Keystone Guard Audit Approved.—Attorney B. F. Umbarger, auditor for the receiver for the Keystone Guard, an insolvent beneficial organization, filed his first and partial report in court to-day. The report was approved. It provides for the distribution of $100,000 to about 4,000 persons. There are but two exceptions to the report, the total amount of the claims being $1,300. Attorney Umberger explained to the court that there was a balance of $20,000 left to cover these exceptions, should the court decide the claims should be paid.

Attachment Proceedings Allowed.—Assistant District Attorney Robert. Fox in court to-day was granted an order for attachment proceedings against John Glassbrenner, an employe of the Maclay street shops of the Pennsylvania railroad. Glassbrenner her had failed to comply with a recent rorder of the court to support his minor child.
