BRUMBAUGH MEETS THE WORKINGMEN

Crawls Under a Box Car in the Course of It's Swing Around the Industrial Circle

Special to The Telegraph. Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 28.—Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, the Republican nominee for governor, followed up his opening of the fall campaign with a rush yesterday and came back to this city after a swing around the circle in which he demonstrated that he is a campaigner from away back. Senator Penrose spent the day in Greene county, going to the Waynesburg fair where he met hundreds of people in a Democratic stronghold. Dr. Brumbaugh remained in Allegheny county. To-day the Senator started for Harrisburg. Dr. Brumbaugh in rapid succession, as fast as speeding automobiles could carry him, visited the Allegheny County Teachers' Institute in Carnegie Music Hall, the Pitcairn shops, the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company's in East Pittsburgh and the Edgar Thompson works of the Carnegie Steel Company, in Braddock. The candidate, occupying the first of two autos, left the Fort Pitt Hotel at 9 o'clock in the morning, grabbed a 25-cent lunch in a Pitcairn restaurant—wherein the proprietor said he would work his hands calloused striving for the Philadelphia's election—and continued on his way until time to get back to the hotel and catch a train for Huntington. The Brumbaugh party left shortly before 8 o'clock last evening for Huntington, where the candidate to dress a "home-folks" meeting. On his Pittsburgh tour, Dr. Brumbaugh was a guest of J. E. Hindman and J. R. Wylie, both of Wilkensburg, the latter being a candidate for the legislature in the Tenth district. In the party also were J. Kurtz, of Altoona, former District Attorney; J. W. Leach, of Ebensburg, Cambria county, and for part of the time D.

E. Hunehan, of East Pittsburgh. The addresses to the county teachers, which was full of human interest, was, however, devoted absolutely of politics. At Pitcairn the candidate showed his qualities as a "mixer" in a way that first took the breath of those traveling with him. Crawling under a box car, which was being repaired, the candidate started in on a discussion of wearing qualities of different kinds of lumber with the carpenter nailing some planks into position. "You know," he excused himself to his high-collared party, after he finished a talking with the overalled carpenter, "I spent some years in a lumber camp." Some of those following the candidate said they detected an insight into what Dr. Brumbaugh as Governor

Brumbaugh might be when he would climb down into a pit to shake hands with a man turning down flat car wheels. "I know some flat wheels," he volunteered, "I know right well where they are—I can learn something from you." Arriving at the plant of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, in East Pittsburgh, Dr. Brumbaugh met President E. M. Herr, Alexander Taylor, manager of works, but he displayed liveliest interest in J. S. Brumbaugh, superintendent of buildings and equipment, a cousin. "Just worked his way up—self-made. You've got to take off your hat to that kind," the candidate confided to those about him. At the Westinghouse works but a few minutes, the party moved to Braddock, where superintendent C. E. Dinkley, of the Edgar Thompson works, of the Carnegie Steel Company, and others connected with the plant, ptoleated the party through, a trip in which they witnessed the pouring and mixing of many hundred tons of steel to be rolled into steel rails, and inspected the plant's marvelous sanitary arrangements for employees. Dr. Brumbaugh met a number of the employees. At the end Dr. Brumbaugh announced he had enjoyed the day's experience immensely. "I want to meet the voters, as many as possible, personally. I want them to see what sort of a man they are asked to vote for Governor, and then have them judge for themselves."

"JOSEPH IN EGYPT"
More than lovers of Biblical stores will admire "Joseph in the Land of Egypt," the new feature film that came to the Coolidge yesterday, and which will remain the rest of the week. The story of Joseph is one of the most interesting in the Bible, and with a splendid cast of players and gorgeous scenes, the story is as fascinating as any tale of fiction. It is enacted by James Cruise and Marguerite Snow and a notable Thiboutot cast. For the first half of next week the management is announcing the widely discussed George Kleine feature entitled "Spartacus," which they say is the most beautiful and most costly feature they have yet presented at the Busy Corner.—Advertisement.
