

REPRESENTATIVES OF IRISH PARTIES FAIL TO REACH SOLUTION

Meeting Today Was Little More Protracted Than Previous Sessions

COMPROMISE IS NOT POSSIBLE

Following Adjournment Premier Asquith Was in Conference With King

By Associated Press London, July 23.—The absence of the hitherto prompt announcement that the "conversations would be resumed to-morrow" at the adjournment of to-day's home rule conference at Buckingham Palace was generally accepted as an indication that there were efforts to find a solution had failed.

OPEN NEW BIDS FOR HAULING FRONT ST. FILL ON AUGUST 1

Commissioner Taylor Re-advertises For Job to Transfer 20,000 Yards of Earth

FROM SECOND ST. SUBWAY

Certified Check With Proposals—Provision For Bend—Council to Act August 4

New bids for hauling the 20,000 cubic yards of earth excavated from the Second street subway to the western river front for "fill" purposes will be opened at 12 o'clock noon, August 3, by City Commissioner M. Harvey Taylor, superintendent of parks and public property.

MORRIS AFRAID DONKEY WILL RUN A VERY BAD THIRD

State Chairman Trying to Get the Democracy's Internal Disturbances Soothed

SECOND RECEIVING DAY

Rows Over Patronage Threaten to Smash Campaign Plans Before They're Started

Democratic State Chairman Roland S. Morris to-day made another effort to overcome the inclination of the Democratic party to run third in the coming State campaign. The State chairman conferred at the Democratic State windmill in Market Square, at hotels and at offices with bosses from a dozen or more counties in an effort to iron out the party troubles due to the primaries.

THE ADMINISTRATION DOVE OF PEACE IN A NEW ROLE

FOREIGN COUNTRIES MAY FORCE WILSON TO RESTORE PEACE

Intervention by U. S. in Haiti and San Domingo Now Appears Possible

FAIL TO HEED WARNINGS

Bryan and Daniels Discuss Plans For Movement of Marines Into Haiti

Washington, D. C., July 23.—Possibility of intervention in Haiti and San Domingo to restore peace continued to-day to be an absorbing topic of discussion in Administration circles. Late official dispatches regarding the situation in the revolutionary torn republic gave but little hope that the contending elements in the two countries would be able to restore order.

HOSTILITIES WILL BE SUSPENDED IN MEXICO WITHIN SEVERAL DAYS

Carranza Will Agree to Plan as Soon as Federal Agent Reaches Him

Washington, D. C., July 23.—A delegate authorized by Carranza to negotiate for terms of peace with General Carranza was due to leave Vera Cruz to-day for Tampico. Within two or three days an armistice suspending hostilities throughout Mexico is expected. Carranza already has notified the State Department he will agree.

CIVIL SUIT TO FORCE SEPARATION OF NEW HAVEN SYSTEM

Case Begun Today Has Actual Connection With Planned Criminal Prosecutions

New York, July 23.—Civil suit to force the separation of the New York New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company from its subsidiary rail, trolley and steamship lines under the Sherman anti-trust act, was laid in the federal court here to-day by Attorney General McReynolds.

BARNES WANTS LIBEL SUIT FILED AGAINST THEODORE ROOSEVELT

Proposed Case Is Outcome of Statement Made by Colonel Last Night

New York, July 23.—Chairman William Barnes, of the Republican State committee, announced to-day that he had instructed his counsel to bring suit for libel against Theodore Roosevelt based upon Colonel Roosevelt's statement of last night attacking Mr. Barnes and endorsing the candidacy of Harvey D. Hinman for the nomination.

PENBROOK STREETS WILL BE LIGHTED WITH ELECTRICITY

Borough Council Decides to Replace Gas by More Modern System

By September 20, 1914, the streets of Penbrook will be lighted by electricity supplied from Harrisburg. For weeks the citizens of the city's nearest thriving borough to the east have been figuring upon a plan to obtain better lighting facilities and at the meeting of the borough council last evening the agreement with the Harrisburg Light and Power Company to light the town was approved.

