MRS. ALICE TILGHMAN AND CHILDREN wish to thank their many friends and neighbors for their sympathy and kindness during their bereavement of husband and father, John T. Tilghman.

IN MEMORIAM

IN MEMORIAM
IN sad but loving remembrance of Lydia Forney, who entered into eternal rest September 9, 1913, one year ago to-day.

Heaven retaineth now our treasure
Earth the lonely casket keeps,
And the sunlight loves to linger,
Where our sainted mother sleeps.

THE CHILDREN.

IN loving memory of Sarah B. Beck, who departed this life September 9, 1913.

HER HUSBAND AND FAMILY.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received by the undersigned, at his office, in the Calder Building, Harrisburg, Pa., until 12 o'clock noon, Saturday, September 19, 1914, for hauling earth from Second and Mulberry streets to the river front between Hamilton and Division streets, in accordance with specifications on file in his office, a copy of which may be had upon application.
Each proposal shall be accompanied by a certified check, or bond, approved by the City Solicitor, for the sum of two hundred dollars, and the successful bidder or bidders will be required to file a final bond for 25 per cent. of the contract price.
The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.
M. HARVEY TAYLOR,
Superintendent of Parks and Public Property.

In the District Court of the United States for the Middle District of Pennsylvania — In Bankruptcy, No. 2786 — In the Matter of Andrew Szeim, Bankrupt.
To the creditors of Andrew Szeim, of Harrisburg, in the County of Dauphin, and District aforesaid, a bankrupt.
NOTICE is hereby given that the said bankrupt was duly adjudicated as such on September 8, 1914, and that the first meeting of the creditors will be held at the office of the Referee, No. 7 North Third street, Harrisburg, Pa., at 2 P. M. o'clock, on September 21, 1914, at which time the said creditors may attend, prove their claims, appoint a Trustee, examine the bankrupt and transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting.
JOHN T. OLMSTED,
Referee in Bankruptcy.
September 9, 1914.

NOTICE is hereby given that application will be made to the Governor of Pennsylvania on the 1st day of October, 1914, under the provisions of an Act of Assembly entitled "An Act to Provide for the Incorporation and Regulation of Certain Corporations," approved April 29, 1874, and its supplements, for a charter for an intended corporation to be called C. M. SIGLER, INCORPORATED, the character and object of which is the purchase, sale, exchange, lease and repair of pianos, organs, player pianos, talking machines and musical instruments, and for these purposes to have, possess and enjoy all the rights, benefits and privileges by said Act of Assembly and its supplements conferred.
CHARLES C. STROH,
Solicitor.

"CHILDREN OF THE WEST" AT THE VICTORIA
Miller Bros. 101 Ranch Features present the charming Elsie Albert and the talented Baby Early in a powerful three-part picture play of frontier life at the Victoria to-day. The drama deals with the bravery of the early pioneers, who fought back the Indians and blazed the trail across our Western plains, making it possible for us to build homes from coast to coast and live in peace and quietness. Real Indians take part in this gripping and exciting picture. Pathe Daily News to-day shows 1,000 feet of the world news happenings and includes pictures of the European war.
"Our Mutual Girl" is here to-day in picture No. 33 of that popular series. "The Aftermath," in two parts, completes to-day's offering of strong features.—Advertisement.

Open Shop Goes Into Effect in Butte, Mont.

By Associated Press

Butte, Mont., Sept. 9.—Open shop went into effect to-day in Butte, the home for thirty-six years of the largest union "local" in the Far West. Some ten thousand miners, until recently all members of the Western Federation of Miners, but now divided between that organization and the newly formed Butte Mine Workers' Union, were notified that, from the viewpoint of their employers, it made no difference whether they belonged to either organization or none.

Tablet on House Where First Banner Was Made

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 9.—In connection with the "Star-Spangled Banner" centennial celebration a tablet was unveiled to-day on the house where the original star-spangled banner was made by Mrs. Mary Young Pickersgill.
A memorial to the American privateersmen of the War of 1812 also was unveiled at Fort McHenry. It was erected by the Daughters of America.
Frederick, Md., where Francis Scott Key was born, and where his body was buried, to-day began a five-day celebration in his honor.

Public Sale of Valuable Real Estate

Thursday, September 10, 1914.

All that valuable farm, known as the Michael B. Moyer farm, situate 1 mile east of the famous Hershey Chocolate plant, on the road leading from Derry Church to Palmyra, will be sold by the undersigned on the day and date above named.
The farm contains about 140 acres of good limestone soil in a high state of cultivation, good buildings and good fences; good apple orchard and plenty of well and cistern water.
The buildings are a large 8-room brick dwelling with a large brick summer house adjoining, large bank barn 50x90 feet, stone gables, a large frame wagon shed with cribs and implement shed attached, and a large frame pig sty.
The farm is in the heart of the Hershey milk market and for other markets Hershey and Palmyra are not excelled by the cities. There is market for everything raised on the farm. The macadam roads make marketing a pleasure.
For schools, churches, recreation and pleasure Hershey offers the best that can be had outside of large cities.
Any one desiring a farm with advantages of good soil, fine location, good roads, convenience to church, school and markets can find no better place in Dauphin or Lebanon counties.
Call on the undersigned, Derry Church, Pa.
