

DR. BRUMBAUGH'S HIGHLY PLEAS

Says Quay's Renouement of the Bull Moosers is Only One of a Large Number

Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, Republican candidate for Governor, came here early to-day delighted with a four days' campaign of western counties and smiling over an announcement made last night by an eminent Roosevelt man.

The announcement was that of Richard R. Quay, son of the late Senator M. S. Quay, one of the prime factors in the Roosevelt movement of 1912, that he is quitting the Washington party and will vote the Republican ticket in November.

Quay's tardy conclusion is that there is no Washington party in Pennsylvania any more.

Quay in his announcement says: "There has not been a Progressive party in Pennsylvania since 1912. The Progressive party here is Mr. Filin, and while I had great faith in the reformation for a time, I find that he is the same old Bill. I do not think the shoulders of Vance McCormick are strong enough to carry Mr. Filin through his present deal."

Dr. Brumbaugh said about the Quay statement: "I have no comment to make on this individual return to Republican principles. I have received in Western Pennsylvania countless pledges of support from men voting the Washington party ticket in 1912 and I value them just as highly and just as warmly welcome them back into the ranks of the party they really never left."

Dr. Brumbaugh made a whirlwind trip through towns in the Monongahela Valley, stopping at Donora, Monaca City and Clear Fork.

All Washington county turned out to pay Dr. Brumbaugh a signal non-partisan tribute when he dedicated the new Donora high school.

Dr. Brumbaugh replied with a non-partisan plea for the learning that makes good citizens of school children.

A mass meeting was held last night in Donora, where 7,000 persons, mostly men, gathered for the purpose of hearing the speaker.

TROOPS ORDERED FROM VERA CRUZ

Further Presence of U. S. Forces at Mexican Port Are Deemed Unnecessary

Special to The Telegraph Washington, Sept. 16.—President Wilson has decided to withdraw the American expeditionary troops of occupation from Vera Cruz.

Several weeks will be required to carry out the orders which the President has announced, and they will be completed at once by General Woodhouse, chief of the general staff of the War Department, and which were ordered by General Frederick Funston at Vera Cruz.

The troops have been ordered withdrawn from Vera Cruz. "This action is taken in view of the entire removal of the circumstances which were thought to justify the occupation."

Details for the transportation of the troops and marines back to the United States have not been worked out, but will be completed at once by General Woodhouse, chief of the general staff of the War Department, and which were ordered by General Frederick Funston at Vera Cruz.

President Wilson feels that there is no longer an emergency for the retention of the troops in Mexico. It is understood that the President's decision followed the receipt of information from Paul Fuller, the special representative, who was sent to Mexico City on a special mission by the President.

It is understood that Mr. Fuller has reported certain guarantees of the Carranza temporary government with respect to the future in Mexico and that upon the receipt of Mr. Fuller's report the President acted, but what the nature of these assurances were is not known.

Senator Rafael Zubaran, the Constitutionalist confidential agent in Washington, when informed of the decision of the President to withdraw the troops, expressed the belief that it would be received with great joy throughout Mexico.

No orders have been issued regarding the naval vessels now in Mexican waters. Some of the vessels have been withdrawn, but there is still a strong force of warships at Vera Cruz.

No decision was announced regarding the army that has been concentrated along the Texas border.

The committee was also given authority to revise the details of the Spanish war tax in its discretion.

Enthusiasm marked the caucus, which was more generally attended than any Democratic conference since the beginning of the present Congress. Expected wide disagreement which threatened to embarrass the Administration did not develop.

Mr. Underwood announced that the proposed bill would yield an estimated revenue of $105,000,000; the stamp tax to yield $35,000,000; special taxes on bankers and brokers, $5,800,000; special tax on tobacco dealers, $9,000,000; beer and an increased tax of 5 cents a barrel, $32,500,000; gasoline, $20,000,000; dry wines at 12 cents a gallon and port wines at 20 cents a gallon, $3,000,000.

The tax on tobacco dealers and manufacturers range from 5¢ to dealers in at least tobacco doing an annual business not exceeding $50,000 to 24¢ on cigar dealers doing a business in excess of $200,000 a year.

SEALERS APPROVE BOYER'S POLICIES

Sales of All Commodities by Weight Favored; Dr. Brumbaugh Meets the Sealers

Reports made by almost all of the sixty city and county sealers of weights and measures attending the State convention of such officials at the sessions to-day endorsed the proposition to sell all commodities by weight and for a uniform system of marking. The reports indicated that thousands of inspections had been made in every county, Philadelphia reporting 11,000, and that hundreds of false weights and measures had been confiscated. Co-operation on the parts of manufacturers of containers, weights and scales with the sealers in their efforts to secure compliance with the law was generally noted.

During the opening hour the sealers were met by Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, who happened to be in the city and who was invited to make a speech. The doctor commended the work being done by the sealers to insure housekeepers a square deal, and assured them of his interest in laws to uphold their efforts.
