

"Why Is the Wise Man Wise? Because He Reads and Uses Telegraph Want Ads"

September first spells "moving day" to many Harrisburg families.

Is yours one of them? Where will you move to?

It's time right now to be looking about for the new place if you are to be nicely settled before school opens.

The best way to go about it is to sit right down now and carefully go over the FOR RENT ads in this issue of the Telegraph.

Whether it's to be a flat, terrace, duplex, a single or double house is for you to determine.

The choicest list of vacancies appears on the classified page to-night.

Make up your list by localities, so that you save both time and street car fare.

If you don't find just what you want to-morrow go over the FOR RENTS in to-morrow night's Telegraph and make up another list for the next day.

And when it comes to moving, remember the reliable, careful movers advertise in Telegraph WANT ADS.
