BRILLIANT MILITARY WEDDING IN PORT ROYAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

LIEUT. HOMER GRONINGER - U. S. A.

MISS GERTRUDE MURRAY POMEROY

Pennsylvania Couples Still Going to Maryland

Special to The Telegraph

Hagerstown, Pa., Sept. 18.—Miss Maud E. Reitz and John B. Hellman, both of Harrisburg, were married on September 15 in this city by the Rev. Dr. A. B. Stratton, pastor of St. Paul's United Brethren Church.

The wedding of Miss Margaret M. Kochenour and Andrew R. Miller, another Harrisburg couple, which took place here on August 23 last, has just been made known through the filing of the minister's certificate at the courthouse by the Rev. A. B. Stratton at the parsonage of St. Paul's United Brethren Church and the wedding was kept a secret until this time.

Miss Florence M. Gutshall, of Carlisle, Pa., and Gurney L. Sheffer, of Mechanicsburg, Pa., were married in this city on Wednesday by the Rev. Dr. A. B. Stratton, pastor of St. Paul's United Brethren Church.

Miss Mabel Wallace, of Carlisle, Pa., and Clinton L. Eckert, of West Fairview, Pa., were married here on Wednesday at the parsonage of the First Baptist Church by the Rev. E. K. Thomas.

DANCES AND CLUB NIGHTS OF COLONIAL COUNTRY CLUB

The entertainment committee of the Colonial Country Club announces that the regular weekly dances so popular last season will be held this fall and winter on Friday evenings at the clubhouse, instead of Thursday, as originally planned.

The monthly "club night" for members will come as usual on the last Thursday of every month and the socials are eagerly looked forward to by members and their friends who are so fortunate as to receive invitations to attend.

GRONINGER-POMEROY WEDDINGS TOMORROW

Attractive Bride Well Known Here Where She Has Frequently Visited

Harrisburgers are interested in the marriage of Miss Gertrude Murray Pomeroy, of Port Royal, Pa., to Lieutenant Homer M. Groninger, of Fort Myer, Va., which will be a brilliant military event of to-morrow evening in the Presbyterian Church of Port Royal.

The ceremony will be performed at 8 o'clock by the bride's uncle, the Rev. Stewart P. Keeling, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church of Germantown and a former Harrisburger, assisted by the Rev. H. W. Warnshuis, pastor of the Port Royal Presbyterian Church. Norman B. Kurzenkabe, of this city, at the organ, and William Byers, violinist, will play the wedding marches, giving a recital prior to and after the ceremony.

Laurel branches and yellow daisies will decorate the church, with a canopy and arch extending from the heavier background of greenery, and a large wedding bell hung from the center of the canopy. Other decorations will be of cavalry yellow. Greenery with yellow and white blossoms will prevail at the bride's home, where a reception to the bridal party and immediate families will follow the service.

The attractive bride, who will be given in marriage by her brother, Darwin C. Pomeroy, has chosen a costume of white satin with court train and garnitures of duchesse lace. Her tulle veil, edged with duchesse lace, will be caught up with chignon and lace rosebuds and she will carry a shower bouquet of bride roses.

Miss Ellen C. Pomeroy will be maid of honor for her sister, wearing yellow messaline with chignon and lace draperies and carrying maidenhair fern.

The bridesmaids, Miss Pamela J. Pomeroy, the bride's sister, and Miss Sarah M. Groninger, a sister of the bridegroom, will wear frocks of white crepe de chine, with trimmings of satin and yellow chiffon. They will carry sheaves of yellow chrysanthemums.

The ribbon bearers include Miss Margaretta C. Irvin, Miss Elizabeth Purcell, Miss Ada Hartman, all of Millin; Miss Margaret C. Keeling, of Germantown; Miss Anna Shelley, of Port Royal; and Mrs. Norman B. Kurzenkabe, of Harrisburg. They will wear white costumes and carry broad yellow satin ribbons for the aisle.

The best man will be Lieutenant A. L. James, Jr., of the Fifth Cavalry, Fort Myer, Va. The groomsmen include Lieutenant John K. Milliken and Lieutenant George G. Hefferman, both of the Fifth Cavalry, Fort Myer, Va., and the ushers are Stacey Groninger and Hugh Groninger, of Port Royal; Crawford Maclay, of Chambersburg, and Silas C. Pomeroy, of this city.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. William C. Pomeroy, of Port Royal, and a graduate of Wilson College. She has frequently visited in this city and has attended many of the assemblies and dances of the Cotillion Club. The bridegroom is a son of Judge and Mrs. R. Elliott Groninger, of Port Royal, and is at present a lieutenant of the Fifth United States Cavalry, stationed at Fort Myer, Va., where he will reside with his bride.

CLASS HOLDS CORNROAST LAST EVENING IN THE WOODS

A delightful cornroast was held at Hoffman's Woods last evening by the Sunday school class taught by Samuel A. Worley in the Bethlehem Lutheran Church.

The following people were present: Mr. and Mrs. Worley, Mr. and Mrs. Rodmer, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Marzoff, Mr. and Mrs. Schlayer, Mrs. William Schlayer, Mrs. Hain, Mrs. Carson, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Smiley, Mrs. Dry, Mrs. Meyer, Mrs. Lottie Conrad, Miss Rosie Burns, Miss Jennie Gribble, Miss Mabel Fry, Miss Laura Hostetter, Miss Nellie Carson, Miss Effie Guss, Miss Ella Harris, Miss Minnie Gensler, Miss Margie Machan, Mr. Hetrick, Mr. Miller, E. Holbert, J. Gensler, Robert Worley, and Samuel Worley.

