THE GLOBE LADIES— A Fashion Note

Zibeline, so fashion says, is to be among the extremely smart fabrics for coats this Winter. So these new wraps, all of this lustrous warm cloth, are particularly interesting.

At $15 Two Very Good Models

One a straight loose coat with raglan sleeves, collar converting into either long lapel or buttoning close to neck, belted back effect—the other is a close-sheared Zibeline with large velvet collar buttoning close to neck and belt in front, beautifully edged with silk binding.

Both of the above models are made up in Blue, Brown and Green

At $30 A Charming Creation

Among the very handsome coats is a new Russian model just in—with long waist effect and full skirt, the large velvet collar is edged with Skunk fur, beautifully lined throughout with satin to match color of coat.

The Ladies' Coat Section is full of new things these days.

Pursuit of Austrians Continues Successfully

New York, Sept. 18.—Colonel Golejewski, military attaché of the Russian embassy to-day gave out at the Russian consulate there the following official dispatch which he said he had received from Petrograd: "Along the whole of the front our pursuit of the Austrian rear guard is being successfully continued. We have taken Sandomir, (in Russian Poland, 51 miles southwest of Lublin). The strongly fortified bridge head at Krozeshow, on the San river was taken by a dashing feat of our leading battalion. Keeping the retreating enemy on the run, this battalion crossed the bridge close on the heels of the Austrians and entering the town simultaneously with them, took possession of it. "Near Jaworow (in Galicia, thirty miles northeast of Przemysl) the baggage train of the Sixth and Fourteenth army corps with over thirty guns, 6,000 prisoners and enormous artillery stores were taken. "In East Prussia only unimportant skirmishing was reported."

There May or May Not Be Something in a Name

Whether or not there really is much in a name depends a lot on the point of view—or the humor in which you happen to be. For instance: Among the marriage licenses issued this morning was one to a couple of Harrisburg folks. The groom-elect is a bell-hop. The bride's name is Lucille. The name of the groom-to-be is Wedlock.

See These New CORSET STYLES

In conjunction with "The Fourth Semi-Annual Gossard Proclamation of Authoritative Corset Styles," we are placing on exhibition a full line of models of the beautiful new corsets which will set the styles for well dressed women this season. Our illustration shows the general lines that the style makers have decided on, but nothing less than a personal inspection will give you a satisfactory idea of their beauty and comfort. If you are contemplating the purchase of a new frock or suit, you should by all means purchase your corset first. The corset is the foundation of your entire appearance, and no frock, no matter how expensive, will be smart unless your corset has the correct new lines.
