COCKILL PONIES' WINNING STRIDE

Hits With Good Pitching by Fox Stops Reading's Advance

It fell to the lot of Cockill's crew to stop Reading's winning streak yesterday when the Ponies romped home with a victory, score 5 to 2. It was a bitter dose for "Buck" Ramsey who has been losing most of his games the past three weeks. John Fox was in control and kept his hits well scattered.

Harrisburg scored three in the first, when Keyes was safe on Gleason's bad throw, a pass to Cruikshank, Crist's single and a fly by Cockill which Coveleskie dropped. Reading scored in their half on Coveleskie's life on McCarthy's error and Hoffman's single. Cruthers' triple and Gleason's sacrifice fly added one in the second.

Crist's hit, a wild pitch and Gleason's error on Cockill's grounder gave Harrisburg one in the fifth. Whalen's double and McCarthy's single added the final run in the eighth. The score: HARRISBURG
