MAXOTIRE SAVES TIRES
If you could have a double tire to protect your inner tube, then when the outer one was worn you would have no blowout, but the inside casing would protect until the outside one could be replaced with a new one.

Some of the Stough campaign songs will be featured at the program that will be rendered at the mass meeting to be held to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in Market Square Presbyterian Church. The music will be in charge of Prof. Charles Clippinger, chairman of the music committee of the Stough campaign.

To-morrow's mass meeting will be in charge of the committees on men's and women's work. The principal speaker will be Professor F. E. Shambaugh, Wisconsin, county superintendent of schools. The purpose of the session is to complete the plans for co-operation of all the city churches.

Professor Shambaugh, who will also be at the big mass meeting in Market Square Presbyterian Church in the afternoon, will give the principal address at the service in Olivet Presbyterian Church in the morning, which is being conducted under the direction of the "Hazleton Trippers."

Court Orders Man to Undergo an Operation
By Associated Press
Providence, R. I., July 25.—A decree, said to be the first of its kind in this country, has been entered by Judge Stearns, in the Superior Court, ordered R. Leander Rabittall to submit to an operation at once. Rabittall was injured while at work in a worsted mill and under the workman's compensation act was entitled to $6.21 weekly for 500 weeks. After paying the weekly amount for some time he was unable to make further payments on the ground that the employe had refused to submit to a surgical operation that probably would cure him. The court's order the company must pay the expense of the operation.

Rats May Cause Strike of Telephone Operators
By Associated Press
Boston, Mass., July 25.—Feminine fear of mice may result in a strike of telephone operators. The young women of the Dorchester exchange, after a vote taken by their union last night, served notice on the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company that they would leave their switchboard unless the building in which the exchange is located was cleared of rodents. At the meeting some of the girls told of rats and mice scampering about their skirts.

"Pay, Apologize and Surrender," Is New U. S. Foreign Policy Motto
Special to The Telegraph
Washington, D. C., July 25.—Representative Humphrey, Republican, of Washington, in the House yesterday arraigned the foreign policy of the Administration and particularly the proposal to pay Colombia $25,000,000 and to express regret over the incidents leading up to the building of the Panama Canal. He said, in part: "During this Administration a giant banner should be stretched from the White House to the office of the Secretary of State and written thereon in letters large enough for the whole world to read should be these words: 'Our foreign policy: Pay, apologize and surrender.'"

May Organize Order of the Bearded Monks of St. Francis
During the absence of the Rev. D. J. Carey from St. Francis' church, the services of the church are being conducted by the Rev. Benignus Brennan, who is a member of the Order of St. Francis. As a Franciscan monk, Father Brennan wears a beard, as required by the order, and this is considerable of a novelty in local Catholic circles. Father Brennan's illuminating talks are greatly appreciated by the congregation. His style is simple and sincere and his auditors say that he has the knack or gift of expressing much matter in very little time, and putting it so plainly that the youngest can understand. During his stay here Father Brennan has been interesting several of the young men of the church in the formation of an order which, it is understood will be patterned after the Order of St. Francis, to which he belongs. Plans are so tentative in regard to this order, Father Brennan said this morning, that nothing definite can be said as yet, but it is hoped to start the new order here. The Rev. Father Brennan was educated in the University of Ireland at Cork and at Dublin and later took a course in the school of arts and sciences at London. He came to this country several years ago and engaged in missionary work. The order of St. Francis of Assisi was established in 1210. It poses on its followers a life of poverty and devotion.

Society Man to Be Named as Mrs. Bailey's Slayer
Special to The Telegraph
New York, July 25.—A new sensation was sprung yesterday in the mystery surrounding the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey in the office of Dr. Edward Carman at Freeport. It was learned from authoritative sources that the defense of Mrs. Florence Carman, who has been indicted for the killing, will be that the murder was committed by a man prominent in society of southern Long Island. Attorney George M. Levy said yesterday that he had perfected an alibi for Mrs. Carman, and that this would show conclusively that a man fired the shot that killed Mrs. Bailey. The bullet, he said, was intended for Dr. Carman and not for his patient.

Wilkes-Barre Irishman Would Testify in Gaelic
Special to The Telegraph
Wilkes-Barre, Pa., July 25.—When called as a witness in the election contest proceedings of Michael Conway against J. J. Caffrey, of Hanover township, Michael O'Horo, an Irishman, refused to testify in English and insisted that he be permitted to talk in Gaelic. Thomas D. Shea, the examiner, and Richard B. Sheridan and Michael McAniff, counsel, admitted they could not understand the language of their forefathers and endeavored to persuade O'Horo to answer the questions in English. He refused because he said he might get confused. Inasmuch as the stenographer could not take down the answers in Gaelic it was necessary to hold up the hearing until an interpreter was found.

Lackawanna Railroad to Help School Teachers
Special to The Telegraph
Scranton, Pa., July 25.—The Lackawanna Railroad Company came to the rescue of the 600 city teachers who have been waiting patiently for their June salaries, many of them foregoing their vacation trips because of lack of funds. The school treasury is empty, except for a few thousands that sympathetic citizens have contributed in the form of taxes. Collector A. B. Briggs made an appeal for advance payment of taxes, which are due for two months. The Lackawanna this afternoon responded, Colonel R. A. Phillips, general manager of the coal department, announcing that the company would send a check early next week. The company pays approximately $45,000 in school taxes, which with what is already in the treasury, will be ample to make the teachers and other school district employes happy.

WHY FARMERS SHOULD ADVERTISE IN NEWSPAPERS
In the current issue of Farm and Fireside, the national farm paper published at Springfield, Ohio, J. M. Taylor writes a valuable and interesting article telling farmers how to get to the market with their goods. Mr. Taylor goes on, as follows, to show how farmers can use the newspapers: "The cities are full of people who want to buy their goods direct. The country is full of farmers who would gladly sell direct for the sake of the additional profits to be gained by that mode of selling. All that remains is for them to get together. There is no need of an extensive advertising campaign. All that is necessary is a small display advertisement in the newspapers of the nearest large city. And in writing the ad the farmer should not be bashful about having his name easily seen. Let him advertise Smith's potatoes, or Smith's cabbages, or whatever Smith has to sell. Do it in a manner that will leave the impression that Smith is proud of his cabbage, that he knows them to be up to standard and that he personally stands back of them. People will readily buy of a man when he stamps his name on his goods in a manner which shows that he is not afraid to be known as their sponsor. Furthermore, it is good business, for if people buy Smith's cabbages this year and find them good they will clamor for Smith's cabbages next year and be satisfied with no others."
