

STOLE BOOTS OF THE MAJOR OF BALTIMORE?

Negro Sentenced to Four Months in Jail, Charged With That Offense, Too

BEGAN UNIQUE CAREER AT 15

35 Deviled Crabs Source of Much Annoyance For Robert Cortney; Other Cases

That colored youth who was accused back in 1912 of breaking into a house and stealing a pair of boots that belonged to the mayor of Baltimore for four months in the Dauphin county jail to-day. He is Happy Hunter.

Four Months With Thanks When President Judge Kunkel imposed the four-month sentence both negroes sighed with relief.

Most of this morning's session was taken up before Judge Kunkel with the trial of R. E. Slivits. He was charged by Samuel Schomberg, a Paxtang Park special officer, with enticing an 11-year-old child, Slivits said he is 56 years old.

Thirty-five deviled crabs proved the undoing of Robert Cortney. Robert had to answer to a jury last morning for taking thirty-five of Gertie Richardson's crabs to Lebanon to sell, and of retaining the $3.50 he netted on the deal. The jury convicted him, too.

Other cases disposed of in No. 1 room included William Kelley, convicted of assault, seven months in jail.

Stiff Penitentiary Term For Woman in September Court; Some Other Cases

Among the late afternoon cases disposed of yesterday in September criminal court were the following:

John Wertz and Florence Kunkel, two to four years each in the Eastern Penitentiary, following their conviction of a serious crime. Ezekiel Warren got six months for larceny, and Howard Bruner got three months for felonious assault. Sentence on William Washington and John Moon was suspended following their conviction on larceny and malicious mischief charges and they were directed to appear at January sessions.

Costs $100 Fine to Operate Motor Car if Driver Is Drunk

Operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated proved to be a costly experience for Thomas Washington after Additional Law Judge McCarroll finished with his case in No. 2 room in September quarter sessions to-day.

Washington was found guilty of an additional charge of malicious mischief. Judge McCarroll fined him $100 and costs on the first charge and gave him a month in jail on the second.

From twelve to eighteen months in the Eastern Penitentiary was doled out to Harry Nicodemus, who had been convicted of a charge growing out of his criminal relations with three small boys. Other cases disposed of by Judge McCarroll included:

Alex. Frame, larceny, two months; Charles Powell, assault and battery, acquitted and costs; John Thomas, larceny, nine months.

GRAND JURY IGNORES BILLS

September criminal court grand jury to-day ignored the following bills of indictment:

George Myers, forgery; George Morgan, assault; John Williams, alias Struck, sodomy; Robert Stewart, wantonly pointing firearms; Katie Makolony, assault and battery; Annie Brighton, assault and battery.

ATTACKED PHONE OPERATOR?

Paul Chronister, who was tried during the morning for attacking a telephone operator, this afternoon changed his plea to guilty on the assault and battery charge only. The girl alleged that Chronister had broken her eyeglasses when he attacked her.

JEWES OBSERVE YEAR'S MOST SACRED DAY

Special Services and Fasting Mark Day of Atonement; Stores Closed

Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, the holiest and most sacred day in the Hebrew calendar, began last night at sundown and will end at sundown to-day.

The day was closely observed in Harrisburg and vicinity. Those of the Jewish faith closed their stores yesterday at 6 p. m. and will not open until tomorrow.

Services appropriate to the day were held in all Hebrew synagogues. At Ohav Shalom Synagogue last night Rabbi Charles J. Freund had as his text for the sermon, "Asleep in Sin." This morning at 10 o'clock further services were held.

The subject of Rabbi Freund's sermon was "Individual and Communal Responsibility."

Auxiliary to Meet.—The Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions of St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal Church, will meet to-morrow afternoon at the home of the rector, the Rev. James F. Bullitt, 2220 Chestnut street.

CITY COMMISSIONERS ON TRIP OF INSPECTION

City Council made another general inspection trip over the city after yesterday afternoon's session.

The City Commissioners made the trip by automobile and visited, among other places, the southern river front of the city to watch the "hill" operations, the various graving and paving jobs, including Wisconsin street, the Morton Truck Company's plant, where the new fire apparatus is under construction, and the parks.

BEGGING LETTER HITS M'CORMICK

Cumberland County No-License League Adjourned Without Giving Him an Endorsement

Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 30.—As the result of the recent expose by the Telegraph of the manner in which funds for the Palmer-McCormick campaign are being asked from hotel men in Dauphin county, the sentiment of the "no-liquor" advocates in this county, which was strongly for the Harrisburg man, has undergone a sudden change.

