TENNIS CLUBHOUSE BIDS TOO HIGH IN TAYLOR'S OPINION

Enthusiasts Looking Forward to a New Building at Reservoir May Be Doomed to Disappointment

Harrisburg's hundreds of tennis enthusiasts who have been looking forward with faith and hope to the erection of a little clubhouse equipped with lockers and baths overlooking the upper tier courts at Reservoir may be doomed to disappointment after all, unless—
Some other contractor comes forward with a better bid for the work.
Only two bids were received Saturday at noon when M. Harvey Taylor, commissioner of parks and public property, opened the proposals for the tennis clubhouse and the new shelter pavilion on the slopes of Cherry Hill. J. A. McKelvey was low bidder on both buildings. Each bidder by the way, offered prices on construction alone and on construction and painting. McKelvey's figures were: Shelter pavilion, Cherry Hill, construction, $1,054; construction and painting, 1,184; tennis clubhouse, construction, $835; construction and painting, $895.
Charles H. Miller was the other bidder. His figures were: Cherry Hill shelter pavilion, construction, $1,949.50; construction and painting, $2,199.50; tennis clubhouse, construction, $1,912; construction and painting, $2,042.50.
Commissioner Taylor said he hasn't decided just what he will do about the awards but intimated that the chances are that new bids will be asked for the tennis clubhouse as this is considered too high. The contract for the Cherry Hill shelter pavilion may be awarded to McKelvey. These awards do not need to be submitted to Council for approval.
The Cherry Hill pavilion will be a structure sixty by thirty feet while the tennis clubhouse is to be thirty by twenty feet.

THREE NEARLY DROWN WHEN BOAT UPSETS

Local Youths Rescued After Fight For Life in Waters Near Dauphin

Three Harrisburg youths yesterday had a narrow escape from drowning in the Susquehanna river above Dauphin.
There were Charles Warner, 519 Muench street; John Loban, 622 Muench street, and Chandler McKell, 1510 Green street.
The three young men were sailing in a small boat opposite the Bidawee and Waldheim cottage above Dauphin about 200 feet from shore, when a sudden gust of wind upset the boat in water above five feet deep. None of the victims are good swimmers and the swift current was rapidly pushing them down into deeper and more dangerous waters below.
The cries of the struggling trio were heard by the cottagers along the river and Joseph Franz, 1701 North Third street, and Edward Richardson, 1423 1/2 Regina street, put out in a boat. All three victims were finally rescued.

CLEARING HOUSE TO ISSUE CERTIFICATES

of the Currency, Charles S. Hamlin and W. P. G. Harding, members of the Federal Reserve Board, who came from Washington with Mr. McAdoo, remained here and were in conference at the sub-treasury during the morning.
More Funds Received
Between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000 emergency currency arrived in New York to-day from Washington and was loaded on twenty trucks to be hauled to the sub-treasury. This announcement was made at the sub-treasury after the Secretary of the Treasury had started back to Washington.
Stock exchange brokers reconciled themselves to-day to the probability of a prolonged suspension of the market of New York. W. C. Van Antwerp, a member of the board of governors, said there was no thought of reopening the exchange in the immediate future. He believed it probable that the exchange would remain closed while the European war was on and said that brokers were trying to re-adjust themselves to the prospect of being idle for several months.
Losses Would Be Great
The financial aspect of the situation, he said, was a serious one. Members of the exchange realized that they would suffer enormous losses should the period of suspension be prolonged, for while receipts in the form of commissions on stock exchange transactions would be cut off, expenses go on as usual.
In the cases of some of the larger stock exchange firms these expenses run up to $800 and $1,000 daily.
Although immediate resumption of business is not expected, brokers have hesitated to disorganize their machinery by dismissing employees and cutting off private wires, for in case of a sudden reopening of the exchange they would be unable to transact business. Most of the contracts with the telegraph companies for private wires contain a clause permitting the lessees to discontinue the service on given days' notice. Such notice was given to-day by several of the wire houses with the expectation that should business be resumed the wire would be re-engaged.
The general situation has been made

MILLS BUMPED BY WILSON'S TARIFF

A Few Instances of What Is Happening Throughout the State Are Made Plain

A dispatch from Wilkes-Barre to the Philadelphia newspapers says: "The West hosiery mill at Ashley, owned by Ambrose West, has been forced to close because of hard times. One hundred employees were given notice to-day that the plant would remain idle indefinitely. The owner says that since the passage of the Underwood tariff by which foreign manufacturers can compete with American manufacturers, increased imports have affected the trade at home. The employees were mostly girls, many of them having families dependent upon their earnings."
A large number of Philadelphia mills are at a standstill because of the slump due to the tariff and the fear growing out of too much legislation.
"Charles W. Havens, owner of the Mark D. Ring & Co., mills, Third and Somerset streets, this city, does not hesitate to attribute the depression to the Democratic tariff tinkering and its concomitant ills. He also said it was always the history of the Democratic party to disturb business for four years, and then be 'kicked out again' for twenty more."
"There is only one answer to this period of depression," said Mr. Havens, "and that is Wilson, his methods and his plans. Before he was elected his language was all constructive. Since he has been in office his and his party's legislation has been all destructive. As a result of the tariff policy of the Administration a lack of confidence has been born in business circles that will tend to continue the business stagnation."
PARTY TO CAMP OUT
Waynesboro, Pa., Aug. 3.—A party of young men and young girls from Waynesboro will leave to-morrow, Tuesday, for the Potomac river, where they will camp for a week or ten days in the Wayne-Mar clubhouse.

Local Clearing House to Issue No Certificates

When told that clearing house certificates are being issued in New York both Donald McCormick and Al. K. Thomas, president and secretary, respectively, of the Harrisburg Clearing House Association, said that there is no likelihood of such certificates being issued in Harrisburg.
