SATURDAY EVENING,

MISS CORA A. NYE IS BRIDE OF TODAY

Weds John Fleitz Losey in the Fourth Street Church of God

Miss Cora Alice Nye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Nye, of 112 Sylvan Terrace, and John Fleitz Losey, formerly of Wellsboro, Pa., were united in marriage this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock in the Fourth Street Church of Ged by the pastor, the Rev. William N. Yates.

The attractive bride wore a traveling costume of wistaria color with white hat and corsage bouquet of valley lilles and orchids. She was attended by Miss Katharine Smith as maid of honor, who wore a tan suit with stylish black hat and corsage bouquet of white sweet peas. Curtis C. Nye was best man and the ushers included Charles A. Nye, of Cambridge; Henry Fertig, of Lebanon; Harry C. Knouse and Arthur Shaull.

'The wedding marches were played by Professor Swartz and during the ceremony Miss Mary Laverty and William Yates, Jr., softly sang 'O Promise Me.''

The newlyweds held an informal reception at the church, leaving immediately afterward to spend their honeymoon in Northern Pennsylvania. They will go to housekeeping on their return at 1515 Naudain street.

Second street, is Baltimore.

Mrs. Frederick M. Gilbert and her son, Frederick M. Gilbert, Jr., of Paxtang, will leave the first of August for Ventnor, N. J., where they will be the guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Thomas H. Heist, at her cottage there.

Miss Carrie Harvey Dwyer, of 113 Calder street, will spend an August vacation at Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Thomas H. Johnston, of Riverside, left to-day for Rochester, N. Y., to spend a month with her daughter, Mrs. Harry J. Frank.
