You should make payment at once to CLARENCE A. FISHER, Collector, 612 Seneca Street.

WHOLE SIDE OF HOUSE MUST BE REMOVED

If Order Is Not Obeyed Entire Structure Will Be Torn Down

Emphatic instructions to tear away at once the whole east wall of the apartment house at 603 York street, rear of 602 Forster street, were given to-day by James H. Grove, building inspector. If the order is not complied forthwith then Building Inspector Grove will direct that the whole structure be torn down. Faulty lines in the wall which have been caused either by frost and weather cements or improper construction, are responsible for the collapse, said Inspector Grove. The building is in constant danger of complete collapse. The new house will have to be built from the foundations in conformity with the building regulations. The determination to raze the east wall was arrived at after a meeting of a board of viewers or surveyors to that effect submitted to the building inspector by Edward Blouch, contractor, and Ed. Moeslein, a former building inspector. "We unanimously find," says the report, "that the building is unsafe and dangerous." Building Inspector Grove said the house had been built during Mr. Moeslein's administration. The permit was issued November 24, 1913, and cost $2,000. John Wagner is notified as owner, John J. Lynch, contractor, and W. F. Martin, architect. The structure as I understood was put up prior to my taking office as building inspector," said Mr. Grove, "and Mr. Moeslein, I believe, issued the permit." The building inspector Moeslein did not wish to issue the permit at that time, it is understood, until the contractors agreed to comply with the building regulations. Finally the necessary permission was given and the construction work started. The bulging walls, etc., it is contended by the builders, was caused by the frosts. Since the building was complete, Mr. Grove has refused to let it be occupied.

Not Running "Amuck," Wilson Tells Those Calling in Protest

Washington, D. C., July 30.—Admitting that he did not make any claim that the financial and business problems of the country had been settled by the Democratic party in the wisest way in which they could be settled, President Wilson informed a delegation of business men from Philadelphia and nearby cities that the Wilson administration is not running "amuck." While the delegation received a friendly welcome at the White House, no promises were made that any of the recommendations would be followed. On the one big issue which the delegation laid before the president, the question of empowering the interstate trade commission to advise business men as to the extent to which they might go in mergers and competition, the president flatly rejected the proposals of the delegation.

WHISKY MAKES POOR FARMERS

In issue of Farm and Fireside a contributor, writing under the title, "Booze and Business," tells the following, how whisky makes poor farmers: "About forty miles from me is a great nursery. Some five or six years ago their barn burned with twenty-eight horses in it. The night watchman was drunk and asleep in his room in the barn. He alone was saved by a heroic fireman when they arrived. Not a hair of a horse or a strap of a harness was saved. The barn with all its contents, except the drunken night watchman, was lost in flames and in smoke. The 15th of last November the barn was burned again. Someone returning home about midnight noticed the nursery barn on fire a quarter of a mile away. They turned in the alarm, and the local fire company rushed there with their equipment. And again they found the same old watchman drunk in his room in the barn; so drunk he had not heard the struggles of four horses as they broke loose from their stalls opposite his room. The firemen saved the watchman; everything else was lost, not a hair or a halter was saved. This time thirty horses were burned; four broke loose, but never left the barn; the other twenty-six died with scarcely a struggle, evidently overcome by the smoke before the fire reached them. Booze and Business will not mix. A man who gets drunk should never be given responsibility which involves the life and safety of human beings or dumb animals. It is almost criminal to give him such responsibility."

