NEW GOLF RECORD BY FRANCIS OULMET

Amateur Is Retired in Match in Which He Makes Wonderful Play

Greenwich, Conn., Sept. 23.—Francis Oulmet, amateur golf champion, in a garrison finish over the Greenwich County Club course yesterday, hung up a record that is likely to stand for some time. Oulmet made 69 in three strokes. This beats both amateur and professional records. As usual, too, under such circumstances there were two or three soft spots in the round, including a 6, that made observers tremble for what had been done. The national amateur champion probably would not have been roused to such a pitch had he not been put out of the first division in the opening round by a college youngster, who until recently was quite unknown. The surprising nature of the developments was well summed up by Grant Peacock, Pittsburger and Princetonian, when he won 2 up and 1 to go, by saying "It's funny enough to be published in the comic weeklies." Oulmet's record card: Out . . . . . 5 2 4 5 4 4 4 4 4 4 26 In . . . . . 3 3 3 4 6 3 3 4 4 4 33 69

More Records Made in Grand Circuit Races

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 23.—At the Columbus Grand Circuit races yesterday a time average better than any ever known was made by four sets of trotters and pacers. Thirteen heats were raced to an average of 2.05 1-5. The principal contributors to this exhibition of extreme speed were champions Anna Bradford and Etawah. Anna Bradford lowered her own world's record of 2.03 3/4 for 3-year-old pacers to 2.01 1/4 and took away from William the record of 2.05 1/4 and 2.05 for a two-heat 3-year-old pacing performance. Squantum, the contender against the city, was timed separately in 2.04 and 2.02 1/4. The Geers horse then won two heats in the same time and ended the race with a fourth heat in 2.04 1/4, making the total time 8.20 1/4, and breaking the previous four-heat record of 8.20 3/4, made by Dudie Archdale. The final heat's time took from Soprano the record of 2.05 1/4 for a fastest fourth heat. Margaret Druen, a pronounced favorite, won the card's richest event, the $10,000 Holster-Columbus trotting stake in straight heats. In the middle heat she equaled her record, 2.05 1/4, taken at Grand Rapids early this season.

BITS OF SPORTS

Central High will have a hard proposition in Millersville. Keener A. C. wants a baseball game for Saturday. Robert Squares, 655 Mahantong street, is manager. Mechanicsburg A. A. elected C. G. Westhafer, 16 North Market square, manager of the football team. Two big line men on the Franklin and Marshall team reported yesterday. The two men are "Duke" Davidson, the All-Southern Virginia tackle, and Wertsch, an ex-captain of Millersville Normal School.

Harrisburg Academy Squad Starts Practice Today

Encouraging Response to First Call; Schedule Will Be Completed Saturday; Scholastic Activity

The Harrisburg Academy with encouraging prospects entered the football arena to-day. A large squad of candidates started practice on Academy Field. Following the first call, fifty candidates expressed a desire to try for the team this year. As in the past, two teams will be picked following the first ten days' practice. The schedule for the varsity eleven will be ready by Saturday. Practice games will be played with the Central High school after the annual contest between the two teams. Tech will also be given a midweek game. Other games will be with Franklin and Marshall Academy, Yeates School of Lancaster, Hill School, Baltimore, and other teams.

Rev. George E. Reed Is Named For Congress

Dover, Del., Sept. 23.—Former henchmen of J. Edward Addicks dominate the Progressive party in Delaware. This was disclosed at the Progressive convention, which nominated a State ticket. George B. Hynson, of Milford, the permanent chairman, told the delegates that the nominees faced a "good looking in November," but said the Progressives needed martyrs.

Coach Brooke Will Number His Players

Philadelphia, Sept. 23.—Coach Brooke, of the University of Pennsylvania, will number his players in the game with Gettysburg on Saturday. This feature was tried last season on the Indian-Dartmouth game and was pronounced a success. Harold Gaston, the scrub coach at Penn, wore a broad smile late yesterday afternoon when his team held the line twice in succession. The third time, however, proved to be the scrubs' undoing, for after Vic Ballou had made a sensational 15-yard run, the scrubs were driven unusually hard yesterday because of the nearness of the Gettysburg game. In a blazing sun which shone down on Franklin Field all day, the athletes got a taste of the amount of work that will be required of them in the future.

