $50,000; Alfred Kohr Co., clothing, Philadelphia, capital $100,000; West Walnut Apartment House Co., Philadelphia, capital $50,000.

Big Payment Made.—County Treasurer F. Harris of Allegheny county, yesterday paid the State Treasury $131,000. Open Bids Tuesday.—Bids for the construction of a dozen sections of the Pennsylvania Turnpike will be opened on Tuesday.

Must Comply.—Dairy and Food Commissioner James Foust is going to enforce the provision of the state pure food law that a proper label and "soft drink" bottles which are marked with the name of the concoction and bear the words "artificially colored" in small type will not be held as complying with the law.

HEARD ON THE "HILL"—Secretary Critchfield and Harry E. Klugh have returned from Hot Springs. Over 25 Reading people visited the Capitol yesterday.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS President of Michigan Federation of Labor expresses fear of another copper miner's strike. Supporters of Thomas D. Jones consider plan for party conference to force his nomination through Senate.

GENERAL HUERTA AND GENERAL BLANQUET SHIPS CANAL

United States Invitation to Swiss For Warships at Panama Declined For Good Reason

Special to The Telegraph Washington, D. C., July 18.—Switzerland was formally invited by the United States to send warships and representatives to attend the opening of the Panama Canal.

Carbajal Must Quit Presidency, Say Rebels

Mexico City, July 18.—According to reports from the south, the revolutionary leaders in the south have decided not to recognize Carbajal, either directly or indirectly because he was appointed by Huerta.

Former Governor Given Freedom by Carbajal

Mexico City, July 18.—Rafael Cepeda, former governor of San Luis Potosi, who has been confined in Santiago military prison for more than a year for aiding the Huerta administration, was yesterday released by order of President Carbajal.

Huerta's Delegates Enroute to England

Montreal, Quebec, July 18.—Luis Elguero, one of the three Huerta delegates to the National Convention in Mexico, is enroute to England on the steamship Laurentic to-day.

Rebel Attitude Toward Catholics Causes Trouble

Laredo, Texas, July 18.—The Constitutionalists' alleged attitude toward the Catholic church in Mexico has resulted in an unusual situation to-day in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, opposite here.

Villa Promises to Take Care of All Foreigners

Washington, D. C., July 18.—General Villa communicated with the State Department to-day regarding his guarantee for the protection of the lives and property of Americans and other foreigners who are in the United States.

Huerta Says He Will Return if He Is Needed

Puerto Mexico, July 18.—General Victoriano Huerta, who arrived here last night, in an interview, said: "When I assumed the presidency I said publicly that I would restore peace, and that I might have said; it has cost me the presidency. To restore peace has been my whole and sole ambition; I hope it is coming."

Hold Man on Charge of Enticing Little Girl

B. F. Stivettis, 223 South Fourteenth street, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Special Officer Samuel Slomberger. Stivettis is charged with enticing a 11-year-old Marie Looker, 1211 Thomsen street, who was in Paxtang Park playground when she was lured away.

FACTS OF CASSEUR ISRAEL COME BEFORE JUDGES TUESDAY ON INJUNCTION WRIT

But Weather Man Isn't Going to Promise Anything,—No Siree!

The woes of two factions of Casseur Israel congregated at the church to-day. The members of the Dauphin county court Tuesday, July 21, when the members of the members of the one faction to enjoin the officers of the church from holding a service on Tuesday.

LEWIS DECLARES HE WILL NOT RETIRE

I have not said at any time that I was for it. The sports in this fight, to my mind, is to bring about the defeat of Fenrose and Mackay. It is not for me, however, to dictate as to what the Washington party shall do. I shall content myself with keeping an open mind.

Shamrock IV Starts on Voyage to United States

Portsmouth, Eng., July 18.—Shamrock IV, Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger for the America's cup, under command of the steam yacht Erin, sailed this afternoon for Falmouth, whence she will start for the United States.

Who Ride to Dauphin May See Borough's New Lighting System

Dauphin, Pa., July 18.—Scores of motorists, who in the morning will reach this city to witness the start of the Shamrock IV, will be pleasantly surprised at what Dauphin has done to provide better lighting for its streets.

Deaths and Funerals

BURY RECTOR'S MOTHER Attended by the members of the family, the funeral services for Mrs. W. G. Appleton, who was killed by the explosion of the dynamite at 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, were held at noon at the Chapel of the Intercession in New York city.

Foreman Says Workmen Overcome Were Under Influence of Liquor

Two more men were overcome last night while at work in the sewer trench being built by the T. L. Eyre Company. They were E. M. Jacoby, 607 South Front street, and another workman whose name could not be learned.

