Applications Here For Naturalization Papers

Uncle Sam will have plenty of chance to take many a son of the Dual Empire, the Balkans, the Russian Bear or even of France and Germany before the European crisis is history if the records to date at the local office of the federal district naturalization court may serve as a criterion.

To date, acording to Frank Snodgrass, deputy prothonotary of the federal court, at least seventy-five applications for naturalization have been within the last few days.

Ninety power department officials, of the Philadelphia Division, are home from Altoona, where they have been within the last few day and the court and this means that the later applicants cannot be considered at the Sptember session, probably not until February.

"The developments in Europe certainly have affected naturalizations," said Mr. Snodgrass to-day. "The rush to take out citizenship papers here has been unusually heavy, especially during the last few days, when it became generally known that the calls to the colors were being sent out.
