FRIDAY EVENING.

What Happened in Yesterday's Major Games

In the double-header between Philadelphia and Chicago yesterday, twenty-one innings were played to decide the series. The first game went to the Phils in the twelfth. The Cubs took the second, 5 to 1. Alexander and bunched hits brought the first answer. In the second the Quakers went to pleces in the field.

Rube Bressler, the former Harrisburger, mowed down the St. Louis Browns, score 4 to 1. The Williams port southpaw was rather stingy with his hits. James and Taylor were punched at integrals.

Mobbing Umpire Sheridan in the ninth inning was a feature of the game at Detroit in which the Tigers routed Washington, score 3 to 2. The offending players were Ainsmith, Morgan and Henry.

Pitther Shore blanked Chicago and won his game for the Boston Americans, score 4 to 0. Schalk was spiked on the right hand early in the game ind was obliged to quit.

LASSIE MCGREGOR WINS IN THE FINAL HEAT

Detroit, Mich., July 31.—Lassie Mc-Gregor, splendidly driven by Tommy Murphy, won the seventh and deciding heat of the merchants and manufacturers' stake yesterday.

Only three horses started in the final. They got awy on even terms, but Linda Wrona broke at the first turn. Cox took a big lead with Peter Scott, while Murphy stayed beside Linda Wona, making little effort to get up.

Linda Wona, making little effort to get up.

When McDevitt's mare found her stride, Lassie McGregor raced her off her feet again and then took after Peter Scott. Half way down the home stretch Murphy was on even terms. Cox placed the whip, but Lassie had the speed and won by a good margin.

Linda Wrona was distanced and so failed to get any part of the prize.

The free-for-all pace, which went to five heats, was won by Flower Direct.
