A Clean Sweep Sale of All Women's Fancy Silk Parasols Selling Less Than Half Price

Mennonite Preacher Has Fatal Attack at Funeral Lancaster, Pa., July 21.—The Rev. John H. Landis, 82 years old, of East Lampeter, one of the best-known ministers in the Mennonite Church, and possibly the oldest in point of service in this conference, died yesterday morning in a carriage of a funeral coming to Lancaster. He had conducted services at the funeral of Amos L. Kreider, in East Lampeter, and further services were to be held at the Mennonite Church here. A fatal attack of paralysis came while Mr. Landis was conversing with his wife and the Rev. Sanford B. Landis, and he died in a few minutes. Four United States Bank Directors Named Washington, D. C., July 21.—The organization committee to-day made public the names of candidates for director in the federal reserve banks who have already received a majority of the votes of eleven banks in their respective districts and groups. They are: District No. 2, Federal Reserve Bank of New York, Class B, Group 1—H. R. Towne, of New York. District No. 8, Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, Class A, Group 2—F. T. Watts, of St. Louis, Mo. District No. 10, Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City—Class A, Group 3—C. E. Burnham, of Norfolk, Neb.; Class B, Group 3, L. A. Wilson, of El Reno, Okla. NUN BREAKS NECK IN FALL Trenton, N. J., July 21.—Tripping over a rug at the head of a long flight of stairs in the convent building of St. Stanislaus Church, in Randall avenue, here to-night, Sister Mary Veronica fell twenty-five feet to the first floor and broke her neck. She died almost instantly. She was 31 years old and came to Trenton from Shamokin, Pa. THIS STORE SELLS MORE PIANOS Than any other store in the city. It could not do this if the prices were not right and the pianos the best. J. H. Troup Music House, 15 South Market Square.—Advertisement.

Challenger in Danger; Suffragettes' Plotting Special to The Telegraph Plymouth, Eng., July 21.—Warned of a suffragette plot to wreck the Shamrock IV, Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger for the America's Cup, extra dock guards were placed on duty here yesterday to prevent any "furies" reaching the yacht before her departure for the United States. The warning came from officials of the shipyards at Gosport, where two women were apprehended under suspicious circumstances. The challenger for the America's Cup and the steam yacht Erin, which is conveying her, were obliged to seek shelter from an easterly gale in the harbor here. Hassett Boys' Club Out For Camping Trip About a hundred Hassett Club boys started this morning for the scene of a ten days' outing at Bolling Springs ment.

Park. Camp will be pitched at once and for the next ten days the boys will make the woods ring. Athletic events, swimming and boating are going to be the main diversions, according to members of the club. A POOR PIANO Would be hopelessly handicapped on a floor with such pianos as the Chickering, Everett, Hardman and others sold here. J. H. Troup Music House, 15 South Market Square.—Advertisement.
