LABOR DAY PARADES GREET DRUMBAUGH

Republican Candidate for Governor Hailed as Next Governor in Luzerne County

Penrose in Pittsburgh Receives Notable Reception During Labor Day Parade; For Full Dinner Pail

Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, Republican candidate for Governor, was welcomed by thousands of people on his Labor Day visit to the heart of the anthracite coal field. He was chief speaker at the dedication of the new $50,000 high school building and his patriotic and nonpolitical address at this function was of that high standard of which he is capable. Eight thousand persons were present at Wyoming during the morning to witness a parade and attend the dedicatory services. Dr. Brumbaugh was heartily welcomed and all along the route of the procession he was given ovation after ovation and hailed as the "next Governor of Pennsylvania."

While in Hazleton last night Dr. Brumbaugh made no effort to make politics into his visit. While at Hazleton and Wilkes-Barre he was taken possession of by Republicans. Before a huge crowd in Hazleton last night Dr. Brumbaugh was introduced as the next Governor of the State by Charles L. Wilde, a leading Republican and well-known person here present at a complimentary to the qualifications of the Republican standard bearer, but also lauded the Republican party for its achievements.

Spoke at Hazleton Dr. Brumbaugh declared that "in these times when hundreds of mills throughout this Commonwealth are still, when miles of tracks are covered with empty freight cars and idle engines, we cannot keep our attention from the problem of how to get men to labor at a good wage for every man in the State."

"Many experimenters have come to me in the past few days and endeavored to urge upon me various political and economic theories, but I will return to your well-known path of progress and prosperity and by supporting them and those giving them office to secure a prosperous good which they cannot name."

"For two years now we have had a taste of the new type of rule, and we know that we have no fear that it shall be prolonged."

"We feel confident that the men of this State, men of the thinking citizenship who are in the schools and in the Republican party in order to renew the era of prosperity."

The candidate pledged himself to good roads and the extension of manual training in the schools and to the code he helped to frame. He guaranteed the same quality of service if elected Governor as he has tried to render in his entire lifetime, and appealed for the support of all citizens regardless of party.

Labor Cheers Penrose A dispatch from Pittsburgh says: "The great army of wage-earners in the Pittsburgh industrial district will line up almost solidly for Senator Penrose. This was indicated by a series of demonstrations over his candidacy for re-election at Labor Day celebrations in many ways. The senator attended five gatherings of workmen in Allegheny county, at each of which he was cheered as the leading exponent of protective tariff systems in this country and the man whose continuance in the public service is urgently demanded by the labor and capital of Pennsylvania. Republican leaders declared to-night that the reception accorded Senator Penrose at day seldom had been equaled in the record of any other candidate in Allegheny county."

Parade reviewed the Labor Day parade and as the parade approached the reviewing stand James McKee, of the bricklayers' union and prominent in the parade, who was marshal, rode over to the reviewing stand and after saluting shook hands with the senator. The crowd cheered for Penrose.

In the parade were banners bearing the names of the candidates for a vote for the full pay envelope. "Western Pennsylvania must be busy industrially to be prosperous. Penrose will aid in bringing back prosperity." "Penrose is the man who has sought to keep labor working," and others emphasizing the senior senator's advocacy of protective tariff principles.

There was an outburst from the crowd in front of the reviewing stand over a huge picture of Senator Penrose at the head of the second division of the workingmen passed the stand they cheered for Penrose.

After the parade the senator addressed the crowd. He was preceded by Mayor Armstrong. The mayor was formerly a glassworker and for years has been identified with union labor.

The Slideshow Congressman Palmer went to Crawford and Erie counties yesterday to make speeches and to smooth down the rough spots in the campaign. He succeeded in making two speeches, which were spread broadcast, but not in bringing peace to the party scraps. Erie and Crawford are regarded as certain to go Republican. While Palmer was speaking in the Northwest Vance C. McCormick was struggling to pose as a friend of labor in Armstrong county. He took advantage of Labor Day celebrations to make a speech which caused smiles among those who recall his attitude in regard to municipal labor rates, as well as coal lands and the union label. He scolded as usual.

Dean Lewis spoke at Arnot, Tioga county, with much vigor. He unwittingly gave support to Brumbaugh by urging the voters to scan the personal characters of the candidates for Governor.

German Governor of Belgium Organized the Turkish Army

General von der Goltz, one of the greatest organizers of the German army, has been named general of Belgium by the Kaiser. The little country is now held as a province of Germany. In many public places placards have been nailed up to notify the population they are now German and no longer Belgian subjects.

But General von der Goltz is best known for his work in organizing the Turkish army. He was sent there to make over the indifferent soldiers of Turkey because the Kaiser wished the friendship of the Turks. That army, which is now being mobilized in expectation of war, is gathering on the plans laid down by him. In fact, he has been consulted within the past few days as to the methods.

There was an outburst from the crowd in front of the reviewing stand over a huge picture of Senator Penrose at the head of the second division of the workingmen passed the stand they cheered for Penrose.

After the parade the senator addressed the crowd. He was preceded by Mayor Armstrong. The mayor was formerly a glassworker and for years has been identified with union labor.
