NO REDUCTION IN WORKING FORCE OF SUSQUEHANNA MILLS

Special to The Telegraph. Northumberland, Pa., Sept. 4.—Contrary to rumors, no reduction in the time or working force of the local silk mill, as well as of the Sunbury mills of the Susquehanna Silk Mill Company is contemplated. Rumors were that because of the war in Europe the supply of raw material on hand is small and that a curtailment of help would follow. W. H. Drum, superintendent of the Sunbury mill denied that any reductions are contemplated. He said there is sufficient raw silk on hand now to warrant the mills running until January 1, 1915, and it is still possible to buy raw silk from China and Japan, which is being done.

PAXTANG PARK

Anyone who enjoys a good singing act with a vein of real mirth provoking humor running through it should take in the show at Paxtang Park this week and see Brown, Delmore and Brown, who introduce themselves as the three singing sailors. This is really one of the best male trios that has been heard at the park this summer. They have excellent voices and their selections are well chosen. The balance of the park bill is made up of four "five-wire" acts that make a great vaudeville show. The concert on Labor Day evening, by the Commonwealth Band, will be the last attraction at the park theater this summer, and will probably prove a great drawing card for the park. No admission fee will be charged for seats in the theater.—Advertisement.

KLAW AND ERLANGER FEATURE AT THE PHOTOPLAY

Another famous Klaw and Erlanger feature, "Woman Against Woman," will be shown at the Photoplay to-day. These specials have become famous for their dramatic action. Along with this will be shown the popular Gilbert M. Anderson, as "Broncho Billy," in "Broncho Billy's Wild Ride," a Western drama. Special Funny John Bunny pictures Friday and Saturday, the Funniest Man in the Land.—Advertisement.

EDWIN H. LEMARE ORGANIST

Panama-Pacific Exposition says: The Angelus is the one best player-piano. See and play the Angelus before you buy. J. H. Troup Music House, 15 South Market Square.—Advertisement.