THREE THOUSAND DOLLARS OF CRISP NOTES WILL REMAIN UNTIL LEGISLATURE MEETS

HAS BEEN HERE 51 YEARS

News of the Day Found About the Departments of the State Government

Three thousand dollars in banknotes have been re-discovered in the safe of the Auditor General's Department and it is probable that the next Legislature will be asked to pass the legislation necessary under the law to put them out of their misery. These notes, which number 3,000, are for $1 each and were printed in 1863. They are dated September 9, 1863, and were printed for the Clearfield county bank, but never claimed. As the State issues bank notes, it has the right to regulate their circulation, it had the notes left on its hands and they have been stored in a safe and discovered regularly. Auditor General A. W. Fowler has ascertained that they are chiefly valuable as relics, but also that he has not the authority to destroy them, because they are State property and can only be disposed of through legislative enactment. They have been taken care of as religiously as the State Treasurer takes care of the cartload or so of bonds and notes held by banks and insurance companies. Too Numerous.—"Orchard owners are commencing to realize that they are crowding each other and that there can be such a thing as too many commercial orchards," said Dr. H. A. Surface, the State Zoologist to-day. "In visiting various counties I have been struck by the number of orchards set out and my mail shows people embarking in the business without knowing what it means. There is danger of too great development in this direction. Marketing is a matter to be considered as much as care of trees and picking fruit. The trouble may be that Pennsylvania's orchards will crowd each other to get to market and lose money." More Road Work.—Preparations are being made to ask for bids for construction of more highways on the State aid plan. The surveys have been made and as soon as county commissioners and township supervisors agree to the plans and estimates bids will be asked for and contracts connect with existing improved highways. New State Bank.—The Citizens' State Bank of Northumberland was incorporated to-day with a capital of $50,000. Prominent residents of the lower end of the county are incorporators. The Agricultural Reports.—The 1913 report of the Department of Agriculture, which got tangled up in the printer's fire, has made its appearance. The report for 1913 is about due, the press work having been completed. Preparing for Exercises.—Forestry Commissioner Conklin is preparing for the commencement exercises for the Mont Alto Academy. Prominent State officials will attend. Making Inspections.—Dr. J. H. Price, chief medical inspector of the Department of Labor is in Reading making inspections of the primary schools, the meeting of the safety committee for such establishments in this city on August 28. Dr. Price will also attend a meeting of the Pennsylvania Agricultural committee in Philadelphia to-morrow. Governor to Leave.—Governor Tener will shortly leave for Massachusetts for his vacation. He will devote his time to sailing and golf, returning for business matters. Corporations Quit.—The Auditor General's Department has charges of 1,000 corporations which have asked for dissolution papers. Some of them are in the oil and coal regions. To Discuss Viaduct.—The Public Service Commission will take up the matter of appointment of cost of the Wilkes-Barre viaduct. This is a case where the city and railroads do not agree. No Reserve Located.—It was stated to-day that there was no foundation for the statement that a game preserve would be located in Carbon county. The State does not own any lands in Carbon. Sunbury Increase.—The Juniata Sand Co., of Sunbury, has filed notice of increase of stock from $10,000 to $50,000.

Moonlight Excursion For Aid of Ball Team

The Station Stars' baseball team of Steelton has planned to hold a series of moonlight excursions throughout the year. The proceeds will go for the aid of the team. The first moonlight excursion planned will be a moonlight excursion on the Susquehanna river from Steelton to Hill Island, Middletown. This will take place on Wednesday evening, August 5. The second will be a dance on a date not yet set.

FAST HORSES TO RUN AT MIDDLETOWN

Much Interest Shown by Owners in Events Scheduled as Feature of Week

Much interest is being manifested in the coming fifteenth annual Middletown fair, which is to be held August 26, 27 and 28. The officers and directors of the Middletown Fair Association upon whose shoulders all the responsibility rests are making every effort to make the fair larger than ever before. As usual, the opening day of the fair, on Tuesday, August 25, will be Children's Day, and all the boys and girls of Middletown and vicinity will be the guests of the association. On that day an elaborate and attractive program will be arranged and a glorious time is promised for the "younger set." On Wednesday the horse racing will start and will continue until the close of the fair on Friday evening. The racing events will be under the direction of the race secretary, W. W. Conklin, who is working hard to bring horses of the highest class to Middletown that week. Among those that have already been secured are those owned by J. C. Packer, of Sunbury. They are Weaver, 2:14, the holder of the Middletown track record; Baby Jerome, 2:13 1/4; Baron Oakley, 2:15 1/4, and Bert Anderson, 2:17 1/2. On Wednesday the week of the fair the management has decided to hold a carnival every night, when many special attractions will be offered. One big attraction each evening during the week will be a pyrotechnic display. The agricultural and horticultural department exhibits, farm and mill products, women's handwork, relics, etc., will be features, as usual.

NEW CELL WINDOWS FOR HALF OF JAIL

Contractor Completes Work of Substituting Modern System on West Side

One-half of the Dauphin county jail is now as well-ventilated as any modern, up-to-date prison of its kind in the country, and to-day work was started on the changing of the other half to make the alterations complete. When work was stopped for the evening yesterday the big gang of men which had been busy for several weeks under the direction of G. W. Ensign, contractor, at replacing the old narrow slit-windows on the western side of the jail with modern four-foot high twenty-inch wide openings, had completed that portion of the job. The scaffolding was promptly removed to the eastern jail-yard, and work on the new style cell-openings, to be substituted by the brand new type, was begun. The housing of the prisoners during the change is accomplished admirably and without inconvenience to visitors or keepers by a scheme worked out by Warden W. W. Caldwell. The windows are placed two at a time, and while this is going on the prisoners in that particular cell double up temporarily with those in an adjoining one. To Advertise for Bids.—County Controller H. W. Gough will likely advertise for bids for the painting of the half-dozen or more bridges in various parts of the county following to-morrow's meeting of the commissioners.

