Russians have concentrated a considerable army in Finland, thus disposing of German reports of the landing of a German army corps there...

The United States diplomatic officials in Europe have the further task since yesterday of looking after French interests in Austria and Austrian interests in France...

A state-of-war has been proclaimed in the southern provinces of Holland. Russian funds seized in Berlin banks by Germany amounted to $25,000,000.

The German cruisers Goeben and Breslau are still at large in the Mediterranean, according to reports. Germans are said, according to Belgian reports to have lost 2,000 killed, 20,000 wounded and 9,700 prisoners in the recent fighting in Belgium.

England is said by the London Times to have between 500,000 and 600,000 men under arms without the reserves. Aviators are at work constantly on the frontiers of France and Germany endeavoring to observe the concentration of the respective armies.

London, Aug. 11.—12.35 p. m.—The new Admiralty and War Office Information Bureau, established by the British government, started work this morning. Its first announcement was as follows:

"About two German cavalry divisions are in the neighborhood of Tongress, to the north of Liege. Three German army corps are still opposite Liege, and other German troops are reported to be entrenching all along the line of the river Aisne."

"The large German force is moving through the Duchy of Luxembourg and its advance troops are now at the Belgium frontier. German cavalry patrols have been reported near Marchienne and Arlon. Several individual soldiers belonging to German patrols have been captured both in France and Belgium. In all cases they were reported to be short of food for both men and horses and to have made no resistance."

"The British consul general at Shanghai, China, reports that no British vessels have been pursued or molested. A report from The Hague, Holland, states that public nervousness in that country has been allayed since the publication of Great Britain's attitude respecting the neutrality of the Netherlands."

"It is stated that the Germans lost 8,000 killed before Liege but this is unconfirmed. A report states that the principal Liege forts are still holding out although some of the smaller forts have been captured by the Germans. The bombardment of the fortifications by the Germans is proceeding without intermission. On one occasion a fort apparently had been silenced but when German infantry advanced to attack it a hail of bullets was poured into them so suddenly and effectively that they retired with heavy loss."

"The German attackers who are constantly being reinforced displayed great courage. It is stated that 120,000 men of the German army are engaged in the attack of Liege. Refugees from that city describe the conditions as terrible. Many houses have been damaged or burned."

"The Austro-Hungarian advance from Cracow in Austria Galicia toward Kielow in Russian Poland is reported to be in progress. At the same time the Russian troops are said to be advancing from Rovno up the valley of the River Styr toward Lemberg, the Galician capital. The Bulgarian government has demanded a credit of $10,000,000 for mobilization expenses in addition to a previous credit of $30,000,000 for armaments."

Patrolman Held Without Bail on Murder Charge. Robert Scott, the colored policeman who August 1 shot Nathaniel Banks, also colored, was held without bail for court to answer a charge of murder in Alderman Nicholas' court late yesterday afternoon.

Investigate Food Prices. Washington, Aug. 11.—Investigation of whether food prices are being arbitrarily advanced on the pretext that they have been affected by the European war was proposed in two resolutions introduced to-day by Representatives Kelly and Farr, of Pennsylvania. Representative Farr's resolution would direct Secretary Redfield to investigate the advance, particularly in flour.

ORDINANCE FINALLY PASSED FOR REMOVAL OF 'HARDSCRABBLE'

Now Goes to the Mayor For His Signature; to Compensate Property Owners

TENNIS CLUBHOUSE CERTAINTY

Joe Hosten Again Appointed City Dogcatcher; Amend Park Measure

Without a dissenting vote the 'Hardscrabble' ordinance passed Council this afternoon and goes to the Mayor at once for his signature. This measure provides for the opening of Front street from Herr street to Calder street. This section will eventually be added to the River Front Park system. The provisions of the ordinance are as follows:

Again Motion For Smith Lunacy Commission Is Refused by the Court

Judge Kunkel to-day refused a second motion for the appointment of a commission on lunacy on Edward G. Smith, now in jail awaiting trial for the murder of his grandfather. The motion was made by the attorneys for Smith, John Fox Weiss and William H. Ernest. Subsequently the court granted a rule to show cause why a commission should not be appointed under the act of 1874. The first application made by the council for a commission on Smith was refused sometime ago. It was made under the act of 1883. This time the application is made under an older act, that of 1874.

Reform Laws For Which McCormick Begs Have Been Enacted by Republicans

Characteristic abuse of Pennsylvania, a commonwealth free of debt and a leader in constructive conservation work in many departments, is the tenor of the Democratic machine speechmaking, as the following dispatch indicates: Blain, Aug. 9.—In an address before 1,000 or more persons at the Big Blain picnic of farmers and their families at the woods near here yesterday, Vance C. McCormick, Democratic candidate for Governor, alluded to the wave of progress and reform that has swept over the country in the last few years and declared that Pennsylvania had lagged far behind the other progressive commonwealths of the Union in matters of legislation concerning general welfare.

WAR BULLETINS

Washington, Aug. 11.—Neutrality discussions regarding the clearance from American ports of foreign vessels has not effected the steady stream of French reservists pouring into New York with the full cooperation of the consuls throughout the country.

