AUGUST BUYERS' SALE

There is always one sales event in the life of every store that stands out with greater prominence than any other. But that occasion must be one in which every department head is anxious to put on trial all of the mental and physical equipment which he possesses. The August Buyers' Sale is the one event in this store's life that carries a message of rare importance. It marks the winding up of the Summer season, and the complete disposal of all Summer merchandise. Consequently, several hundred thousand dollars' worth of goods will be sold at a mere fraction of former prices. We believe that each one of our buyers will have your unqualified endorsement in the good things they will offer, beginning tomorrow, in their Annual August Buyers' Sale.

Can You Be on Hand Early To-morrow for These Exceptional White Goods Savings?

When these fresh, good-looking white dress things came into the store it seemed almost incredible that they could be sold for so little, but the white goods man explained that they were the last of this or that mill's stock, so they came to him at "last lot" prices.
