ARTHUR D. BACON, Commander of Division No. 10

In the evening will be under the direction of Pilgrim Commandery, No. 11, of Harrisburg.

Visiting commanderies from Lebanon and Carlisle will be met by an escort from Pilgrim Commandery.

Bugle Sounds at 2:15. At 2:15 the assembly will be sounded.

HOW TO STOP STOMACH TORMENT

Sound Advice From A Well-known Physician.

Men and women who suffer from what they call dyspepsia, indigestion or just plain "stomach-trouble," usually seek regular relief in the form of some peptic pill or tablet, or other artificial digestant.

STOMACH SUFFERERS! READ THIS

So many stomach sufferers have been benefited by a simple prescription of vegetable oils which cured a Chicago druggist of chronic stomach, liver and intestinal trouble.

ARE YOU SELF-CONSCIOUS

In company, easily confused and embarrassed? Would you like the mental alertness, control, poise, that makes you instantly master or mistress of the occasion?

LAIRD WITHDREW IN FIGHTING MOOD

Westmoreland County Democratic Candidate For Congressman Roasts Party Boss

When the Democratic State headquarters gave out the fact that Major J. M. Laird, of Greensburg, had withdrawn as a candidate for Congress in the Twenty-second district for Congress on the Democratic ticket the impression was given that he had done so in the interest of fusion and that the nomination of J. B. Hammond, the brick manufacturer of Bolivar and Bull Moose candidate, as the Democratic candidate was a patriotic act. Instead it appears that the major withdrew in wrath and disgust, assailing the machine and its leaders and vowing that vengeance would overtake A. Mitchell Palmer and his ilk. As the Major belongs to the fighting Democracy of Westmoreland, his attitude shows that he does not think a Democrat can win in his district and that there are some Democrats in the western counties who do not approve of Vance McCormickism and Palmerism. He says: "Inasmuch as I cannot consistently support A. Mitchell Palmer for United States senator, and certain other nominees on the Democratic state ticket, I

Kane and that chronic old place hunter, W. H. Berry. Guthrie was rewarded by being appointed ambassador to Japan; Wilson got a Cabinet job and Palmer had himself elected a member of the national committee; Berry, the scyphoid, was given survivor of the port of Philadelphia, an $8,000 plum, while Kane got a district attorneyship in the eastern part of the state, and Blaklee landed in the fourth assistant postmaster general's office. "As a matter of fact, every last one of the leaders of the 'reformation,' which didn't reform, has anchored himself in office, or has planned to get there in the very near future. "To come nearer home, those who as often voted for Republican candidates as for the Democratic nominees were rewarded with postmasterships and other fat offices (some of them the merest sinecures), while other, always loyal and faithful to their party and its principles, were given the gentle 'sand bag.' These appointments, let it be understood, were made upon the recommendation of the so-called local organization, or Greenburg ring, if you please. "Under the circumstances, Mr. Chairman, my sense of self-respect would amply warrant me, should I choose to do so, in invoking the aid of every loyal member of the intrepid and unconquerable 'old guard' in opposing to the utmost the election of Palmer and every other candidate actively identified with the Allentown conspiracy, to the end that the temporary overthrow of the Democratic party in this state will be avenged and the crime of 1910 be made a stench in the nostrils of every true Democrat of to-day and of generations of Democrats yet unborn."
