TENNIS PLAYERS SAY BLACK GOT RAW DEAL

Much Dissatisfaction Over Committee's Defaulting Player at Very End of Tournament

Tennis players throughout Harrisburg were sore all over to-day because the tennis tournament commit-tee yesterday put A. S. Black out of the contest by default. The claim is made that Black is being unjustly treated, and that he and Magee should play off their contest before the finals are played. Magee and McCreath were scheduled for the final event to-

The semifinals in the men's singles were on the program yesterday aft-ernoon with A. S. Black and J. A. ernoon with A. S. Black and J. A. Magee as the contestants. Black was unexpectedly called out of the city, and gave notice to that effect in time to have the match called off. The committee, however, claimed that notice was given to play all matches off before Saturday. Charles E. Dasher, one of the members of the committee, said to-day:

committee, however, claimed that notice was given to play all matches off before Saturday. Charles E. Dasher, one of the members of the committee, said to-day:

"We followed our rules. Black should not have left the city. He and others were told to play off all matches before Saturday in order that the finals could be played to-day. Magee, who lives out of the city, was on hand. He was awarded the match on default of Black because the latter was not on hand to play.

"Magee would not agree to play the match to-day. It would not be fair to have him play two matches in one day. If he won from Black it would mean that he would have to play against a man who was fresh, and would not have been a fair contest to have two matches in one day. Magee followed the rules. The committee could do nothing else. If Magee agrees to play the match with Black to-day and the finals can be put off until next week. I will agree to that arrangement, but I do not think that can be done."

Friends of Black insist that it is not a fair deal; declare that there was really no necessity for playing the finals to-day, as McCreath would have been willing to play the final match next week. It is understood that Black and his friends propose to make a vigorous protest against the action of the committee.

Miss Elizabeth Groff, ladies' singles champion, to-day defended her title against Mrs. C. H. Sauers.

FOR THE GIRL WHO DANCES

FOR THE GIRL WHO DANCES

In the August Woman's Home Companion appears a page entitled "Good Ideas for Girls." Following is a suggestion of substitute for shoe buckles made for the girl who dances:

"The rhinestone or cut-steel buckle which plays such a glittering part in modern footgear is, however, regrettably expensive. An effective and less costly substitute, not o fthe material but o fithe shape, is the rhinestone or steel button. Some of the smartest shoes, especially the walking slipper of patent leather and the evening slipper of patent leather and the evening slipper of black satin, are so ornamented. These buttons can be obtained in the shops in endless variety and their cost is infinitely less than that or buckles; indeed, there will be many a button bag that will yield up a pair of perhaps more of these ship little treasures.

THE DANGEROUS MAN

Ever hear of Walter Camp?
Those of us who have watched and talked football or have even taken a peep at the sporting columns of our daily newspapers certainly know this man. He is considered, especially up New Haven way, as an authority on most everything athletic.

The other, in a general talk on sports, Mr. Camp made a mighty interesting remark that refuses to be passed by without an added word of application.

Said he: "The man in any game who comes back for more after he has been hard hit is always dangerous.

As the office boy would put it: "Mr. Camp 'said something' then."
