London, Sept. 3, 3.20 A. M.—A dispatch to the Telegraph from Copenhagen says that the 30th list of losses suffered in the war is printed in the German press. Commenting on it the statement is made that the losses are very heavy and one instance is given where a whole infantry regiment, which had been stationed at Seaborn is lost.

which had been statistical at Casada. It is lost.

The Mecklenburg grenadiers sustained important losses and it seems the Telegraph says, that more than 20,000 Mecklenburg troops have been

Washington Hears of

London, Sept. 3, 1.40 A. M.—The British people continue to accept with stoicism the lack of news concerning the operations of the British army on the continent. The French official reports throw further light on the operations than those of the British. The French reports say the action on the right northern wing has resulted in checking the Germans for a time. The inference plainly is that the Germans are employing all their force in an enveloping movement against the allies left wing. That that provide the modely.

Accommendation that permanent headquarters for the G. A. R. be established in Weshington was another point in his address. He urged that no change be made in the method of management of the soldiers homes which are scattered throughout the United States.

The present membership was reported as 171,335. During the year the roll was curtailed by the death of 11,-187 soldiers.

Apparently the Germans have abandoned the west of Belgium to pour all their forces toward the road to Paris. Reports that they are preparing to attack Antwerp are not believed here, because there seems to be no dominating strategic reason for such a move. Military experts agree that the Germans are unlikely to waste more than a screening body to prevent a serious Belgian sortie against their line of communication.
