SPANGLES AND SURATT
How to crowd five acts full of clothes into a twenty minutes' sketch! How to compress a Winter Garden of costume and un-costume — with a common of measure! You may say that a good measure! You may say the grant be done. Well, it is done at the Orpheum Theater by the satorially-learned and intensely decorative musical comedy star, Valeska Suratt. There is no gainsaying one sure fact, and it is easily the best thing on the bill—just by sheer eccentricity. It pleases the iaded and unjaded, the hill—just by sheer eccentricity. "UNCLE TOM'S CABIN"
Before the Civil War there was hardly a plantation in the South but booasted a whipping post to which towner's slaves were fastened while being punished with the cruel whip. To faithfully depict the actual scenes in that part of the South with which the story deals, Manager Washburn uses in its production of Stesson's "Uncle Tom's Cabin," which will be shown again today at the Majestic Theater, a whipping post to the Rebellion. Its genuineness cannot be dissuited when one reads the affidavity from the farm-owner, which Manager Washburn always carries, and a copy of which is on file in a Louisiana court of record.—Advertisement.

See the exciting race in an automobile to catch the Continental Express. "Through the Dark," a two-reel picture of a deep dramatic quality that will please Victoria patrons, "Her Last Chance" is a comedy by the Keystone players. Five years later her old sweetheart is elected district attorney. An investigation against crooked brokers is inaugurated and the husband heads the list.
