Passage Through East Prussia Quite Open

By Associated Press. St. Petersburg, Aug. 26, via London.

Aug. 27, 6:10 A. M.—A Russian army order prohibits the use of food and forage abandoned by the Germans.

After the capture of Gumbinnen and Insterburg the line which was strongest, the Angerburg line.

The swift Russian movement, together with the crossing of the river Angerapp and the successful northward march toward Neidenburg.

Fort Boyan is now surrounded on all sides and passages through East Prussia consequently quite open.

By Associated Press. Tsing Tau, Aug. 27, 11:50 A. M.

Vice-Admiral Sadakichi Kato, from his flagship, the battleship Suwo, sent a wireless message to Governor Meyer.

The German governor notified Willis R. Peck, American consul at Kiaochow.

REGISTRATION IS IMPORTANT NOW

Voters Should See That They Are Assessed in Order to Vote at the Next Election

Next Wednesday is the last day to be assessed for the general election, November 3.

It is important that all Republican voters and all independents in the city see they are assessed on September 2.

No matter if a voter was registered and enrolled in the Spring; that registration does not count now.

Just at present the most important thing for Republican and independent voters in Harrisburg to remember is to see that they are assessed.

Get Vessels Quickly, Says Herman Ridder

By Herman Ridder. We do not wish to build upon the adversity of others.

But if, in the present self-wrought chaos of European trade we do not take advantage of the present opportunity of rehabilitating our merchant marine we shall fall in a great economic duty which we owe not only to ourselves but to those other peaceful nations of the world.

Remember

It is wise to get rid quickly of ailments of the organs of digestion—of headache, languor, depression of spirits—the troubles for which the best corrective is feed and clothe them. To avail ourselves of this opportunity we must act swiftly. Unless all estimates of the tremendous sacrifices inseparable from modern warfare are in error the very magnitude of the present struggle must be the cause of an early peace.

Tells of Disappearing Flag. There was a day when the American flag in certain parts of the world outnumbered all others.

Germany Will Beat Allies, Says Ridder

By Herman Ridder. "Lies! Vaterland, magst du nicht!" This wonderful line from the German national song bears a deep significance to-day.

translated by saying, "My beloved country, may thou rest secure!" The German national existence had been made the stake in an uncertain war.

Germany will win the war. Determined men ready to make the extreme sacrifice, directed by the master intelligence of highly specialized commanders, make a combination that is well nigh invincible.

Manganese May Soon Be Sent to United States

Steel manufacturers remain non-committal as to the probable effect of the war. A fair amount of foreign business has been placed and more is pending. Home consumers are placing orders in fair volume, notwithstanding the recent advance in price, and if the new levels are maintained for the remainder of the year, operations of steel companies for the last six months will show marked improvement over those of the first half.