Town Storm Swept Into River Appeals For Aid

York, Pa., July 18.—With all means of approach cut off to vehicles, residents of Long Level and Bull Run are asking for State aid in repairing the extensive damage done in that section by the storm of last Wednesday, when approximately $100,000 damage was done to roads and property.

AGED MAN DIES

Levi Williams, aged 82, of 1427 North Fourth street, died yesterday afternoon at the Harrisburg hospital following a long illness. The body was taken to Paddleton, York county, by Undertaker T. H. Mauk and Son for burial.

YOUTH DIES

Charles Yinger, Jr., aged 17 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yinger, 2019 North Fifth street, died yesterday afternoon at the home of the parents.

THEN HE BRISTLES UP

A Baltimore man, Mr. Hogshied, has applied to have his name changed. He claims that the name Hogshied makes him a butt.

WILSON'S SHIPS PLAN CAUCUS TO GET BALKY DEMOCRATS IN LINE

Washington, D. C., July 18.—The fight over the confirmation of Thomas D. Jones, of Chicago, President Wilson's nominee for the Federal Reserve Board, was in status quo to-day in the Senate.

MASSACHUSETTS LIKELY TO ATTACK NEW HAVEN AFTER SUIT IS BROUGHT

Washington, D. C., July 18.—The New Haven Railroad case assumed a new aspect to-day when it became known that the State of Massachusetts may seek to intervene after the government's Sherman law suit to dissolve that system is brought and ask the courts to force the New Haven to make a conditional sale of its Boston and Maine stock.

STEELTON MIDDLETOWN & FRIENDS SAVE WOMAN AND CHILD FROM RUNAWAY

Dashing madly down the main business street of Middletown yesterday afternoon a runaway team owned by E. C. Garman, proprietor of the Middletown Steam Laundry, was narrowly prevented from running down a woman and small child and perhaps seriously injuring them by the presence of mind of Steelton, Middletown & Friends.

STEELTON COMPANY MAY BUILD MILL AT LEBANON

Steelton people are interested in a story from Lebanon this morning to the effect that a new iron industry will locate there. A Lebanon dispatch says: "The Pennsylvania Steel Company, which operated the large twin turnpike plant at North Lebanon, will probably establish a mill foundry in connection with the place."

STEELTON CHURCHES

First Reformed.—The Rev. Charles A. Hackett, 10 a. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 10 a. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.

WILSON'S SHIPS PLAN CAUCUS TO GET BALKY DEMOCRATS IN LINE

Washington, D. C., July 18.—The fight over the confirmation of Thomas D. Jones, of Chicago, President Wilson's nominee for the Federal Reserve Board, was in status quo to-day in the Senate.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

BURY RECTOR'S MOTHER Attended by the members of the family, the funeral services for Mrs. W. G. Appleton, who was killed by the explosion of the dynamite at 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, were held at noon at the Chapel of the Intercession in New York city.

FOREMAN SAYS WORKMEN OVERCOME WERE UNDER INFLUENCE OF LIQUOR

Two more men were overcome last night while at work in the sewer trench being built by the T. L. Eyre Company. They were E. M. Jacoby, 607 South Front street, and another workman whose name could not be learned.

TOWN STORM SWEEPED INTO RIVER APPEALS FOR AID

York, Pa., July 18.—With all means of approach cut off to vehicles, residents of Long Level and Bull Run are asking for State aid in repairing the extensive damage done in that section by the storm of last Wednesday, when approximately $100,000 damage was done to roads and property.

STEELTON MIDDLETOWN & FRIENDS SAVE WOMAN AND CHILD FROM RUNAWAY

Dashing madly down the main business street of Middletown yesterday afternoon a runaway team owned by E. C. Garman, proprietor of the Middletown Steam Laundry, was narrowly prevented from running down a woman and small child and perhaps seriously injuring them by the presence of mind of Steelton, Middletown & Friends.

STEELTON COMPANY MAY BUILD MILL AT LEBANON

Steelton people are interested in a story from Lebanon this morning to the effect that a new iron industry will locate there. A Lebanon dispatch says: "The Pennsylvania Steel Company, which operated the large twin turnpike plant at North Lebanon, will probably establish a mill foundry in connection with the place."

STEELTON CHURCHES

First Reformed.—The Rev. Charles A. Hackett, 10 a. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 10 a. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.

