Cockill's Crew Too Anxious to Win and Overlooked Several Good Chances

Good Chances

By "Ump"

Overanxiousness on the part of Cockill's crew lost an eleven inning game for the Harrisburgers at Island Park yesterday. Reading won, score 4 to 2. It was the second time this season that Izzy Hoffman's bunch put chances.

Reading played better ball than Harrisburg. It was the best game Reading has played in three weeks, and was further evidence that Hoffman and his crowd handed Allentown four games in the last series. The lineup that represented Reading yesterday was a regular ball team. John Fox pitched, and had the goods, but the deliveries were not systematic. Fox used his saliva twisters. They were responsible for at least one run in the first. An easy grounder to Fox was not fielded because Fox could not pick up the wet ball. In the final spasm, Izzy Hoffman who could not find the pill during the game, was walked after two strikes and two balls were called on him.

Coaching on the part of Emerson also figured in the loss of one run for Harrisburg when he falled to stop Miller at third. All these mistakes will happen with ball teams. The game was interesting and a fast battle, the eleven innings being played in one hour and twenty-five minutes, a record for the Tri-State.

Reading Played a Good Game Reading put up a brilliant battle, giving Ramsey the best kind of support. Ramsey was hit in one inning: while Fox was touched up in two innings. Reading's stars were Gleason and Cruthers. Whalen, McCarthy, Crukshank and Emerson were moving with good results. Each team had a bunch of sensational plays.

Reading scored two runs in the first inning. Joyce singled by Crist utwisted twind, and went to second on Hopke's out from short to first. Whilen had a chance for a double, but buggled the ball. Covaleski hit to Fox who was unable to get the ball in his fingers, Joyce taking third. Covaleski took second on Hoffman's out at first. Gleason's single scored Joyce and Covaleski.

In the sixth Harrisburg scored two runs and tide up the game. Cruiks-

Kitchener Praises Work of English Soldiers

London, Aug. 27—In his first speech in the House of Lords as Minister of War Earl Kitchener said that British forces in Belgium had been in contact with the Germans for thirty-six hours. He said that the war undoubtedly would strain the forces of the empire and entail sacrifices and intimated the possibility that the war might be long continued.

possibility that the war might be long continued.

"The terms on which I am serving," he said, "are the same as those under which some of the finest portions of our manhood, now so willingly stepping forward to join the colors, are engaging. That is to say, my term of office is for the duration of the war, or for three years if the war should last longer than that.

It has been asked why this period has been limited. It is because if this disastrous war be prolonged, and no one can fortell for a certainty its duration, after three years of war others will take our places and see this matter through."

"Joseph in the Land of Egypt," a beautiful biblical feature film in four parts, will be a special attraction at the Colonial for the remainder of the week in the way of moving pictures. The picture is a Thanhouser feature, with James Cruse and Marguerite Snow playing the leading parts. It is excellently played, true to history, and the scenes are actually laid in the countries depicted. "Joseph in the Land of Egypt" is said to be a work of art in every sense the word implies. New things vaudevillian also come to the Busy Corner to-day.—Advertisement. AT THE COLONIAL
