less fight than to tie ourselves to the tail of the Democratic donkey.

The whole fusion scheme is palpably an arrangement by which Mr. Flinn, the financier of the third party movement in Pennsylvania, unloads the burden of an expensive campaign upon the vainglorious hand-picked candidate of the Washington administration for Governor.

In his eagerness to win support of the few remaining Washington party voters in Pennsylvania the Democratic free-trade candidate for Governor continues to insist "that national issues do not enter into the contest in Pennsylvania this year."

FEWER LAWS

DR. BRUMBAUGH is having a splendid response throughout the State to his broad and inspiring speeches in which he portrays the splendid achievements of Pennsylvania. All who have attended the great meetings which he has addressed since the opening of the campaign come away full of enthusiasm for the candidate and resentful of the attacks of the little men who are now posing as reformers.

Perhaps no speech of the campaign has been so full of meat as one delivered by Dr. Brumbaugh at the anniversary exercises of the Paoli massacre. A paragraph or two will bear repetition. In Dr. Brumbaugh's plea for fewer laws and the practical introduction of the Golden Rule he said:

"Foreign manufacturers who have a good American trade are not going to lose it as a result of the war and the cry for American-made goods that has resulted today."

The rather warm weather of the last week has caused a good many youths to go back to baseball instead of playing football which generally claims the attention of the many in the playgrounds.

Abolition of the privilege of using cel baskets is causing a big increase in the number of eels in the Susquehanna river.

Interest in golf in the city is greater than ever.

Dr. Brumbaugh has hit the nail squarely upon the head in his declaration against loose and ill-digested legislation.

GOOD BASEBALL... THE defeat of Elmira by Harrisburg in a series of games for the championship of the New York State and Tri-State leagues brings out one point very clearly—that the Tri-State managements have given their patrons better baseball for less money than have those in charge of the New York organization.

Harrisburg has enjoyed unusually good ball. Two pennants in three years deserves not only good words from the fans, but their patronage in numbers sufficient to make the game at least stand on its own feet.

BUYING IN THE FALL... RATORS imbued with Fourth of July spirit have long delighted to tell us that the United States could shut itself off from the rest of the world and not only manage to exist, but could live in comparative comfort.

When William Draper Lewis quit the Washington party ticket in favor of a free-trade Democrat the final act in the dissolution of the third party movement in this State was enacted.

It is not a wild statement that was made by one of the Washington party objectors to the fusion deal when he charged that McCormick as a Democratic Governor would use the State patronage in the building up of a low tariff Democratic machine for the benefit of Wilson in 1916.

Now comes Gifford Pinchot, the other star performer of the third party in Pennsylvania, with the statement that he will also retire if by so doing he can defeat Senator Penrose. Thus the Democratic machine continues its game of selfish absorption of Hull Moose bosses.

are much lower than those of mid-winter and early Spring. If the war in Europe drives us back to some of the simplicities and economies of our fathers, it will have accomplished some good.

EVENING CHAT

The split log road drag and its brother, the road roller, are the mud pull Pennsylvania out of the mire this summer, and when the work is done the State Highway Department in repairing the nine thousand miles of State highways, after the end of the financial hold-up comes to be written, it will be found that the humble road drag was the big factor.

When he said that he did not intend to go alone and to try and smooth out the kickers. The Democratic campaign changes every week and changes for the worse.

Albert E. Turner, a leading independent of Philadelphia, says of Dr. Brumbaugh's position on local option: "He is not a man who utters insincere words when he said what he did regarding local option."

McCormick's Position on Fusion Ticket Causing Many to Renounce Him Utterly

"Mr. Palmer is in the contest to the finish," Roland S. Morris, chairman of the Democratic State committee.

Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer's defiant assertion that he will not surrender his place on the Democratic ticket so that the senatorial nomination be turned over to Gifford Pinchot, the Washington party candidate, has been promptly met by a statement by A. Nevin Detrich, the Washington chairman.

The Philadelphia Press to-day says that J. Benjamin Dimmick has repudiated the use of his name by the so-called Anti-Penrose League.

Seeing the handwriting on the wall, H. B. Sassaman and D. W. Shaffner, Democratic candidates for the House in the Second Dauphin legislative district, quit the race last night.

tee that they will now support Dr. Brumbaugh. And the indorsement of McCormick by a number of anti-liquor delegates at Harrisburg on Thursday last, temperance men say, no more indicates the real feelings of the vast army of local optionists in the State than does the indorsement by those delegates of Gifford Pinchot, rather than Palmer.

State Chairman Roland S. Morris last night issued a call for the Democratic State committee to meet here and see how the fusion scheme "took a bump."

Mr. Turner wrote the foregoing in a letter to Gifford Pinchot, chairman of the Independent Republican Committee of Harrisburg, who had asked Mr. Turner to vote for McCormick.

One Safe Home Match will light all four burners

Try to light a gas stove is large and strong. The flame "takes hold."

When we do not exaggerate when we say that you can get as much real service from three Safe Home Matches as from five ordinary matches.

They are non-poisonous, too. For that reason alone they should be in every home in America.

If you are exceptionally fortunate, you may light one burner—possibly even two. To light the others, you have to go through the same rigmarole.

With one Safe Home Match you can light all four burners. The stick

THE RECORD OF WASTE

[New York Sun.] The subjoined table, giving the amounts appropriated by Congress for the support of the Government for the years 1913-14 and 1914-15, is compiled from the chronological history of appropriation bills, second session of the Sixty-third Congress, prepared by the clerks to the committees on appropriations of the House and Senate; cents being disregarded.

Table with columns: Title, Law 1914-15, Law 1913-14. Includes rows for Agriculture, Army, Diplomatic, District of Columbia, etc.

No river and harbor bill has been passed for this year, and therefore this appropriation for both years is excluded from the grand totals for purposes of comparison. The pension appropriation, for obvious reasons, is decreased by $1,000,000; the Military Academy bill is $100,000 less than was allowed for last year; the sundry civil bill is down by $6,725,000.
