TELEGRAPH WINNER IN UPHILL FIGHT

Good Pitching and Fast Fielding Brought Defeat to Mechanicsburg

In an uphill fight the Harrisburg Telegraph team came off victorious at Mechanicsburg Saturday, score 7

Kline pitched a much better game Kline pitched a much better game than the score indicates. Three errors back of him each scored a run. Brilliant fielding on both sides cut off many runs. Deinley, Herman and Paul starred for Mechanicsburg, while Boyd, Scheffer, Boss and Ibach were bright lights for the Telegraph. Mersinger's hitting and daring base running coupled with Ibach's, figured largely in the victory. The score:

"Why are you leaving the country while you are still able to serve her?"

It was answered as follows:

"My departure from the national teritory has no other cause than to leave the new government an ample field for action. I also believe my continuance here would give rise to contify the proceedings of the new government. I declare to the world that, the line of conduct I have always followed had no other object than my heartlest desire for the pacification of the country."

General Huerta dropped his cigared and turned to leave.

Photographers requested the general to leave the car, so that they might take his picture. The old soldier smiled and said his picture had been printed too badly by almost all and that the world already had such a bad impression of him as to make him hesitate to give the American photographers an opportunity of proving just how ugly he was.

All the time, however, General Huerta was moving toward the door. When he reached the car door, he began shaking hands and said:

"When I get to New York some day you shall all dine with me."

Speaking of Accidents!

It is said that lightning never strikes the same place twice.

Be that as it may, we know that accidents sometimes repeat but not with the regularity that distinguishes.

Their quality is not an accident for accidents don't happen regularly for 23 years.