WILSON'S SHIPS PLAN CAUCUS TO GET BALKY DEMOCRATS IN LINE

Washington, D. C., July 18.—The fight over the confirmation of Thomas D. Jones, of Chicago, President Wilson's nominee for the Federal Reserve Board, was in status quo to-day in the Senate.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

BURY RECTOR'S MOTHER Attended by the members of the family, the funeral services for Mrs. W. G. Appleton, who was killed by the explosion of the dynamite at 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, were held at noon at the Chapel of the Intercession in New York city.

FOREMAN SAYS WORKMEN OVERCOME WERE UNDER INFLUENCE OF LIQUOR

Two more men were overcome last night while at work in the sewer trench being built by the T. L. Eyre Company. They were E. M. Jacoby, 607 South Front street, and another workman whose name could not be learned.

TOWN STORM SWEEPED INTO RIVER APPEALS FOR AID

York, Pa., July 18.—With all means of approach cut off to vehicles, residents of Long Level and Bull Run are asking for State aid in repairing the extensive damage done in that section by the storm of last Wednesday, when approximately $100,000 damage was done to roads and property.

STEELTON MIDDLETOWN & FRIENDS SAVE WOMAN AND CHILD FROM RUNAWAY

Dashing madly down the main business street of Middletown yesterday afternoon a runaway team owned by E. C. Garman, proprietor of the Middletown Steam Laundry, was narrowly prevented from running down a woman and small child and perhaps seriously injuring them by the presence of mind of Steelton, Middletown & Friends.

STEELTON COMPANY MAY BUILD MILL AT LEBANON

Steelton people are interested in a story from Lebanon this morning to the effect that a new iron industry will locate there. A Lebanon dispatch says: "The Pennsylvania Steel Company, which operated the large twin turnpike plant at North Lebanon, will probably establish a mill foundry in connection with the place."

STEELTON CHURCHES

First Reformed.—The Rev. Charles A. Hackett, 10 a. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 10 a. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.

WILSON'S SHIPS PLAN CAUCUS TO GET BALKY DEMOCRATS IN LINE

Washington, D. C., July 18.—The fight over the confirmation of Thomas D. Jones, of Chicago, President Wilson's nominee for the Federal Reserve Board, was in status quo to-day in the Senate.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

BURY RECTOR'S MOTHER Attended by the members of the family, the funeral services for Mrs. W. G. Appleton, who was killed by the explosion of the dynamite at 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, were held at noon at the Chapel of the Intercession in New York city.

FOREMAN SAYS WORKMEN OVERCOME WERE UNDER INFLUENCE OF LIQUOR

Two more men were overcome last night while at work in the sewer trench being built by the T. L. Eyre Company. They were E. M. Jacoby, 607 South Front street, and another workman whose name could not be learned.

TOWN STORM SWEEPED INTO RIVER APPEALS FOR AID

York, Pa., July 18.—With all means of approach cut off to vehicles, residents of Long Level and Bull Run are asking for State aid in repairing the extensive damage done in that section by the storm of last Wednesday, when approximately $100,000 damage was done to roads and property.

AGED MAN DIES

Levi Williams, aged 82, of 1427 North Fourth street, died yesterday afternoon at the Harrisburg hospital following a long illness. The body was taken to Paddleton, York county, by Undertaker T. H. Mauk and Son for burial.

YOUTH DIES

Charles Yinger, Jr., aged 17 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yinger, 2019 North Fifth street, died yesterday afternoon at the home of the parents. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be made in the East Harrisburg Cemetery.

STEELTON MIDDLETOWN & FRIENDS SAVE WOMAN AND CHILD FROM RUNAWAY

Dashing madly down the main business street of Middletown yesterday afternoon a runaway team owned by E. C. Garman, proprietor of the Middletown Steam Laundry, was narrowly prevented from running down a woman and small child and perhaps seriously injuring them by the presence of mind of Steelton, Middletown & Friends.

STEELTON COMPANY MAY BUILD MILL AT LEBANON

Steelton people are interested in a story from Lebanon this morning to the effect that a new iron industry will locate there. A Lebanon dispatch says: "The Pennsylvania Steel Company, which operated the large twin turnpike plant at North Lebanon, will probably establish a mill foundry in connection with the place."

STEELTON CHURCHES

First Reformed.—The Rev. Charles A. Hackett, 10 a. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 10 a. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.

WILSON'S SHIPS PLAN CAUCUS TO GET BALKY DEMOCRATS IN LINE

Washington, D. C., July 18.—The fight over the confirmation of Thomas D. Jones, of Chicago, President Wilson's nominee for the Federal Reserve Board, was in status quo to-day in the Senate.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

BURY RECTOR'S MOTHER Attended by the members of the family, the funeral services for Mrs. W. G. Appleton, who was killed by the explosion of the dynamite at 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, were held at noon at the Chapel of the Intercession in New York city.