Fall of Jasroslau Is Decisive Stroke

London, Sept. 23, 1.40 p. m.—The fall of Jasroslau, the Austrian fortified position in Galicia, is regarded here as the most decisive stroke announced in the continental battlefields in the past two or three days. The Russian occupation of this important fortified railroad center is considered in London as likely to have a greater effect on the western front than anything reported from France for several days past.

City Swelters Under 93 Degree Temperature

Ninety-three. That's pretty hot for this time of year, but that was the temperature at 2 o'clock and it may hover to the 95 mark before the day is done. The record for heat on this date is 94. At 2 o'clock this afternoon the barometer had fallen and indications for thunder storms were noticed.

Audit Bill Received and O. K'd by County Auditors

In referring to a surcharge audit tale in an evening newspaper, the County Commissioner to-day simply exhibited the receipted bill for the item in question which had been O. K'd by the president of the auditing board. The story was to the effect that the auditors had declared their intention of surcharging the County Commissioners with $50. This sum, it was represented, was paid to the Telegraph Printing Company for printing the 1912 audit. The auditors, according to the story, objected to the Telegraph being paid $200 for the audit, when the other local papers, with less circulation and consequently lower advertising rates, had agreed to do it for less.

Bible Class Anniversary

Union Deposit, Pa., Sept. 23.—On Sunday afternoon next at 2 o'clock the Men's Perseverance Adult Bible class of the Lutheran and Reformed churches will hold its anniversary with a special program. Their will be addresses by the Rev. R. A. Bausch, pastor of the Reformed Church, and the Rev. C. A. Forscht, pastor of the Lutheran Church. A special musical program has been arranged.

TRAVEL WITH HOWE

In Tenneyson's "Charge of the Light Brigade," he describes the famous 600 as walking "Into the Valley of Death." Recently a union photographer ventured into what may be described as a "veritable Valley of Death" even more real than the cannon's mouth. The camera man walked into that innermost jaw of destruction—to the very edge of the crater within the crater of Vesuvius. There he set up his camera, and standing on a mere crust of lava suspended over the molten mass he group him, and a canopy of steam, vapor and smoke surcharged with poisonous gases above and all around him, he filmed, for the first time in the history of the world, the supreme moments of convulsive nature which Lyman H. Howe will present at the Majestic Friday and Saturday, with daily matinees.—Advertisement.

ORPHEUM

To-day Harrisburg is declaring Ben Rolfe's "Lonesome Lassies" the finest miniature musical comedy we have seen. After the presentation of his delightful production, "The Bride Shop," it would seem next to impossible to find anything to which Harrisburg would even be on a par with that attraction. Nevertheless "The Lonesome Lassies" is a musical comedy that is that it will please the most fastidious. The players are talented and some of them have attained considerable reputation in musical comedy. And the chorus of girls are just the prettiest group of lassies anybody could wish to see. The tuneful lyrics that are scattered throughout the act are of the songs kind and are first time to be heard about the streets long after the attraction has gone. The interesting thread of plot has to do with a clever chap who has followed a pretty girl to her summer home and in the meantime has been mistaking her for a picture to take pictures of the girls. Both arrive at the same time and there was a case of mistaken identity. And finally a burglar appears on the scene and he's going to rob the girl's home. Innocence will end the same way unless she steals the girl instead. All through the piece the action is interesting, and there are some really funny bits. They are commenting on the girls' wonderful gowns. "The Lonesome Lassies" are scoring a decided hit with Orpheum and other "lover and really meritorious Keith hits are grouped about the big headliner.—Advertisement.

COLONIAL

"Charles Dickens immortalized "Old Curiosity Shop" is causing more talk than anything that ever came to the Busy Corner. This feature film is in two parts, the first acting as a lead-in and wonderful photography and is certainly worth seeing. Admirers of Dickens' works will not want to overlook the engagement of this attraction at the Colonial Theater. For the last half of the week the Colonial is announcing a wonderful moving picture feature entitled "Home, Sweet Home." This story, it is alleged, has caused more comment than any picture that was ever produced. "Home, Sweet Home" is a story of a young girl who is a sensation. The vaudeville attractions are diversified and really worth while.—Advertisement.

