CONCLUDE REVIVAL AT BRETHREN CHURCH

Evangelist Goes to Maryland; Four Baptized in River Off Island

A revival of two weeks, during which hundreds of persons heard a message of regeneration preached by the Rev. A. L. B. Martin, was conducted this week at the church of the Brethren in Hummel street. The Rev. D. H. Widder, the pastor will resume regular preaching services on Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Martin is a native of Long Beach, California, and has a successful record as an evangelist. He is still in his prime, and expects to continue in evangelistic work. He will preach in Maryland during the next month. During the Rev. Mr. Martin's stay, services were conducted every evening at 7:45, but despite the strain he remained as energetic and forceful to the end.

LINER WILL REMAIN HERE

Hamburg, Germany, July 31.—Beside suspending the sailing from Hamburg of the Imperator it was reported today that the Hamburg-American Line had also ordered the Vaterland to stay at New York and await the developments of the international situation. The Hamburg-American liners, however, will continue the service. Shipping to Baltic ports has been entirely suspended.

SAILING CANCELLED.

London, July 31.—The Hamburg-American Steamship company announces that the sailing of the steamer Emperor from Hamburg today had been cancelled.

FUSION INDICATES FEAR OF DEFEAT

Pittsburgh People Consider That Flinn Is Afraid of Show Down in November

Pittsburgh, July 31.—Talk of fusion between the Democratic and Washington, or Progressive, parties is viewed here in the light of another avowed move by Contractor and ex-Senator "Bill" Flinn, of this city. Flinn has been the one big source of revenue in this state for the Roosevelt remnant. Some few years ago Flinn became obsessed with the idea that Socialism would triumph in this country before his life ended and it was to conserve his contracting gains to his children that Flinn became a Progressive and opened his war chest. He figured that by financing the new party which was promising to reform everything in this year and the party had dwindled to one-tenth of that number Flinn began to look around for a doorpost on which to place the Roosevelt foudrond party.

Finally he hit upon the plan of fusing with the Democrats. That would serve the double purpose of putting the expense of the campaign up to someone else and of hiding the very small vote that his candidates would poll. Flinn went to Philadelphia last week to talk the fusion plan over, but the Washington element there was not an enthusiastic fusion as he is. The one hitch in the proceedings is the fact that the Democrats want what looks to be fair to them when the Democratic primary vote is compared with the Washington vote last year. The Democrats polled a little over 200,000 for Governor and the Roosevelt remnant less than 50,000. On that basis the Democrats naturally want about three-fourths of the offices and Flinn's band are calling them "hogs." That's where actual fusion stands just now.

The most significant thing about Flinn's fusion plan is that it is a confession of the utter weakness of both the Washington and Democratic parties. It is an admission that they know neither of them can beat Martin G. Brumbaugh, the Republican candidate for Governor, and there is no one here willing to stand for a statement that they can do it by combining. Brumbaugh had three opponents and yet his primary vote alone was greater than that of the total of the Washington and Democratic parties. This, combined with his widespread personal popularity and his personal record of unquestioned integrity, make his election the most certain political event that Pennsylvanians have ever had a chance to look forward to. The back to the Republican party movement is in full swing all over the state now and Pittsburghers feel that when Brumbaugh takes the stump and meets the voters face to face his speeches, backed by his wonderful personality, will give the movement the appearance of a stamped and result in an old-fashioned Republican landslide.

Strikers Dynamite Car Near Hazleton

Hazleton, Pa., July 31.—State troopers to-day worked on clues that might lead to the arrest of the parties who late last night dynamited a car of the Lehigh Traction Company as it was passing Drifton on a return trip to Hazleton from Free-lance with a crew that has taken the place of striking hands. The glass on one side of the coach was shattered and a woman passenger fainted. The car was almost lifted from the tracks. This is the sixth dynamiting that has marked the seven-month trolley strike and the second that has happened at Drifton, where an attempt was made several months ago to blow up a bridge.

London, July 31.—It was officially announced here to-day that "conversations" had been resumed between the Russian and Austro-Hungarian Governments.

Hockenbury Again Leads Y. M. C. A. to Success

Butler, Pa., July 31.—The Butler Young Men's Christian Association completed a four days financial campaign last evening, during which time $32,000 was secured. The campaign goal was $30,000 and the money was raised for the purpose of completing the new building and dedicating it free of debt. The dedicatory services will be held Sunday, August 2. E. J. Hockenbury of Harrisburg, field secretary of the State Young Men's Christian Association of Pennsylvania, directed the campaign. Two years ago the Butler association raised $100,000 for the erection of a new building. This new equipment will be one of the finest, not only in Pennsylvania, but in the entire country.

WON $1,000 IN 36 HOURS

Special to The Telegraph Allentown, Pa., July 31.—After reading the war news a few days ago, Stephen D. Emery went to a broker shop and bought 20,000 bushels of wheat. He kept close watch on prices, and decided he would be satisfied with an advance of 8 cents and telephone the broker to sell. Yesterday he walked into the office and cashed in, turning a profit of $1,000, less the brokerage, all within thirty-six hours.

SATELLITE IS SHOWN.

San Jose, Cal., July 31.—Photographs taken with the Crossley Re-lector at the Lick Observatory on several nights from July 21 to July 29 give strongest indications of the existence of a satellite of jupiter, hitherto unrecognized, it became known to-day. It is near the eighth satellite, and is half a magnitude fainter.

PLAN MINE RESCUE MEET

By Associated Press Terre Haute, Ind., July 31.—Under the auspices of the Indiana Bituminous Coal Operators' Association a national first aid and mine rescue meet will be held in Terre Haute, September 12, by a profit of $1,000, less the American Mine Safety Association, it was announced here to-day.
