TRI-STATE CHAMPS WIN FIRST BATTLE

Harrisburg Plays All Around Elmira at Island Park Yesterday

By "Lump"

Winning from Elmira, New York State League champions, at Island Park yesterday, 3 to 2, Harrisburg, Tri-State champions, put up a major league exhibition. Elmira played some game, too. Sensational battles have been fought frequently in this city, but that of yesterday will go down in history as one of the greatest.

Two star pitchers had the principal argument. It was John Fox against Pat Creager. Fox had the goods, holding Elmira to three scattered hits. Two of the Elmira bingles were scratch. Scoring rules say, in case of doubt on a close play, give the batter the credit. One clean hit to center field, then, would be all Elmira could boast of.

Harrisburg was ragged in the field in the first inning. Then the costly mistakes stopped. The Tri-State champions also hit the ball hard in the opening inning. Then Creager stopped the hitting. Until the finish it was a battle royal. Harrisburg pulled off snappy double plays at critical times and Emerson gave a circus performance in left field with good results. McCarthy and Crikshank were star fielders. Charley Miller was the boy with the timely clout. The umpiring was an interesting feature.

Johnson was Elmira's star. A crowd of 800 witnessed the game. Lou Ritter, whose home is in Harrisburg, was given a warm welcome. To-morrow and Saturday the two teams play at Elmira, and on Sunday on a neutral field.

Elmira scored one run in the first. Hunter was walked. Curtis sacrificed. Crist fell down on Johnson's grounder, putting Hunter on first, and he scored on Ward's sacrifice fly to right field. In the third, Hunter walked, went to second on Curtis' out and scored on Whalen's wild throw to first on Johnson's grounder.

In the first, Keyes walked. Crikshank singled. Keyes was caught off second. Crist walked. Murray doubled, scoring Crikshank. Miller singled, scoring Crist and Murray.

The score:

LOCKWOOD B. WORDEN WITH WESTY HOGAN

Has Good Score in the Opening Events at Atlantic City; Other Local Figures

LOCKWOOD B. WORDEN Harrisburg Shooter Who is With the Westy Hogans at the Seashore.

Special to The Telegraph

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 16.—Crack shots from Harrisburg lined up in the preliminary events in the Westy Hogan shoot yesterday.

Lockwood B. Worden, the Harrisburg amateur shot, arrived in time yesterday to get into the opening events. He won a number first and second honors last year. Worden broke 135 yesterday. Other Harrisburg scores were: Harry B. Shoop, 128; Samuel S. Hoffman, 128; John G. Martin, 134.

E. L. Wilson, of Frenchtown, N. J., topped the list of both amateurs and professionals in the practice events in the opening of the eighth annual tournament of the Westy Hogans.

Wilson surprised with his remarkable score of 116 out of a possible 150 targets, totaled from ten events of fifteen clays each.

J. F. Couts, of San Diego, Cal., took second honors among the "Simon Pures," cracking 144 out of his 150 targets. George Smith, of Wetmore, Kan., finished next in this set.

Homer Clark, of East Alton, Ill., headed the list of professionals. Clark broke 149, just one break below the high amateur mark. H. L. Worthington, of Baltimore, was runner-up here.

Charley Newcomb, of Philadelphia, led this contingent with 141. He opened his first event with two misses out of the fifteen and proved far in arrears of his usual form. Only four perfect events in the entire ten of fifteen blue rocks were recorded.

J. H. Rehrig, of Pottsville, had the high straight run for the day. He went through a string of fifty-two without a miss. Couts won the "bear trap" miss and out" honors for the afternoon, a run of six.

GREATEST OFFER EVER MADE BY THIS NEWSPAPER TO ITS READERS

A History of the World for 7,000 Years

A remarkable announcement appears in the advertising columns of this paper to-day, offering to its readers Larned's History of the World on terms that make it practically a gift. The five volumes which constitute the set are printed from brand new plates in clear type and on an excellent paper. The binding is in the most approved de luxe style, with a rich half-calf effect, and will ornament any library. The publishers of this history have sold many thousands at a price several times the present cost. In the handsome binding, and with the wonderful reproductions of great masterpieces in original colors, the magnificent half-tone full-page illustrations, and with over 150 portraits of famous historical characters, the set would sell by ordinary methods at $12. But the syndicate plan whereby several hundred of the leading newspapers of the country offer the work for the mere cost of distribution, with no profits added, enable them to make what would appear to be almost a gift to their readers. Josephus Nelson Larned, the author, has a world-wide reputation as the author of Larned's History for Ready Reference, a work that is in every library in the land, and which is consulted oftener than any other reference work ever published. His History of the World is his latest work, and he has had the enormous benefit of the years of preparation in compiling that masterpiece. Our generous coupon offer explains the terms upon which the five volumes may be had, and the coupon will be printed daily in this paper.

Stranded With Other Fighters in War Zone

Arthur Peikay, the American boxer who is unable to secure passage for this country on account of the war in Europe and is consequently compelled to remain in England. Other scrappers who are stranded abroad are Tom Kennedy, Tony Ross, Jim Coffey, Young Ahearn, Montana Dan Sullivan and Willie Lewis. None of the men feel particularly cheerful over their plight—excepting perhaps Young Ahearn. Ahearn has been matched to meet Pat O'Keefe, the English middleweight champion for the title in a 20-round bout in London on September 28. If Ahearn wins he will come across with a challenge to Gumboat Smith.

"Girl in Pennsylvania" Song a Local Product

The new Song "There's a Girl in Pennsylvania" is of especial interest to Harrisburgers, from the fact that it is an entire product of local talent and enterprise. The words are by H. H. Hain, a former newspaper man; the music by Herman V. Yeager, musical director of the Orpheum. The title page design was drawn by Leslie C. Miller and executed in the Telegraph art department, and the song is published by The Crescent Company, also of this city.

Where's your old jimmy pipe?

No matter how old it is, no matter how long standing your kick or how much you've misused or abused it, dig out that jimmy pipe! Get it right back on the firing line! Jam in a bunch of Prince Albert and make some fire. What's the answer what's the answer?

Why, it'll just about wise-you-up-some as to why Prince Albert leads the band wherever men smoke pipes or roll their own cigarettes. As makin's, P. A. has the Indian sign on all the fire-brands and chaff-brands. It's the most delightful roll'em cigarette smoke you ever hooked up a match to.

Get the idea now that P. A. throws a jolt into any notion you or any other man ever had about stung, bitten, nipped, broiled tongues! Because Prince Albert can't bite! The bite and throat parch are cut out by a patented process.

And remember, no other tobacco ever was, or is today, in the same class with P. A.

PRINCE ALBERT

gives you a 99-year lease on some real copper-riveted smokings joy. Why, P. A. jammed in a jimmy pipe or rolled into a makin's cigarette is the bulliest you ever pulled on; just puts a punch in your spirit that makes you feel like a spring morning! And you'll hear the birds sing and see the pretty flowers drink their dewdrops! You get that '76 spirit in your system!

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO., Winston-Salem, N. C.

And listen—buy Prince Albert everywhere: in tippy red bags, 5c; tidy red tins, 10c; and also in handsome pound and half-pound humiders, so dandy for the home or the office.