FOREMAN SAYS WORKMEN OVERCOME WERE UNDER INFLUENCE OF LIQUOR

Two more men were overcome last night while at work in the sewer trench being built by the T. L. Eyre Company. They were E. M. Jacoby, 607 South Front street, and another workman whose name could not be learned.

TOWN STORM SWEEPED INTO RIVER APPEALS FOR AID

York, Pa., July 18.—With all means of approach cut off to vehicles, residents of Long Level and Bull Run are asking for State aid in repairing the extensive damage done in that section by the storm of last Wednesday, when approximately $100,000 damage was done to roads and property.

AGED MAN DIES

Levi Williams, aged 82, of 1427 North Fourth street, died yesterday afternoon at the Harrisburg hospital following a long illness. The body was taken to Paddleton, York county, by Undertaker T. H. Mauk and Son for burial.

YOUTH DIES

Charles Yinger, Jr., aged 17 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yinger, 2019 North Fifth street, died yesterday afternoon at the home of the parents. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be made in the East Harrisburg Cemetery.

STEELTON MIDDLETOWN & FRIENDS SAVE WOMAN AND CHILD FROM RUNAWAY

Dashing madly down the main business street of Middletown yesterday afternoon a runaway team owned by E. C. Garman, proprietor of the Middletown Steam Laundry, was narrowly prevented from running down a woman and small child and perhaps seriously injuring them by the presence of mind of Steelton, Middletown & Friends.

STEELTON COMPANY MAY BUILD MILL AT LEBANON

Steelton people are interested in a story from Lebanon this morning to the effect that a new iron industry will locate there. A Lebanon dispatch says: "The Pennsylvania Steel Company, which operated the large twin turnpike plant at North Lebanon, will probably establish a mill foundry in connection with the place."

STEELTON CHURCHES

First Reformed.—The Rev. Charles A. Hackett, 10 a. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 10 a. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.

WILSON'S SHIPS PLAN CAUCUS TO GET BALKY DEMOCRATS IN LINE

Washington, D. C., July 18.—The fight over the confirmation of Thomas D. Jones, of Chicago, President Wilson's nominee for the Federal Reserve Board, was in status quo to-day in the Senate.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

BURY RECTOR'S MOTHER Attended by the members of the family, the funeral services for Mrs. W. G. Appleton, who was killed by the explosion of the dynamite at 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, were held at noon at the Chapel of the Intercession in New York city.

FOREMAN SAYS WORKMEN OVERCOME WERE UNDER INFLUENCE OF LIQUOR

Two more men were overcome last night while at work in the sewer trench being built by the T. L. Eyre Company. They were E. M. Jacoby, 607 South Front street, and another workman whose name could not be learned.

TOWN STORM SWEEPED INTO RIVER APPEALS FOR AID

York, Pa., July 18.—With all means of approach cut off to vehicles, residents of Long Level and Bull Run are asking for State aid in repairing the extensive damage done in that section by the storm of last Wednesday, when approximately $100,000 damage was done to roads and property.

AGED MAN DIES

Levi Williams, aged 82, of 1427 North Fourth street, died yesterday afternoon at the Harrisburg hospital following a long illness. The body was taken to Paddleton, York county, by Undertaker T. H. Mauk and Son for burial.

YOUTH DIES

Charles Yinger, Jr., aged 17 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yinger, 2019 North Fifth street, died yesterday afternoon at the home of the parents. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be made in the East Harrisburg Cemetery.

STEELTON MIDDLETOWN & FRIENDS SAVE WOMAN AND CHILD FROM RUNAWAY

Dashing madly down the main business street of Middletown yesterday afternoon a runaway team owned by E. C. Garman, proprietor of the Middletown Steam Laundry, was narrowly prevented from running down a woman and small child and perhaps seriously injuring them by the presence of mind of Steelton, Middletown & Friends.

STEELTON COMPANY MAY BUILD MILL AT LEBANON

Steelton people are interested in a story from Lebanon this morning to the effect that a new iron industry will locate there. A Lebanon dispatch says: "The Pennsylvania Steel Company, which operated the large twin turnpike plant at North Lebanon, will probably establish a mill foundry in connection with the place."

STEELTON CHURCHES

First Reformed.—The Rev. Charles A. Hackett, 10 a. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 10 a. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.