CITY PAYS FOR GARBAGE HAULING

Harrisburg paid its June bill for hauling away the garbage to-day. The amount turned over to the Pennsylvania Reduction Company by City Treasurer O. M. Copelin was $2,666.16. The Police, Treasury and Water Departments also got their pay checks to-day.

REPAIRING RESERVOIR

Repairing the reservoir—Work was begun to-day by a force of men under S. F. Barber, almshouse steward, upon the repairing of the sanitary reservoir on the hill overlooking Spring creek which supplies the water for washing, etc., for the county home. The main basin will be cemented and concreted and sedimentation basins will be installed. The work will be completed by the end of the month.

OLIVES AS AN AMERICAN CROP

Some astonishing evidence has recently come from our own arid Southwest. About twenty years ago there were some olive plantations made on irrigated lands in districts that may properly be called desert. After the orchards were established, a failure of the irrigation supply led to abandonment. The cottonwood shade trees and the other fruit trees perished, but the olive has lived and thrived for a number of years on the natural rainfall of 8.11 inches per year at Palm Springs, California. These trees have lived in a veritable flood in comparison with a grove that was abandoned at Palm Springs, Cal., in 1906. This place lies in the Colorado Desert to the east of the San Jacinto Mountains. The annual precipitation "is a scant 3 1/2 inches, with a total of only 6.70 inches for 1905, and a maximum of 9.38 inches for 1905." The 6.70-inch rainfall of 1903 fell in March. It was followed by twelve rainless months and preceded by ten months with a total of 1.69 in November and December, making twenty-three months, including two desert summers with a total rainfall of 2.10 inches. "Scant as this rainfall is, it has produced a fine grove of olives, many of which are now in full bearing. During the six summer months, when a temperature of 100 degrees Fahrenheit is reached almost daily, the olives are not collected here, but any vegetation should be able to pass through this terrible ordeal of heat and drought seems beyond belief to one accustomed to the plant growths of regions having abundant rainfall; yet many species of shrubs and three species of trees are native in these hot sands."—Professor J. Russell Smith, in Harper's magazine for May.

TU-BO-LAX

Relieves CONSTIPATION

"ON TIME"

2 MINUTES

THE NEW WAY

A LAXATIVE OINTMENT IN A COLLAPSIBLE TUBE

Easily Applied—Instant Relief. Don't take Pills. Don't take Castor Oil. Don't take Laxative Waters. Don't take Salts. Don't use Suppositories. Don't ruin your Stomach with Purgatives. Several applications in this tube, 25c.

CONSTIPATION--

The National Ailment

Engineers, Firemen, Policemen, Lawyers, Judges, Conductors, Motormen, Bank Clerks, and all other whose duties require close attention use TU-BO-LAX, as it meets their convenience instead of forcing them to leave their posts at inopportune times. Physicians and nurses will at once concede that constipation is the parent of most ailments. One of the first remedies he prescribes in 90 per cent of all ailments is a cathartic of some sort. Herefore, physicians have largely depended upon purgatives, suppositories or injections.

TU-BO-LAX comes as a helping friend to physicians, and a blessing to humanity. It is quite as important as the discovery of anaesthetics. It is immediate in its action, and beneficial in its effect. It may be administered to an infant, an invalid or strong person without the slightest inconvenience or debilitating effect. TU-BO-LAX is, in fact, a school teacher to the bowels. It teaches them to act regularly. The merits of TU-BO-LAX at once appeal to the physician, and it is destined to soon find its way into all hospitals and sick rooms. No traveler should start on a journey without a tube of TU-BO-LAX. Every mother should have TU-BO-LAX in the house, ready for an emergency. We shall be surprised if TU-BO-LAX does not become a standard remedy in the army and navy. Doctors who have tested TU-BO-LAX are loud in its praise, and are giving it their heartiest support. TU-BO-LAX empties the lower bowel without disturbing the functions of any organ. Castor oil, salts, purgative waters and drastic cathartics must soon give place to this remedial agent. It is clean, convenient and harmless. If you are constipated—try TU-BO-LAX, and in 2 MINUTES you will be grateful for this advice. You will have no more use for Cathartics. It gives you one complete evacuation, and avoids the weakening effect of Cathartics that may operate a half dozen times, just when it is most inconvenient. All druggists sell it—or upon receipt of 25 cents we will mail you a package.