The Rainbow Campaign For Y. W. C. A. Membership

There will be a "rainbow campaign" the third week of October, in which every Harrisburger will be interested, as it is to secure a large membership for the new Young Women's Christian Association.

The new building is now a splendid reality, but there must be an annual income for maintaining it. Two thousand members, who pay $1 a year each, will be a great aid in running the institution as it should be run. Of course, those who wish to pay more than $1 a year can do so, but $1 a year will make them members of the Y. W. C. A. It will give them the privilege of attending the weekly current event talks that will commence the first Tuesday of November, from 4.30 to 5.30. The membership fee will also entitle them to take books from the Y. W. C. A. library and give them the use of the reading room and the magazines.

The "rainbow campaign" will be conducted with vigor and it may follow some of the general lines of the Ward campaign when the money was raised for the new building. Harrisburg believes in the Y. W. C. A. and 2,000 members should be secured very easily in a city of this size.

Shower Household Linens on Miss Helen M. Lohr

Miss Inez M. Miller, of 1521 Penn street, was hostess for the members of the Aquille Club and a few friends in honor of Miss Helen M. Lohr, who will be a fall bride.

The event was a linen shower and many beautiful and useful pieces of household linens were presented to the bride elect. The house was decorated in a color scheme of pink and white and refreshments closed the evening's pleasure.

In attendance were the Misses Helen Lohr, Elma Lyter, Ruth Lappley, Blanche Sebold, Ethel Batdorf, Emma Lorenz, Maude Graybill and Inez Miller, Mrs. Claude Batdorf, Mrs. Charles Lambert, Mrs. John M. Lappley, Mrs. James J. Nunkesser, Mrs. George F. Schaum, Mrs. Anna Wilson, Mrs. B. H. Miller, Eloise Nunkesser, Ira Miller and Gladys Miller.

MUM SOCIAL AT CHURCH IS LARGELY ATTENDED

More than one hundred and fifty people attended the "mum" social held in the St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Green and Seneca streets, last night by members of the Christian Endeavor Society. The following program was presented:

Piano solo, Miss Fay Gallagher; vocal solo, Miss Esther Wagner; reading, Miss Margaret Martz; quartet, Messrs. Snyder Crider, Martz and Burkholder; duet, Miss Fay Gallagher and Miss Katharine Smith; duet, Raymond Hoffman and Kenneth Fisher; violin solo, W. H. Fisher; readings, Miss Marion Martz.

Following the program games were played and refreshments served.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT OF MISS NETTIE V. LEIGHTON

Mrs. Mary E. Leighton, 1807 Susquehanna street, announces the engagement of her daughter, Nettie Virginia Leighton, and L. Burton Mosher, of Pewaukee, Wis. No definite date has been set for the wedding, which will probably be a late winter event.

Miss Leighton is a popular resident of the West End and a graduate of the Central high school, class of 1906. Mr. Mosher is a resident of New York and is at present connected with the Edgewood Dairy Farms in the capacity of general manager.

Former Harrisburger Married in Washington

The marriage of Miss Nellie Viola Neiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Neiss, of Washington, D. C., former Harrisburger, and William Francis Sherman, a grandson of the late General William T. Sherman, took place Wednesday evening in the First Congregational Church of Washington, with the pastor, the Rev. Jay T. Stocking, officiating.

The bride wore a charming costume of ivory brocade, crepe de chine with court train and her tulle veil fell from a lace cap crowned with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of orchids and valley lilies. Mrs. Jarvis Goodwin, the matron of honor, wore pale pink satin, lace trimmed, with cap of pink tulle, and carried a basket of pink roses.

The bridesmaids, who wore pale tints of crepe de chine and carried standard baskets of asters tied with chiffon to match their frocks, were Miss Martha Neiss, of this city; Miss Hattie Montgomery, of Baltimore; Miss Dorothy McElwee and Miss Elsie Small, of Washington. Charles Graves was best man. The ushers included Benjamin Harlan, Edwin M. Neiss, Jr., Carl Jorss and Edwin Kavanaugh, of New York city.

A buffet supper was followed at the home of the bride's parents and after the wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Sherman will be "at home" to their friends at 30 W street, Washington. Among the Harrisburg guests in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Neiss, grandparents of the bride; Mrs. Louis Housell, Louis and Robert Housell, Mrs. Julia Keim, Mrs. Fannie Laverty and Miss Sara Auxer. The bride is a granddaughter of the late Dr. Cavell, at one time pastor of the Fourth Street Church of God, this city.

ENTERTAINS THE IMP CLUB

The Imp Club was delightfully entertained last evening at the home of Miss Frances Edds, of Disbrow street. The evening was spent in playing cards.

A buffet supper was served to the following guests: Miss Ruth Wilson, Miss Carrie Grimes, Miss Amy Wilson, Miss Margie Grimes, Miss Margaret Wilson, Miss Hazel Detweiler, Miss Martha Elvidge, Miss Mary Rebe and Miss Frances Edds.
