The sale of seats

The sale of seats, the scale of prices and the manner in which the tickets are to be distributed will also be arranged. The ticket matter is one which has caused more trouble for the baseball magnates than any other, for the matches have their work cut out for them to keep the pasteboards from falling into the hands of speculators.

from falling into the hands of speculators.

The prices will probably be the same as last year, $2 and $3 for reserved seats, and it is more than likely that tickets for only two games will be sold, in order to avoid the annoyance of refunding money, as was the case last year.

STATE GRIDIRON MEN TOLD TO DO BETTER

Special to The Telegraph

State College, Pa., Sept. 30.—The first string men who started the game for Penn State against Westminster last Saturday have been rested. After lining up the varsity, Coach Hollenback spent an hour pointing out the glaring defects in State's play against the westerners. He was especially critical of the tackles and their failure to break up interference.

The backs who failed to give sat'sfactory protection to the runner in factory protection to the runner in factory protection to the runner in the first game, were drilled in the formation of fast forming and effective interference. Much time will be spent this week, before the Muhlenberg game, in developing that feature of State's offensive play. Lamb, the big tackle, has placement kicking ability. While he missed his only try on Saturday, Hollenback drilled him to-day in anticipation of using Lamb in that capacity against Muhlenberg. He kicked eight out of ten.

SEPTEMBER BIG BUILDING MONTH

Permits Are Issued to Value of $105,450-Fall Record Since 1912

Harrisburg enjoyed a real building boom during September—a boom for the early Fall month at any rate. Figures complled to-day following the issue of the last permit showed that twenty-four permits had been issued at an approximate b.

Central High Will Have Hard Proposition in Mt. Carmel Eleven; Tech Goes to Lancaster For Their Game

Today

With five days of hard practice scholastic football promises much interest in the next Saturday games. Phuadelphia, Sept. 30. — Members of the national baseball commission will announce world's series plans following a meeting at the Believue-Stratford to-day.

It is now possible to make definite plans because Boston won yesterday, while New York lost. This cunched the victory for the Braves. At the meeting were Governor John K. Tener, president of the National League;

No Army-Navy Game.

With five days of hard practice speed and beef to win the games. Black and Sam Froelich are out of the game with injuries. Smeltzer is back at work and Smucker who was unable to play Saturday was in practice yesterday. After practice to-morrow Coach Smith expects to be able to plut have a hard team to play against in Lancaster, Coach D. Forrest Dunkle its giving his men special attention in scrimmage work, and in carrying the game. However, it may require both order. Tech came out of the game of the National League;

there will be no football game between the teams of the Military Academy at tives of the Boston and Athletic teams.

President B. F. Shibe and Manager
Mack represented the Athletics, while President James Gaffney and Manager
Stallings looked after the Braves' intests. The toss of a coin will decide the city in which the series will start. It has virtually been settled that the first game will be played on Friday.
October 9, but this will not be settled officially until to-day.

A report came from Boston last night to the effect that Manager Stallings favored playing the series in one day stands. It has been proposed that the games be played in two-day stands, in order to avoid the necessity of so much train traveling. Connie Mack is reported to favor the latter plan and this is the principal matter to be threshed out at to-day's meetling.

Boston Braves Need Fear No Other Team; the Shouting Will Come Later

Special to The Telegraph Boston, Sept. 30—A double by Whit-ted after Evers had been passed broke a tie in the ninth inning yesterday, and Boston not only defeated Chicago, 3 to 2, but won the National League pennant. It was the last game of the season here for the new champions.

Tom Hughes, formerly of the Ro chester Internationals, who pitched his first game for Boston, held the visitors of five hits. Their first run was due to a muff by Moran of Good's fly, netting three bases, and Saier's sacrifice fly. Saier singled in the fourth and advanced to third on two wild pitches. When Schulte hit to Hughes, Saier was run down, Schulte scoring on Bues' triple. Boston's first runs were due to four successive bases on balls and a squeeze play, Moranville hunting toward first as Whitted raced

The Braves' victory over Chicago while New York lost to Pittsburgh, made defeat mathematically imposmade defeat mathematically impossible for the Bostonese. The glory of the fight, however, was earned during the period from July 14 to about September 16, during which they battled their way up out of the uttermost depths of the league, passing team after team, and establishing a lead that was never even challenged. They tied New York for rst place on September 2, and soon carved their way ahead, so that in two weeks they were comfortably established. They have been hailed as sure pennant winners for over a week past, but it remained for yesterday's games to make it absolutely certain. They could love all of their remaining games and still finish first—even in New York won all of the games it has yet to play.