London, Aug. 11, 8.40 A. M.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail Copendence telegrams under yesterday's date that route for provision steamers from Denmark to England has been reopened.

London, Aug. 11, 2.50 A. M.—According to the correspondent at Rome of the 'Morning Post' the relations between Italy and Austria are becoming more strained. Italy has demanded an explanation of the bombardment of the establishment of the Pugliese Company at Antivari, Montenegro, over which the Italian flag floats and in which there were Italians.

London, Aug. 11, 5.05 A. M.—The Admiralty announces permission may now be obtained for the shipment of coal from England and Norway and Italy. This is taken to indicate that there is no danger from foreign warships.

Paris, Aug. 11, via London Aug. 11, 6.22 A. M.—Martial law is being rigorously enforced in this city daily. The authorities are particularly anxious to prevent this escape of import news and frequently take the precaution of tapping telephone wires, which can now be made only in French.

Russians Concentrating Forces at Many Points

Stockholm, Sweden, Aug. 11, via London, 6.20 a. m.—The Swedish steamer Runeberg, which arrived here to-day (Monday) from Aland, Finland, reported that she had not seen a single warship in the Aland Archipelago or anywhere else. Her captain was told that the Russian fleet had not met the German fleet at all, but was waiting in the inner part of the Gulf of Finland for an opportunity to start an action. The Russians are concentrating their troops at all important points along the Gulf of Finland, especially at Ekenas on the north side of the entrance to the Gulf and Svaborg and keeping in reserve a considerable force reported to number 100,000 men.

A pier a mile in length in the harbor of Hango was blown up by mine-blasters. The commander who had been ordered to prepare for the possible destruction of the pier, hanged himself upon discovering that he acted prematurely.

Washington once threw a dollar across the Potomac River—but there are better methods of making a little money go a long way. Thrifty people are readers of newspaper advertising. They do not buy haphazardly. They shop to the best advantage and get the most for their money. See what opportunities the business in to-day's Telegraph holds for you.

Dublin, Ireland, Aug. 11.—It is announced that a distinguished Irish general on the retired list is coming to Ireland on behalf of the British government to consult with the provisional committee of the Nationalists Volunteers and arrange measures of defense.

Paris, Aug. 11, 10.40 A. M.—Detailed instructions were issued by the French minister of war to-day concerning newspaper correspondents accompanying the French armies in the field. Only representatives of the French press who are of French nationality and not subject to military duty, and correspondents of newspapers published in allied countries will be allowed to follow the operations of the armies in the field.

PARTS OF BRITISH VESSEL WASHED UP ON PACIFIC COAST

Indications Are That English Man-of-War Was Destroyed by Germans

LIFE SAVERS MAKE FIND

Brass Plates on the Doors Give Names of Various Rooms on Ship

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 11.—A German man-of-war with three stacks and two military masts was sighted sixteen miles outside the Golden Gate at 10 a. m. to-day. Taken in connection with the finding of wreckage from a British warship last night and to-day, her presence had significance. The description would agree with either the Lelips or the Nürnberg.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 11.—More wreckage from a British vessel, which to-day is established to have been a man-of-war, was cast up by the early flood tide in the Pacific ocean. Two white wooden cabin doors were found bearing brass plates. On one was the legend 'Navigating officer' and on the other 'Gunner.'

Captain Gronbeck, of the South Side Life Saving Station reported finding late last night a large quantity of wreckage on the beach. The wreckage was partially shattered and had the appearance of having been in an explosion.

One of the doors found bore a brass plate with the inscription 'Ship's Library.'

Washington, D. C., Aug. 11.—According to records here the only British ships in the American Pacific waters are the small cruiser Shearwater, the sloop of war Algerine and the cruiser Rainbow. The last report of the Shearwater was on the Lower California coast and the Rainbow departed from San Francisco with coal for a Canadian port last Friday.

The only enemy which might have been in the vicinity was the German protected cruiser Nuremberg, which has been on Mexican duty at Manzanillo, but on July 29 was reported in mid-Pacific near Midway Island, apparently steaming for the German China station. The Montcalm, a French cruiser with Rear Admiral Hugué, was last reported further south in Mexican waters at Acapulco. No news received here to-day served to identify the wreckage cast up near San Francisco.

Belgian Territory Is Well Cleared of Germans

Paris, via London, Aug. 11.—Lieutenant Baron Marschall Von Bieberstein, son of the Baron Marschall Von Bieberstein, who was formerly German ambassador at Constantinople was killed in a fight near Genaville in the French Department of Meurthe-et-Moselle on August 5.

Belgian territory, except just around and to the south of Liege was reported to-day to have been thoroughly cleared of German troops with the exception of some Uhlans who had lost their way.

German Forces Badly in Need of Supplies

London, Aug. 11, 4.55 A. M.—A dispatch to the Times from Charleroi, Belgium, describes the fighting of the Germans as altogether lacking in spirit. Even the officers are suffering from hunger, according to the correspondent, who adds that two German officers of high rank, captured on the French frontier, said they had nothing to eat for three days.