THE PHOTOPLAY

The wonderful six-act Vitaphone Society drama featuring Maurice Costello in "Mr. Barnes of New York," will be shown to-day at the Photo-play. Costello, the famous Vitaphone star, is ably supported by Mary Charleson, Costello, as an American tourist, Mr. Barnes, befriends a young lady in Europe, and thereby starts an acquaintance which leads to many thrilling scenes.—Advertisement.

"THE CHARACTER WOMAN" AT THE PALACE

"The Character Woman" which is on the program for to-morrow at the Palace, is a story of stage life and some of its ups and downs. It is a case of love, and the prevention of another love which "The Character Woman" knows will end the same way unless she is able to prevent the elopement of the leading lady and the manager, who has so far managed to keep her. The story is based on the book by the same name written by Mary J. Holmes. Tempest, the villainess of this story, was not essentially bad or criminal in her nature, but she was driven to her acts of a horrifying nature. Was all fair in love and war? to be applied in her case? In the end she repented and attempted reparation, and while the man she loved and sacrificed for her lay in cold death, still compassion must be felt for her, for she was, in all, a woman with the possibilities of gentle wifehood and motherhood, though the cards of fate had been stacked against her.—Advertisement.

"THE EAGLE'S REFUGEE" TODAY AT THE VICTORIA

The startling adventures of a society rogue, whose double life is a series of exciting escapades, will be shown to-day in a three-part offering, entitled "The Eagle's Refuge." It is a drama with an unusual plot, and affords very clever acting. The play is full of motion and has many stirring scenes. "The Coocon and the Butterfly" is a two-part feature of an exceptional character. "Our Mutual Girl" is with us to-day in picture No. 35 of that always interesting series. The Pathé Daily News is shown at the Victoria every Wednesday and Friday.—Advertisement.

Open Bids For Three Bridges in County

Bids for the rebuilding of three county bridges and for the repainting of half a dozen others were opened by the county commissioner at noon to-day. Following were the proposals: Swatara creek bridge, between Middletown and Royalton, steel girder, G. W. Ensign Inc., $19,958.50; Ferro-Concrete, $20,995.50; Central Pennsylvania Steel Company, city, $19,999; Whittaker and Diehl, city, $23,972. Concrete viaduct, Ferro-Concrete, $16,545; G. W. Ensign, $21,164.50; Central Construction and Supply, $18,000. Ensign was low bidder on the other bridges.

DOUBLE FUNERAL

Elizabethtown, Pa., Sept. 23.—A sad spectacle was witnessed this afternoon in this place, when a double funeral was held in the Reformed Church. The auditorium was crowded to the doors and the choir rendered a number of special selections. Mrs. Adam Geistweit and her daughter, Mrs. George Miller, both members of the church, were laid to rest in graves side by side.

COMMERCE CHAMBER PLANS WORK

Plans for Fall and winter work were outlined at a meeting of the executive committee with the new secretary, E. L. McColgin, this afternoon. The meeting followed a luncheon at the Harrisburg Hotel. It was the first meeting of the executive committee since the new secretary assumed charge.

RING FIRE BELL AS SIGNAL TO SERENADE

Dillsburg, Pa., Sept. 23.—B. H. Shriner, the young businessman, and his bride, who were secretly married in Baltimore, returned from their wedding trip and upon their arrival at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Riever, South Baltimore street, on Tuesday they were given a vigorous serenade by a callithumpian band. Fully two hundred men, women and children participated in the serenade, using all sorts of devices to make a noise. At 8 o'clock the fire bell was rung as a signal and the hose company, of which Mr. Shriner is a member, made a run to the bride's home with the hose carriage to participate in making noise with the hose carriage bells. The three cafes enjoyed a rush of ice cream at Mr. Shriner's expense following the serenade.