WILSON'S SHIPS PLAN CAUCUS TO GET BALKY DEMOCRATS IN LINE

Washington, D. C., July 18.—The fight over the confirmation of Thomas D. Jones, of Chicago, President Wilson's nominee for the Federal Reserve Board, was in status quo to-day in the Senate.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

BURY RECTOR'S MOTHER Attended by the members of the family, the funeral services for Mrs. W. G. Appleton, who was killed by the explosion of the dynamite at 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, were held at noon at the Chapel of the Intercession in New York city.

FOREMAN SAYS WORKMEN OVERCOME WERE UNDER INFLUENCE OF LIQUOR

Two more men were overcome last night while at work in the sewer trench being built by the T. L. Eyre Company. They were E. M. Jacoby, 607 South Front street, and another workman whose name could not be learned.

TOWN STORM SWEEPED INTO RIVER APPEALS FOR AID

York, Pa., July 18.—With all means of approach cut off to vehicles, residents of Long Level and Bull Run are asking for State aid in repairing the extensive damage done in that section by the storm of last Wednesday, when approximately $100,000 damage was done to roads and property.

AGED MAN DIES

Levi Williams, aged 82, of 1427 North Fourth street, died yesterday afternoon at the Harrisburg hospital following a long illness. The body was taken to Paddleton, York county, by Undertaker T. H. Mauk and Son for burial.

YOUTH DIES

Charles Yinger, Jr., aged 17 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yinger, 2019 North Fifth street, died yesterday afternoon at the home of the parents. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be made in the East Harrisburg Cemetery.

STEELTON MIDDLETOWN & FRIENDS SAVE WOMAN AND CHILD FROM RUNAWAY

Dashing madly down the main business street of Middletown yesterday afternoon a runaway team owned by E. C. Garman, proprietor of the Middletown Steam Laundry, was narrowly prevented from running down a woman and small child and perhaps seriously injuring them by the presence of mind of Steelton, Middletown & Friends.

STEELTON COMPANY MAY BUILD MILL AT LEBANON

Steelton people are interested in a story from Lebanon this morning to the effect that a new iron industry will locate there. A Lebanon dispatch says: "The Pennsylvania Steel Company, which operated the large twin turnpike plant at North Lebanon, will probably establish a mill foundry in connection with the place."

STEELTON CHURCHES

First Reformed.—The Rev. Charles A. Hackett, 10 a. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 10 a. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.; The Disciples of Christ, 7:30 p. m.

WILSON'S SHIPS PLAN CAUCUS TO GET BALKY DEMOCRATS IN LINE

Washington, D. C., July 18.—The fight over the confirmation of Thomas D. Jones, of Chicago, President Wilson's nominee for the Federal Reserve Board, was in status quo to-day in the Senate.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

BURY RECTOR'S MOTHER Attended by the members of the family, the funeral services for Mrs. W. G. Appleton, who was killed by the explosion of the dynamite at 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, were held at noon at the Chapel of the Intercession in New York city.

FOREMAN SAYS WORKMEN OVERCOME WERE UNDER INFLUENCE OF LIQUOR

Two more men were overcome last night while at work in the sewer trench being built by the T. L. Eyre Company. They were E. M. Jacoby, 607 South Front street, and another workman whose name could not be learned.

TOWN STORM SWEEPED INTO RIVER APPEALS FOR AID

York, Pa., July 18.—With all means of approach cut off to vehicles, residents of Long Level and Bull Run are asking for State aid in repairing the extensive damage done in that section by the storm of last Wednesday, when approximately $100,000 damage was done to roads and property.

AGED MAN DIES

Levi Williams, aged 82, of 1427 North Fourth street, died yesterday afternoon at the Harrisburg hospital following a long illness. The body was taken to Paddleton, York county, by Undertaker T. H. Mauk and Son for burial.

YOUTH DIES

Charles Yinger, Jr., aged 17 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yinger, 2019 North Fifth street, died yesterday afternoon at the home of the parents. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be made in the East Harrisburg Cemetery.

STEELTON MIDDLETOWN & FRIENDS SAVE WOMAN AND CHILD FROM RUNAWAY

Dashing madly down the main business street of Middletown yesterday afternoon a runaway team owned by E. C. Garman, proprietor of the Middletown Steam Laundry, was narrowly prevented from running down a woman and small child and perhaps seriously injuring them by the presence of mind of Steelton, Middletown & Friends.

STEELTON COMPANY MAY BUILD MILL AT LEBANON

Steelton people are interested in a story from Lebanon this morning to the effect that