NISSLEY FUNERAL AT HUMMELSTOWN TODAY

Well-known Bank Cashier and Business Man Buried From His Late Home

Special to The Telegraph
Hummelstown, Pa., Aug. 19.—This afternoon at 2 o'clock the funeral of J. Paul Nissley, was held from his late residence on west Main street, Hummelstown, and was largely attended. The Rev. Robert Bousch, pastor of the local Reformed Church, of which Mr. Nissley was for many years an old active member, and at the time of his death an Elder in the Consistory, conducted the funeral services.

The pall bearers were Allen K. Walton, Robert J. Walton, Dr. W. M. Shull, W. F. Shoemaker, Norman S. Heff, and U. L. Balsbaugh. Burial was made in the Hummelstown Cemetery.

Mr. Nissley's death occurred at Park View Hotel, Bethlehem, N. H., on August 15th, at 9 o'clock p. m., where he had gone to escape the ravages of hay fever from which, together with tuberculosis, he had suffered for many years. The immediate cause of death, however, was valvular disease of the heart. He was the son of John J. and Katharine Uher, Nissley, was born at Hummelstown May 7, 1869, he was graduated from the local High School in the class of 1886 as valedictorian of the class. Since that time he was much interested in the High School Alumni Association, having been its President for a number of years. After a course of study at the Harrisburg Academy, he entered the Hummelstown National Bank, which his father, John J. Nissley, established in 1868. He succeeded his father successively as clerk and teller, and on February 7, 1899, was elected cashier, succeeding his father, who at that time became President upon the death of the former President, Dr. Jacob Shope.

During his active business life, Mr. Nissley found time to engage in many other fields of usefulness. He was a teacher in the Sunday School; Treasurer of the Borough of Hummelstown for many years; an officer of the old State Agricultural Society and Secretary of the Hummelstown Fire Insurance Company since November 7, 1892. He was a member of Deby County No. 49, Jr. O. U. A. M.; Robert Burns Lodge No. 464, F. & A. M.; Harrisburg Consistory; Hermit Commandery of Lebanon, and Rajah Temple of Reading.

Young Man Sucks Snake Wound and Saves Life

Special to The Telegraph
York, Pa., Aug. 19.—Applying his own "first aid" when bitten by a venomous copperhead at McCull's Ferry, Paul A. Reichle, a State College student, residing in York, probably saved his life.

Reichle sat on a board under which the snake lay in hiding and it crawled out and struck him on the left hand. Quickly slicing open the wound, he sucked out as much of the poison as possible, then applied a tourniquet to stop circulation of the blood. Search revealed the snake which had bitten him and another, both of which were killed.

By the time Reichle reached a physician and had the wound cauterized his arm was badly swollen, but now he is out of danger.

Young Couple Home From Honeymoon Trip to Germany

Special to The Telegraph
Mechanicsburg, Pa., Aug. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Eberly received word yesterday of the safe arrival in New York of their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. August Hendriani, after a short honeymoon trip to Germany. The couple sailed on July 18, following their marriage in this place, intending to make a visit of length in Germany with relatives of Mr. Hendriani. Instead, war was declared a few days after their arrival and until this time, no message came to their parents. Except the fact that their return voyage was full of thrilling incidents, coming on the Holland-American liner Nieuw Amsterdam, and flying the Dutch flag, nothing definite is known.

If Your Little Baby Could Talk

It would tell you that it does not want cow's milk that settles into lumps in its little stomach—that makes the long, hot, close days of summer feel like a leaden weight on its little hot head—it would tell you that the still, sultry nights would be easy for it and for you, if it had the food its small stomach could digest.

It would tell you that it likes your breast milk best—it tells you now—as best its little voice can—that at about four months that breast milk is not enough for its growing bones and body.—that it wants something more—as nearly like that breast milk as it can get.

And your mothers and grandmothers knew that what their babies needed was the nearest food to mother's milk.

Begin at the fourth month with one feeding a day—then slowly make it two, then three feedings—until at last your baby will be weaned—and neither you or the baby will know the difference.

NESTLÉ'S is made from the milk of healthy cows kept in sanitary dairies. All the heavy parts of milk are modified, so that the curd is soft and fleecy as in mother's milk. All that your baby needs and the calf doesn't is added. It comes to you in a light can—you add only fresh water. And—there you have NESTLÉ'S on which three generations have grown healthy and strong.

Send this little coupon for a big can of Nestlé's (enough for 12 feedings) and for the latest about Care of Babies by Specialists.