CAILLAUX CASE IS RESUMED IN PARIS; ROOM IS CROWDED

First Wife of M. Caillaux Is Called to Stand to Testify Today

Paris, July 23.—Judge Louis Albaret's court in the Palace of Justice where Mme. Caillaux, wife of the former premier, is undergoing trial for the murder on March 16 of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Figaro, was as crowded as ever when the fourth hearing started to-day. Many of the people had come to see Joseph Caillaux confronted, according to the practice of the French courts, with the testimony of the first three witnesses to-day concerned the practice of the French courts, with the former Premier Louis Barthou who had been subpoenaed as a witness.

Injured Men Work on Farm in Canal Zone

Work on Farm in Canal Zone

New York, July 23.—James G. Craig, an engineer of the Panama Canal, who returned to Colon yesterday after a vacation in this city, told of a model farm in the canal zone where laborers, who have been injured while at work for the government are cared for.

Prince William Must Quit, Say Insurgents

Insurgents Demand His Departure

Durazzo, Albania, July 23.—A note threatening to destroy the capital of Albania unless Prince William of Wied tendered his abdication of the rulership was handed to-day by the Musulman insurgents to the representatives of the European powers here. The insurgents added that if the warships fired at them they would spare neither the European nor the other inhabitants of the city. The other inhabitants of the city. The only way to avert civil war, they said, as they were determined to have a different form of government.

Discharged Farm Hand Who Shot Woman Ends His Life With Bullet

Woman Shot and Killed

Cotesville, Pa., July 23.—Tyson Dolan, the farm hand who yesterday shot Mrs. Martin, a farmer's wife, when she attempted suicide when closely pursued by a posse in the woods near here, died in the Cotesville Hospital to-day. When asked to be buried Dolan shot himself and cut his throat. Mrs. Martin, who was shot by Dolan in revenge because her husband had discharged him the day before, is improving and will recover.

Prizes For Swatting Most Flies Will Be Awarded August 1

Swatting Contest

Swatters of flies who have been combating the pest during a long and arduous summer will receive their rewards Saturday, August 1, the close of the first period. From that day on the second period will begin, at the close of which prizes similar to those to be given in August will be awarded. The Civic Club's committee will be at the Patriot office, 11 North Market Square, from 9 to 12 on the morning of August 1 to measure the dead flies. Prizes of $5, two of $2.50 and two of $1, making five in all, will be awarded. The fly swatters are hustling as they enter the last lap, using fly-traps and fly-paper as well as all sorts of primitive weapons. Five cents a pint will be paid for defunct flies at the same time that the prize awards are made. Winners of prizes will also be paid by the pint for the dead flies.

Snakes, Tarantulas, Rats, Roaches and Bed Bugs Make Up Cargo

Cargo of Ship

New Orleans, La., July 23.—Four snakes, 18 tarantulas, 70 rats, enough roaches to almost fill a barrel and bedbugs galore formed part of the cargo of a freight vessel sailing tropic seas and which was fumigated here yesterday in connection with the fight against bubonic plague. Two of the snakes were boa-constrictors more than five feet long. The others were of a harmless Central-American variety.

Pair of Swindlers Steal Jewelry Via Old Deaf Mute Game

Jewelry Theft

Swindlers operating in jewelry stores in the city to-day got a gold watch valued at $75 at F. E. Cummings, Fourth street, and several dollars, worth of trinkets at W. Plack's, 23 South Second street. Plack thinks a diamond ring may also be missing. One of the swindlers was about five feet eight and dressed in blue; the other wore gray and was of smaller stature. They operated the deaf and dumb game in the stores, one acting as the other's interpreter, and while clerk or proprietor was taken up with the novelty of the situation, they got away with what they could. A watch and ring were found pawned at a Market street shop by the police, who have not yet traced the pair.

Late News Bulletins

ENGINEER KILLED AT RED BANK

Red Bank, Pa., July 23.—John McMahon, engineer of Driftwood, Pa., was killed and two other trainmen were seriously injured to-day when passenger train 276 on the low grade division of the Pennsylvania railroad left the track at Shannon, near here. Passengers were shaken and cut by flying glass, but none dangerously hurt.

CARRANZA TO BE LENIENT

Victoria, Mexico, July 23.—(Via Laredo, Texas, July 23.—General Carranza to-day advocated leniency in "treatment of the conquered by the victors." His statement was made in a speech at a banquet tendered by Victoria citizens.

