Russia Must Suspend Mobilization---Germany

Rone, Aug. 1.—The Messagero to-day says that the German ambassador has informed the Italian government that Grmany has sent simultaneous ultimatums to France and Russia.

Th German government in its ultimatum to Russia asked her to suspend her mobilization within 12 hours.

In the demand sent by Germany to France the Government at Berlin requests France to inform it within 18 hours the there in case of war between Germany and Russia, France would remain neutral.

The German ambassador to Italy to-day also asked to be informed as to Italy's attitude in the event of war between Germany and Austria-Hungary on the one side and Russia and France on the other.

The Marquis Di San Giuliano, the Italian foreign minister, said he would reserve his reply until he had consulted Premits Salandra.

The Marquis Di San Gullano, the Italian foreign minister, said he would reserve his reply until he had consulted Premit Salandra.

The Messagero declares that as it is not a question of a defensive war on the part of Germany and Austria-Hungey, the other two members of the triple alliance, Italy has decided to confine herself to pointing out to her allies hat her treaty obligations with them do not oblige her to take up arms in the present crisis and that she will remain neutral. The newspaper adds that it is not certain this neutrality will last until the end of the war, but Italy ill stand aloof from hostilities as long as she is convinced that their interests are not being infringed.

A official communication published to-day in the North German Gazette says the Russian Emperor on July 29, telegraphed to Emperor William urgently requesting him to help in averting the misfortune of a European war and to try totestrain his ally Austria-Hungary from going too far.

Happeror William replied that he would willingly take up the task of mediator and accordingly diplomatic actionwas initiated in Vienna.

While this was in progress the news Russia was mobilizing reached Berlin and Emperor William telegraphed to the communication adds that a decision was to hayangered if not made impossible, the Epperor of Russian that his role as mediator was ende been taken in Vienna to-day in regard to repard to the mediator proposals in which Great Britain had Joined Germany, but that meanwhile Russia had ordered the full mobilization of her forces.

Representatives of Big Institutions Hold Secret Meeting in Morgan Offices

By Associated Press

New York Aug. 1.—With the stock markets still closed, the financial district marked time to-day, while word was awaited of the decision of the European powers for peace or war.
Wall Street was almost as busily engaged as under normal conditions.

Stock Exchange brokers and an army of engloses came to their offices in larger number than is usual on Saturday in midsummer, although they knew that the Exchange would not be opened to-day.

At the office of J. P. Morgan & Co., representatives of some of the largest financial institutions in New York and Philadelphia met to-day. The meeting was behind closed doors and no information was obtainable as to what them here and draw gold in payment. Nevertheless, further engagements of sold were announced to-day. London took $600,000 and $3,850,000. Large amounts of coin were withdrawn from the clearinghouse vaults by banks which contemplate making shipments next week. Another $30,000,000 of gold was on the way from the Philadelphia mint to the subtreasury here.

Gold Export Taken Up

The extent to which the gold erport movement would continue was one of the most important questions of the financial district at this juncture. Gold shipments to Europe are now so ex-
