CHICKEN THIEVES IN FRANKLIN COUNTY

Bold Raiders Carry Off Many Fowls From Coops Near Waynesboro

Waynesboro, Pa., Sept. 3.—Chicken thieves have started on an invasion north of Waynesboro, and, so far, have been very successful. In each case the thieves succeeded in carrying away a large number of fine young chickens. J. W. Foreman, residing near Price's Church, has been the heaviest loser of chickens. His chicken house has been entered twice in the past four days and each time between twenty-five and forty were stolen. The thieves took the chickens and then locked the door behind them. Mrs. Foreman discovered her loss yesterday morning when she went out to feed the fowls and, unlocking the door, discovered that there was not a chicken left.

The thieves also visited the chicken house of S. A. Friedley, nearby, and a number of his chickens were carried off. In fact, they would have carried off a bigger hoard had not Mr. Friedley been awakened by the squawking fowls and he emptied the contents of his shotgun at the marauders.

D. W. Brown, Quinonia, also reports the loss of a number of chickens.

PASTOR SPENDS NIGHT IN CHURCH BELFRY

Penbrook Preacher Soaks Roof of Building to Prevent the Spread of Flames

The fire which destroyed the stable, bakery and apartment house of W. H. Wolf on the town square of Penbrook was burning until after 5 o'clock last evening. Throughout the day the members of the Penbrook Fire Company kept a stream playing on the burning heap and finally quenched the flames. The damage to the property will come to $30,000, as stated yesterday by Mr. Wolf, while the tenants will suffer hundreds of dollars of loss.

Two of the families had just moved into the apartments and had furnished their apartments throughout. All of the tenants had narrow escapes from death. Miles Fox and family being the worst in this case. The fire had reached through their apartments to the room in which they were sleeping before they were awakened. With barely time to secure a few articles of clothes they placed their 3-year-old baby in a clothes basket and escaped.

One of the German tenants in the building returned to his room when the building was a mass of flames seeking for a certain red box. He finally secured this and exhibited to the onlookers an accordion. Another woman returned for a canary which had been in the room. The fire companies, including the three from Harrisburg, worked until after 5 o'clock yesterday morning before they had the fire under control. The house of E. K. Lawson, in Main street nearly opposite the fire, caught fire and was extinguished with a hose. In the belfry of the United Brethren Church, the pastor, the Rev. H. M. Miller, spent the night with a hose and buckets of water, soaking the church roof, which had caught in several places.

Shortly after 5 o'clock in the morning several women gathered in the home of Mrs. F. R. Ober and made sandwiches and coffee, which were distributed among the firemen by girls of the town. The local women have received much praise for the manner in which they fought the fire in its early stages.

Mr. Wolf will start rebuilding the place within a short time, as will M. H. Hartman, the grocer. Mr. Hartman's loss will extend into the thousands. A huge supply of grain and hay was among the losses of Mr. Wolf.

Several tenants have already secured other places to live and Miles Fox will move his place of business to Highspire.

A Practically Perfect Preparation.

YEARS of experience have enabled Mr. Fletcher to make Castoria a practically perfect preparation. These years of labor: the amount of money required to introduce its merits to the public; the investment in its manufacture, including the most modern machinery, mean a vast amount of invested capital. It follows that the greatest care is exercised in the selection of each ingredient, and the greatest attention is paid to every detail of its preparation. The result is the practically perfect preparation in the finished product; Fletcher's Castoria.

Herein lies the guarantee of the absolute safety in the use of Fletcher's Castoria for the baby, and the warning against irresponsible makers of imitations and counterfeits. The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher that is printed in black on the wrapper and red on the bottle is the mother's safeguard.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Extracts from Letters by Grateful Parents to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Mrs. J. G. Parman, of Nashville, Tenn., says: "The perfect health of my baby is due to your Castoria—the first and only medicine he has taken. He is never satisfied with one dose, he always cries for more."

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Johnson, of Stevens Point, Wis., say: "When our baby was two weeks old he cried so much we did everything for him, then got some Castoria and he is now strong and fat. We would not be without it, and are very thankful to you."

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS BEARS the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Reasons Why the next time you order "corn flakes" you should specify

Post Toasties

They are perfect flakes—thin as paper—each flake the "sweet meat" of the choicest white corn grown in the Mississippi Valley.

This food comes to you fresh, in sanitary packages, sealed tight, and with an Inside Container to keep contents right.

Post Toasties have a dainty, corn flavour—unusual to common corn flakes—this is due to skillful cooking and toasting, which imprisons the oven-fresh goodness and saves it for your breakfast or lunch—

Toasties are good hot or cold; served with cream and sugar—also fresh fruit in season. To get a special richness of flavour in this distinctly American dish, warm in open oven before serving. Heat unseals this dainty flavour for your appetite. A superb food—always appetizing!
