Getting Hershey Ideas For New Department Store
 Northumberland, Pa., Sept. 24.—Charles Boust and son, A. C. Boust, have spent several days in Hershey, below Harrisburg, where they have secured ideas from one of the big department stores there, which they will use in a large department store to be erected by them in Hazleton. H. E. Walker, the local lumberman, is cutting the timber for the building from woodland in Snyder county and construction will be started soon as possible. The building will be 200 feet by 32 feet and two stories high. Part of it will be used as a moving picture theater.

That Weak Back

accompanied by pain here or there—extreme nervousness—sleeplessness—may be faint spells—or spasms—all are signals of distress for a woman. She may be growing from girlhood into womanhood—passing from womanhood to motherhood—or later suffering from that change into middle life which leaves so many wrecks of women. At any or all of these periods of a woman's life she should take a tonic and nerve prescriber for just such cases by a physician of vast experience in the diseases of women.

DR. PIERCE'S Favorite Prescription

has successfully treated more cases in past forty years than any other known remedy. It can now be had in sugar-coated, tablet form as well as in the liquid. Sold by medicine dealers or trial box by mail on receipt of 50 cents in stamps.

Miss Elizabeth Lordahl of Berkeley, Cal., in a recent letter to Dr. Pierce said: "I was completely broken down in health, I wasaching and had pains all over my body and was so nervous that I could scream if anyone talked to me, but I had the good fortune to meet a nurse who had been cured by Dr. Pierce's Prescription. I have never had an occasion to consult a physician since—an in excellent health."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate stomach, liver and bowels—sugar-coated, tiny granules

Picking the Winner

In sporting circles a "hunch" means an instinctive inspiration, a feeling of certainty, a "sure thing." Smokers who pick King Oscar 5c Cigars have that same "hunch" that they are getting quality for their money. Every time they pick a King Oscar they pick a winning smoke.

HOWE'S TRAVEL FESTIVAL
 The new program which Mr. Howe will present at the Majestic to-morrow and Saturday, with daily matinees, has its intense moments such as are imparted by a ride on a runaway train, which in itself is exciting enough, but the thrills are intensified and made more thrilling by means of those realistic "tricks" which always distinguish Howe's from all others. Then also there are some spectacular moments experienced during a trip down into the crater of Vesuvius—the very edge of the vast cauldron of boiling lava. Some of the mysteries of Nature's handiwork are revealed. The growth of plants and the development of flowers from bud to blossom. The manifestations of science and chemistry are also shown in a film depicting the electrolysis of metals and the fantastic formations created by the process. Real travel experiences are provided by a trip to ever enchanting Venice, during which Howe travelers will glide up and down the canals and see the quaint city under the wizardry of superb color effects at sunset and by moonlight. A railroad ride through Greece, bird studies in the colors of nature, and the most interesting cartoons are some of the other features.—Advertisement.

KIRK BROWN COMPANY
 Manager Hopkins takes pride in presenting Kirk Brown and his excellent company of players at the Majestic all next week. Mr. Brown is looked upon as in the front rank of the popular attractions now before the public. Mr. Andrews, who is declared to be the youngest and most clever leading lady in the present day. The supporting company has been in the organization for the past seven seasons. The plays presented during the company's stay are all successes, and the absolute right to produce them belongs to Mr. Brown only, and comprises "The Woman in the Case," "The Holmes Case," "A Study in Scarlet," "The Red Rover," by Jerrald Sheppard, "Kylie Bellew's great play," "Raffles," from the pen of Victoria Cross, and made famous in London under the management of the Adelphi. "The play" (Mr. Brown's last season's success) the Criterion Theater, New York, greatest success; "Sherlock Holmes," "A Study in Scarlet," the powerful drama gleaned from fiction, worked out by that famous writer, the Doctor. This is the play for Monday matinee, and "Raffles," the Amateur Crackman," for Monday evening. Matinees will be given daily.—Advertisement.

ORPHEUM
 A new brand of blackface humor, sprinkled with expert banjo playing, is being served up to the Orpheum audiences this week by Eddie Ross, probably one of the best known and most popular artists of the black-cork variety appearing in vaudeville. On paper we can call him Eddie, even if we do say Mr. Ross to his credit. Yet Eddie's greatest asset is his originality. For instance, he starts to tell a story and long before he has finished he has told about five or six others. Sometimes he stops to explain a point, going into details until he has his audiences fairly hilarious. His banjo playing is second to none and he dances while he plays of country, and of the denying the fact that Rolfe's "Lonesome Lassies" are the "peaches and cream" of the week. This is an irresistible beauty show with plenty of fun and frolic. "The Lonesome Lassies" are so called because a score of youthful misses are supposed to be spending their summer at a beautiful suburban home. But at the Orpheum this week they are far from home. In short, the whole bill is entertaining and clever from start to finish.—Advertisement.

COLONIAL
 Lillian Gish, declared by David Belasco to be the most beautiful blonde in the world, is the star of the new feature film that is being presented at the Colonial for the last half of the week. The feature has received more favorable discussion in picture magazines than any feature of recent days. The feature has received more favorable acting and splendid photography, and unfolds a beautiful story. The vaudeville attractions that are to be uncovered to-day are unusual and really clever. For the last half of next week the Colonial management will present "The Life of Shakespeare," with authentic photography as well as being historically correct.—Advertisement.

"BATTLE OF THE SEXES" AT THE PHOTOPLAY
 Frank Andrews, a man who found pride and joy in the company of his wife and daughter, is himself enthrilled by a siren, who lives in the same apartment house. The story is advanced through scenes of the accompanying notes of New York's night life. At this time the mother's mind nearly loses balance, and the daughter, determines to take part in the tragedy. With revolver in hand she steals up to the apartment of the woman, but her frail nature is overcome by the anger of the woman and her mission fails. However, the errand is not fraught with failure, for the father, coming in at this moment, finds his daughter being made love to by the sweetheart of the young woman, and realizes the road upon which he has traveled. The realization is brought home to the father's mind that the law of moral ethics that governs a woman's life necessarily governs that of man as well. He takes his daughter away with him and together they go back to their home of happiness and content.—Advertisement.

Former Pennsylvania Physician Dies in Ohio
 Newport, Pa., Sept. 24.—Word has been received here of the death at Westerville, Ohio, of Dr. D. W. Coble, a pioneer of that town and one of its most highly respected residents. He was a charter member of the Westerville chapters of the Masons of Knights of Pythias and Grand Army of the Republic and had held the highest positions in each organization, and was also a prominent member of the Methodist Church. ADVICE ABOUT HOW TO REMOVE UNSIGHTLY HAIR

Many physicians use the ingredients contained in El Rado for removing hair in connection with their laboratory work. They have conclusively how perfectly harmless its action is. Thousands of women have discovered this, too, and have learned how totally unnecessary it is to go around with unbecoming growths on lip, chin, cheek, neck or arms. They apply a few drops of El Rado, the liquid hair remover. Almost instantly the hair vanishes, leaving the skin smooth, velvety and even whiter than before. This is because, positively without the slightest harm, the hair has been dissolved.

El Rado is now a standard toilet article, used by thousands of women. You need have no more hesitation in asking for and using El Rado than in asking for and using a toilet powder. Try El Rado. It will prove for yourself that it will do everything claimed. Your money back if you are not entirely satisfied. 50c and $1.00 size bottles at all leading drug and department stores, or from the Plying Pig Co., New York. Valuable information sent on request.