It was planned, according to advance information, to endorse McCormick at a meeting of the executive committee of the Cumberland No-License League held here yesterday, but the committee adjourned without giving out the expected endorsement. It is whispered that the reasons were the unchallenged statements made as to bids for liquor contributions to the Democratic campaign fund and also of McCormick's alleged connection with clubs where liquor is dispensed to members.

The league controls a considerable number of voters, but efforts made to swing them into line with the Democratic ticket are said to have met with considerable opposition from the fair-minded men who oppose the licensed liquor traffic. Questions by certain of these brought out the fact that McCormick is a member of the Central Democratic Club of Harrisburg, as well as at least one Philadelphia organization of a social character. Many sincere and earnest opponents of liquor cannot understand the mental attitude of a man who openly and actively opposes the sale of liquor in a hotel or saloon and yet retains active membership in clubs which dispense liquors to their members.

Another attempt to switch the backing of the league to the Democratic candidates, made by men whom, it is said, became allied with the movement for this sole reason, was unsuccessful. A majority of the delegates claiming that when all of the candidates had declared for the candidate that it was manifestly unfair to pick on two, and both of these Democrats, for support.

F. Hollensople, of Harrisburg, a representative of the Anti-Saloon League, was at the meeting.

WAR BULLETINS

Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—Colonel Colejowski, the Russian military attaché here, received to-day official dispatches almost identical with the report of operations issued at Petrograd and reaching this country last night by way of Paris. He said they indicated that the Russian war completely surrounded, although they did not confirm a reported fall of the fortress.

BELIEVED LUTHERAN SYNOD WILL PROVIDE FUNDS FOR GERMANS

eran school at Breklum, Germany. He read a letter from Professor A. W. Hillebrandt, which told most graphically of the privations and suffering caused by the great conflict. The Breklum institution, which is under the supervision of E. A. Jensen, before the school had an enrollment of thirty-two students; now it has less than ten. Nearly all of the students in Germany are at the front.

Need Financial Aid Dr. Gotwald explained to the synod that prior to the war the school was being aided by the German Lutheran churches but that now it must depend on the aid of the American churches for further existence. He declared that immediate action should be taken by all American Lutheran synods to aid the German schools and forermost among them the Breklum school.

In and about the synod this morning it was rumored that some appropriation will likely be made by the East Pennsylvania body toward relieving the financial stress of their European brethren.

This morning's session of the synod was opened with prayer by the Rev. S. W. Herman, pastor of Zion. The Rev. J. B. Markward, pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran Church, this city, conducted the morning's Bible study. His subject was "The Prohibited Sack Cloth."

The reporting of the various synodical committees took up much of the morning. A report on the ministerial education committee's work read by the Rev. J. B. Markward, pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran Church, this city, conducted the morning's Bible study. His subject was "The Prohibited Sack Cloth."

BUILD STATE ROAD IN SOUTH HANOVER

County Joins With Township Highway Between Union Deposit and Hanoverdale

The section of the road has been under discussion for some months. The supervisors had asked the County Commissioners to join in the application for State aid. To-day the Commissioners adopted a resolution to effect.

The money for the construction of the road, according to the usual custom is provided for by the State, county and the township, the State assuming the risk and the county and township dividing the remainder. It is considered unlikely that the highway will be built before Spring.

State Approves Bridge Plans.—Lancaster county's Board of Commissioners was officially notified by the State Water Supply Commission to-day that the plans as submitted to the State board for the construction of a concrete bridge across the Swatara creek between Middletown and Royersford were acceptable. County Engineer Hershey will submit to the Commissioners a set of specifications embodying the county's ideas for the proposed structure.

Couldn't Do At All Well.—Lancaster county's Board of Commissioners didn't do so well during the month of September, according to the report of the Dauphin county market committee. All told there were only 113 licenses issued, five less than the average.

Visited Mr. Kennedy.—Fred Miller, head of one of the big brass foundries of Decatur, Ill., and a life-long friend of ex-Superintendent George Kennedy, of the city water department, called to-day upon Mr. Kennedy and presented him with a basket of fruit.

Hurrying to Pay School Tax.—A penalty for failure to pay school tax for 1914 will be added and scores of people have crowded
