CHICKS' PITCHERS ARE EASY PICKING

Chabek Chalks Up His Twenty-second Victory; Hits Speedy and Timely

Wilmington, Del., Aug. 6.—Victory came to Harrisburg in the seventh yesterday, score 6 to 2. It was Chabek's twenty-second victory. Cockhill's crew did not show their heels until after the fourth inning. Three Chick pitchers tried to stop Harrisburg's slaughter. Harrisburg now leads by four games.

Harrisburg opened up with one run in the first inning, when Crist walked, advanced on Keyes' out and scored on Cockhill's single. The Chicks evened up the score in the third, when Pearce singled and stole second, scoring on Swallow's single.

In the fifth the Chicks took a one-run lead in much the same manner. Pearce singled and advanced on Morgan's sacrifice, scoring on Swallow's double.

Harrisburg tied the score in the sixth. Crist doubled and scored on Cockhill's single. The Senators sent three across the plate in the sixth. Whalen doubled and advanced on McCarthy's single. He scored on Keyes' single. McCarthy scored on Cotter's error and Chabek, who had walked previously, scored on Cruikshank's single. The sixth Harrisburg run was made in the ninth, when Chabek singled, advanced to third on Keyes' double and scored on Crist's out. The score:

Governor John K. Tener Will Join the Boosters Monday

Other Prominent Officials Will Be on Hand; List of Prizes Will Be Published Saturday

Providing business does not interfere, Governor John K. Tener will attend the Booster Day ball game on Monday. Prominent State, county and city officials will also be present. Aside from its special features, the game is one of importance, in view of the fact that Allentown is one of the strongest contenders for this season's pennant. The game alone ought to attract a record crowd. In the event of rain the big time will be postponed until the following day. Manager Johnny Castle claims he has the fastest men in the Tri-State. He wants his team to win the 100-yard dash. Charlie Miller is looked upon as a fast man for the 150-pound runners. The events to precede the game will furnish an interesting exhibition. Funzo hitting and long-distance throwing promise new records for the Tri-State. Robert F. Free, the secretary of the Sporting Writers' Association, requested to-day that he be notified at once as to the prizes in order that the list of contributors can be published not later than Saturday.

Dig Up Carl Morris to Meet English Heavyweights

The love of the English for battles between giants rather than bouts between clever boxers under 150 pounds has led to the digging up of Carl Morris, "Oklahoma's genial peachy-dern," who is to be shipped to England to meet Bomb Wells and other English heavyweights. There is no surer indication of the English taste than that supplied by the figures on the Ritchie-Welsh bout compared with those on the bout between Collin Bell, a tenth rate Australian and Bomb Wells a few weeks before. The Ritchie-Welsh bout lost $17,000 while the Bell-Wells bout played to a $25,000 house, which was $7,000 more than the gross receipts of the world's lightweight championship battle. Fight promoters figure that the Oklahoma giant should prove a big drawing card in England.

Camp Curtin Wins in Tenth Inning

In a brilliant ten-inning pitchers' battle, Camp Curtin defeated the Delaware A. C. yesterday, score 4 to 1. Shellhamer fanned ten men. The score:

De Lebarre states that during that time he used 675 gallons of gasoline, the cost of which, with oil, totaled $218.