HOLT APPOINTED MASTER

New York, July 23.—Judge Hand of the United States District Court, to-day appointed George C. Holt, a former Federal judge, special master to preside at a meeting of the creditors of the H. B. Clafin company to be held here to-morrow. The special master is empowered to determine all questions which may arise such as eligibility of creditors to vote, amount of claims, etc.

WANTS DUNNE ON BENCH

Washington, July 23.—Governor Dunne, of Illinois, was endorsed for the vacancy in the Supreme Court to-day by Senator Lewis, who called on President Wilson. Representative Dickinson, of Missouri, presented a telegram from Governor Major and endorsements from the entire Missouri delegation in Congress and many lawyers in his State, supporting W. W. Graves, of the Missouri Supreme Court.

General Strike of 6,000 Ironworkers Is Called

Ironworkers' Strike

New York, July 23.—A general strike of 6,000 inside iron workers has been called to go into effect next week for the enforcement of a new wage scale and working conditions. The main demands are a nine hour work day, five days in the week, a five hour work day on Saturday, a minimum scale of $20 a week for finishers, $16 for helpers and $12 for apprentices, union agreement and sanitary shops. A committee was appointed to ask the housemiths to take sympathetic action.

Cardinal Gibbons Is 80 Years Old Today

Baltimore, July 23.—Cardinal Gibbons is 80 years old to-day. There was no formal celebration on the anniversary, the Cardinal passing the day at the country home of T. Herbert Shriver, near Westminster, Md., as had been his custom for some years.

Revenue Cutter Bear Goes to Rescue of 22 Men on Wrangel Island

Alaska, July 23.—The revenue cutter Bear, with Captain Robert Brillet, master of the wrecked Stefania, will sail to-day for the Arctic to take off the eighteen white men and four Eskimos of Bartlett's command who are marooned on Wrangel Island, where they sought refuge after the Stefania was crushed in the ice north of Herald Island last winter.

Ex-Sheriff Fletcher's Friends Help Him Observe Birthday

Upwards of 200 friends, including many from out of the city, were guests to-day of J. Rowe Fletcher, ex-Sheriff of Dauphin county, at the bungalow of Colonel John W. Rely, near Fort Hunter.

Crab Supper Will Be Held by West End Republican Club

The West End Republican Club will have a crab supper at the North Third street clubhouse to-morrow evening. The Commonwealth Band will give a concert and there will be other entertainment features. A large turnout of members is expected.

MINE TROUBLES ENDING

Bellevue, Ohio, July 23.—With almost all the mines in Belmont county named in the strike now being concentrated at Guantanamo. With the 400 marines who are to sail from Norfolk, Va., for Guantanamo Saturday, the number of marines now there or on American warships in Haitian and Dominican waters would be increased to more than 900. If necessary, reinforcements could be drawn from the nearly 4,000 marines now in Vera Cruz and Mexican Gulf waters.

ILL OF TYPHOID

James A. Butler, aged 25, of 406 North Fourth street, was admitted to the Harrisburg Hospital this morning suffering from typhoid fever.

THE WEATHER

For Harrisburg and vicinity: Fair to-night and Friday, somewhat warmer to-night; showers to-morrow. For Eastern Pennsylvania: Partly cloudy to-night and Friday, not much change in temperature; light to moderate southwest winds.

General Conditions

A slight disturbance, now central over the Lake Superior region, has caused showers in the last twenty-four hours on both sides of the northern boundary from the Upper Mississippi Valley eastward to New England, the heaviest reported falling in Wisconsin. Showers have occurred also in Southern Florida, Louisiana, Nebraska, Colorado and Western South Dakota.

Temperature: 8 a. m., 70. Sun: Rises, 4:44 a. m.; sets, 7:28 p. m. Moon: First quarter, July 29, 6:51 p. m. River: Stage: 1.5 feet above low water mark.

Yesterday's Weather

Highest temperature, 84. Lowest temperature, 60. Mean temperature, 75. Normal temperature, 75.

Going on a Vacation?

Don't forget to have the Telegraph sent you while you are away and you will have plenty of time to digest its happenings.

Apples and Clams

"Humility never sold any apples," said one of the great apple kings who has built up a world wide business by advertising.