ECZEMA COVERED

Disfigured for Time Being. Itching and Burning. Disturbed Rest. Eruption Took Hair Off. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Healed.

Atlantic, Pa.—"The eczema broke out on my little girl's head when but a baby three or four weeks old. It looked at first pimples. It was that way for a day or two and it got worse until top of her head. It disfigured the child for the time being. It was so itchy and burning it disturbed her rest at night. The eruption took her hair off her head and it looked like a piece of raw meat.

"She had the eczema probably four or five weeks when my mother recommended Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I sent and got a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment, applied the Ointment.

Cuticura Ointment, applied the Ointment and used the Soap when I washed her head, and in three weeks the cure was complete and her hair now is beautiful." (Signed Mrs. Howard Dygert, Jan. 1, 1914.

Boy or Girl? Great Question!

This brings to many minds an old and tried family remedy—an external application known as "Mother's Friend." During the period of expectancy it is applied to the abdominal muscles and is designed to soothe the intricate network of nerves involved. In this manner it has such a splendid influence as to justify its use in all cases of coming mother-hood. It has been generally recommended for years and years and those who have used it speak in highest praise of the immense relief it affords. Particularly do these knowing mothers speak of the absence of morning sickness, absence of strain on the ligaments and freedom from those many other distresses which are usually looked forward to with so much concern.

There is no question but what "Mother's Friend." has a marked tendency to relieve the mind and this of itself in addition to the housed. This brings to many minds an old and "Mother's Friend" has a marked tendency to relieve the mind and this of itself in addition to the physical relief has given it a very wide popularity among women. It is absolutely safe to use, renders the skin plable, is penetrating in its nature and is composed of those embrocations best suited to thoroughly lubricate the nerves, muscles, tendons and ligaments involved.

You can obtain "Mother's Friend" at almost any drug store, It is prepared only by Bradfield Regulator Co., 401 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.
