WEDNESDAY EVENING

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

A few evenings ago f had occasion to walk through Central Park. On almost every bench where the light was shadowed by trees sat a pair of lovers shamelessly. "spooning."

No public exhibition of affection is worthy of the name Love!

No man who loves a girl with real, worth-while, lasting respect tingling his feelings will embrace and fondle her under the sneering eyes of any passing stranger.

The girl who cheapens herself by permitting a man to lavish his embraces upon her while amused or disgusted passers-by hurry away or linger to ridicule the affair is not the sort of girl worthy men seek in matrimony.

Very Active

In the Spring and summer Cupid Seems to be a very active little god. But the little demons of infatuation and flirattion and passion find this an open season for target practice, too.

Girls, beware lest the men for whom you feel a real affection are feeling only the Springtime madness.

A few evenings ago flowout.

The inspector knew his value and had him promoted to the grade of captain. He assigned Kearney to take charge of the homicide squad. The men under Kearney were the pick of the 700 and more detectives of the department.

Kearney started out in his new post with a slate clean, save for one in-scription—the number 60,108. He felt, that he was being cheated every day that the escaped convict enjoyed life outside of Sing Sing's walls.

Gradually Kearney got the affairs of the bureau working to suit him, and he could pause and give some study to the Montgomery matter. His mind turned from the evil corners of the metropolis to the walled city up the Hudson. Time had changed the prison staffs throughout the state. There was a new superintendent of prisons and a new warden at Sing Sing.

Kearney called up the new warden

As the days passed in Sing Sing and the boy was not brought back to his cell Bill found his spirits gradually brightening.

He learned to conform to the prison regulations, and his new course of conduct was not without its good effect. His red disk was gone forever, of course, but he could still win chevrons

Before Baby Arrives

During several weeks of expectancy there is a splendid external embrocation in our "Mother's Friend" in which thousands of women have the most unbounded confidence. They have used it and know. They tell of its wonderful influence to ease the abdominal muscles and how they avoided those dreaded stretching pains that are so much talked about. This safe external application is gently used over the skin to render it amenable to the natural stretching which it undergoes. The myriad of nerve threads just beneath the skin is thus relieved of unnecessary pain-producing causes and great physical relief is the result as expressed by a host of happy mothers who write from personal experience.

mothers who write from personal experience.

It is a subject that all gomen should be familiar with as "Mother's Friend" has been in use many years, has been riven the roots severe tests under most all trying conditions and is recommended by women who to-day are grandmothers and who in their earlier years learned to rely upon this splendid aid to women. "Mother's Friend" is declared by a multitude of women to be just what expectant motherhood requires.

Sunbury Woman Killed When Autos Collide

Special to The Telegraph Selinsgrove, Pa., July 22. -

Selinsgrove, Pa., July 22. — Mrs. Ernest Felton, of Sunbury, was killed and Robert Logan and his wife were seriously hurt yesterday, when an automobile in which they were riding collided with another machine and was overturned. Mrs. Felton was pinioned beneath the wrecked car.

Witnesses to the accident declare that the two automobiles were racing on a road near the camp of the Third Brigade here. The driver of the other car, the identity of which is unknown, is alleged to have attempted to pass the machine occupied by Mrs. Felton and the Logans, which his machine caught a rear wheel of the Logan car and overturned it. The second machine and its occupants disappeared immediately after the accident.
