The annual election of officers of the Harrisburg Furniture Dealers' Asthe Harrisburg Furniture Dealers' As-sociation was held last evening. Frank R. Downey, manager of Gately & Fitz-gerald Supply Company, was elected as president to succeed Jacob Lowen-gard, of Burns & Co. W. H. Brown, of Brown & Co. was elected to succeed A. W. Moul, of Rothert Company, as secretary and treasurer, and Samuel Kades, of Miller & Kades, was elected to succeed R. R. Downey as vice-president. Since the association was organized two years ago it has progressed in a most gratifying manner, and has been a source of much benefit to its mem-bers during its existence. It is num-bered among Harrisburg's most im-portant business organizations. At last night's meeting it was de-cided to hold the annual pichc of the association at Hershey on August 14. Jacob Lowengard was appointed chairman of the committee on ar-rangements and he promises to the members and their employes a more enjoyable occasion than they have ever had. The trip will be made to Hershey by auto. sociation was held last evening. Frank

Romantic Marriage of Young Couple by Moonlight

Ioung Couple by Moonlight
Waynesboro, Pa., July 29.—Under the darkening bows of a tall pine, close by a splashing mountain casede, with a pale new moon shedding, through a rift in the clouds, a faint sheen of silvery light on plcturesque rocks and lofty crests, was the setting for the nuptials of a young Waynesboro couple Monday evening.
With the only witness the mother of the bridgeroom, and the officiality minister the Rev. Dr. J. Lower Grimm, pastor of the First United Brethren Church, Waynesboro, practically in Church, Waynesboro, practically in the deep shadows of the big tree, romansic, indeed, was the marriage of Harry A. Niedentohl, and Miss 2 Elizabet I. Oeloster, both of Waynesboro. The unique circumstances surport, a desire to have the knot tied without delay. When the young couple mare to Dr. Grimm with a Maryland license he explained that it would be necessary to perform the ceremony in that State—hence the trip across the Mason and Dixon Line.
