IF BILIOUS, SICK TAKE CASCARETS

morning.

Get a 10-cent box now.

You're billious! You have a throbbing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is yellow, with dark rings under your eyes; your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and ill-tempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off, and what you need is a cleaning up inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you, and don't resort to harsh physics that irritate and injure. Remember that most disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels are cured by morning with gentle, thorough Cascarets—they work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your liver and bowels clean, stomach sweet, and your head clear for months. Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good and never gripe or sicken. — Advertisement.

THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY O Many of the wounded looked at Marta even more than at the flowers. It was good to see the face of a wom an, her eyes limpid with sympathy, and it was not what she said but the way she spoke that brought smiles in response to hers. For she was no solemn ministering angel, but high-spirited, cheery, of the sort that the major surgeon would have chosen to distribute flowers to the men. Every remark of the victims of war made its distinct and indelible impression on the gelatin of her mind.

"I like my blue aster better than that yellow weed of yours, Tom!" "You didn't know Ed Schmidt got it? Yes, he was right next to me in the

"Say, did you notice Dellarme's smile? It was wonderful."

"And old Bert Stransky! I heard him whistling the wedding march as

"Miss, I'll keep this flower forever!" "They say Billy Lister will live—his cheek was shot away!"

"Once we got going I didn't mind. It seemed like as if I'd been fighting for years!" "Hole no bigger than a lead-pencil.

I'll be back in a week!"

"Yes; don't these little bullets make "We certainly gave them a surprise when they came up the hill! I won-der if we missed the fellow that jumped into the shell crater!" "Our company got it worst!"

"Not any worse than ours, I'll wa-

Oh-h-h-" the groan ending in a clenching of the teeth.
"Hello, Jake! You here, too, and going in my automobile? And we've both got lower berths!" "Sh-h! That poor chap's dying!"

Worst of all to Marta was the case of a shrapnel fracture of the cranium, with the resulting delirium, in which the sufferer's incoherence included memories of childhood scenes, mo-ments on the firing-line, calls for his mother, and prayers to be put out of misery. A prod of the hypodermic from the major surgeon, and "On the perating table in fifteen minutes" was the answer to Marta's question if the poor fellow would live.

Until dark, in groups, at intervals, and again singly, the wounded were coming in from a brigade front in the region where the rifles were crackling nd the shrapnel clouds were hanging prettily over the hills; and stretchers were being slipped into place in the ambulances, while Marta kept at her

"We shan't have much more to do at this station," said the major surgeon when a plodding section of infantry in retreat arrived.

Big Masonic Service

Religious services at the Masonic Home, Elizabethtown, next Sunday afternoon, will be conducted by local officers of Perseverance Lodge of Masons. An invitation has been extended to the general public and it is expected that a big crowd will board the 2.25 p. m. train leaving Union Station.

The Rev. Dr. J. A. Lyter, pastor of the Derry Street United Brethren Sunday school of this place, held a birthday surprise for their teacher, Mrs. Williams Bitteman. All of the class, excepting two, were present. After spending the evening tery pleasantly they gathered around a table that was bountifully spread with all the delicacles of the season. BOY CAUSES MAN'S INJURY

After all, the knoll was only a single point on the vast staff map-only one of many points of a struggle whose progress was bulletined through the siftings of regimental, brigade, divi-sion and corps headquarters in net results to the staff. Partow and Lanstron overlooked all. Their knowledge made the vast map live under their eyes. But our concern is with the story of two regiments, and particularly of two companies, and that is story enough. If you would grasp the whole, multiply the conflict on the knoll by ten thousand.

There had been the engrossment of transcendent emotion in repelling the charge. What followed was like some grim and passionless trance with triggers ticking off the slow-passing minutes. Dellarme aimed to keep down the fusillade from Fracasse's trench and yet not to neglect the fair targets of the reserves advancing by rushes to the support of the 128th. Reinforced, the gray streak at the bot tom of the slope poured in a heavier fire. Above the steady crackle of bullets sent and the whistle of bullets re-ceived rose the cry of "Doctor! Doc-tor!" which meant each time that another Brown rifle had been silenced. The litter bearers, hard pressed to remove the wounded, left the dead. Already death was a familiar sight—an article of exchange in which Dellarme's men dealt freely. The man at Stransky's side had been killed outright. He lay face down on his rifle stock. His cap had fallen off. Stranstock. His cap had fallen off. Stransky put it back on the man's head, and the example was followed in other cases. It was a good idea to keep up a show of a full line of caps to the enemy.
